I suppose the most obvious reason behind this venture is the fact that my grandfather, William Henry Furnish, was married twice and had children from both marriages. And I happen to be a descendant of the second marriage.

His first family all lived in Indiana and the second family in Michigan. To try and keep first and second cousins straight when they are as old or nearly as old as my parents was most difficult; especially as a child growing up. Further the cousins I knew so well in Michigan were around my age. And besides we didn’t see the Indiana relatives that often. More often at funerals than any other time. We did keep in touch, however, through correspondence.

Approximately twenty years ago I decided to use a little notebook to keep each Indiana family straight and jotted down new births, weddings and deaths on the pages reserved for them, along with any other pertinent information that was of interest to me, so that when we next met I would be able to have the families correctly fixed in my mind without embarrassment.

So what started out as a device for my own information has turned into a book of utter amusement to me.

I finally started collecting diligently and our vacations for the past five years have deliberately, for the most part, centered around Indiana and Ohio relatives; where I could gather information from them, as well as their family Bibles, photo albums, and documents; the Fort Wayne Public Library, where I received much help; as well as various courthouses and cemeteries.

A great deal of correspondence has been done both here and abroad as well as many phone calls have been made which has all been time consuming as well as costly.

I believe I can honestly say I have a natural love of people and really enjoy knowing them personally. I have discovered that for the most part we are just the average, run of the mill, American family. I will cite one example here because it is so obvious: (1) I found relatives that were very eager and when they heard from me they became excited and sent material to me with their first reply and have consistently fed new material to me as it came along without even my asking for more.

(2) Those that had good intentions but laid it aside for a more convenient time, and sometimes it took a second or even a third letter, but eventually they came through.

(3) Then there are those that let me know they were very busy but would get it to me real soon as they wanted a copy etc.; but after several letters have been non productive. (4) And finally the ones that could care less, and no doubt filed my letters in the waste basket as I never did hear from them, however, my letters were not returned so I assume they received them.

I ask only that if you fall into one of these last categories and did not get your material to me that you not be upset when you see how much blank paper there is where your family is listed, and how full some of the other pages are.

I have not been searching for skeletons! The 'good book' tells us: "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23) and Jesus himself said: "You who are without sin cast the first stone." (John 8:7) I have been more intrigued by the accomplishments within the family; for instance the number of artists, teachers, doctors, nurses, as well as farmers there are in our family. For many years I have had the motto before me:

"What you are is God’s gift to you,
What you become is your gift to God."

And I would like you to keep that thought in mind as you read this book and see what our offering to God has really been.
C. S. Lewis has so ably said: "Human beings look separate because you see them walking about separately. But then we are so made that we can see only the present moment. If we could see the past, then of course it would look different. For there was a time when every man was part of his mother, and (earlier still) part of his father as well: and when they were part of his grandparents. If you could see humanity spread out in time, as God sees it, it would not look like one single growing thing—rather like a very complicated tree. Every individual would appear connected with each other. We are a rather large part of that ancient ANCESTRAL TREE!"

One of the highlights of my research was a trip to England. I accompanied my husband, who was attending an educational seminar sponsored by the Bishops of the United Methodist Church, one of the registered genealogists (with whom I had been in correspondence) for the county of Suffolk; her office being in Ipswich the county seat of East Suffolk. (Bury St. Edmunds is the county seat for West Suffolk.) I was able to ask and answer questions much more rapidly than had been the case in our correspondence. Mrs. Rodwell got some new insights and was able subsequently to trace marriages, births and deaths in the Parish Registers.

I would also like to apologize for errors, which I am sure you will find, both typographical and factual as well as grammatically (it has been a long time since grammar classes). But I would ask you to please send me your corrections, and I will correct a copy and keep it on hand. Perhaps if enough material comes in on you and your family I could put out a supplement eventually.

I owe a debt of gratitude to: my father, Clyde Furnish, and his niece, Mable Lochner, for the hours spent with me: answering my many questions; scouting graveyards and in supplying me with documents and pictures. Invaluable help was found in the Fort Wayne Public Library as well as many other libraries in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. I appreciate the patience and courtesy of County Clerk's and Recorder's of Deeds, in courthouses too numerous to list, who have allowed me to go through old record books or have graciously sent certified copies of their records. Literally scores of relatives have spent many hours answering lengthy questionnaires and in editing and correcting early drafts of material compiled in this work. My grandmother, Ada Furnish, who left in her trunk an envelope of obituaries rolled in a little roll and tied with a black thread, protected in a little green metal tea can. To strangers, to me, who had heard of my search and deliberately did research for me (while working on their own genealogies) and mailed it to me, this was indeed a delightful surprise.

To Mrs. Carolyn (Furnish) Jennett of Prairie Village, Kansas who contacted our family in search of members of her own. Her help has been greatly appreciated and the continued correspondence has been most rewarding even though as yet we have not been able to link the two Furnish families. And last but not least to my dear husband, Albert E. Hartoog, who helped me plan our vacations and worked diligently along with me and seemed to take delight in it: because at times I would become ecstatic over some new 'find' and he would often remark: "it sure doesn't take very much to make you happy does it?" He only grumbled a little when I took him into the 'catacombs' of courthouse basements because he is allergic to dust and molds. And then, bless his heart, he took it upon himself to do the proofreading and indexing which has been a laborious task, and I am most grateful.

INTRODUCTION

Because I am a novice at compiling genealogies and have trouble following some of the more accepted methods, I have devised what seems to me (as well as others who have examined it) a rather workable formula. Some of it of course is not original.

The left hand column of the page is the direct descendant or "blood line" except for a few children that have been adopted into the family, which I have included. The right side of the page is the spouse of the direct descendant.

The numbering and abbreviations are as follows:

1) = David Furnish
2) = His children
3) = His grandchildren
4) = His g-grandchildren
5) = His g-g-grandchildren
6) = His g-g-g-grandchildren
7) = His g-g-g-g-grandchildren

b. = born
d. = died
m. = date married
1 m. = date of first marriage
2 m. = date of second marriage etc.

The name underlined (Sarah Jean) is the name the person used.

I have copied some biographical sketches verbatim as they were given to me and others I have edited.

daughter of:

David Furnish was born and baptised in Redlingfield, West Suffolk, according to Hartismore Deanery. Since the early 1700's, at least, the Furnish family lived in Suffolk, on the mid-line between East and West Suffolk, and at times extending North to the Norfolk border, as three of David's brothers and sisters were baptised in the Beecles Parish which is on the Norfolk - Suffolk border.

David was the youngest of the six children recorded of Edmund and Mary (Mason) Furnish. He was the grandson of Richard and Jane (Mills) Furnish of Freesingfield, Bendingfield and Hoxne; and the great-grandson of William and Elizabeth ( _ ) Furnish of Bodingfield, all located in the above mentioned areas in Suffolk, England.

He married Mary Caroline Davis in 1832, as an excerpt from a letter written by their daughter, Margaret Jane (Furnish) Hollabaugh, to another daughter, Martha L. (Furnish) Grosh, at that time living at Hanson Center, Hillsdale Co., Michigan stated:

"Nebraska City, Nebraska 10 December 1882"
"Father wrote me what a nice time you all had at the Golden Wedding and while you were there did you cast a thought for the absent ones ? We have not had a line from any of you since."

At the time of both of their deaths however, the newspaper obituary clippings say they were married in 1833.

David Furnish is listed on "the REPORT and LIST of the PASSENGERS taken on board the BRIG GOSSEYUM (a Brig was a two-masted square-rigged vessel) of GLOUCESTER.

"Whereof L. CENTER is Master, burthen TWO HUNDRED and SEVEN tons, of PARAMARIBO to BOSTON." "Delivered on DECEMBER 16th, 1833."

It is believed they followed the coast line of Africa, island hopping, then crossed the Atlantic to Paramaribo, South America, as their vessel was small, and the Atlantic is much narrower there, besides there was a Surinam Trade with North America. From Paramaribo they journeyed northward to the Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

Mary Caroline was not listed among the passengers, in fact David was the only passenger listed, but we assume she was with him as their son, William Henry Furnish, was born the following September, just nine months after their arrival, and the wives and the children were often not listed, unless they were traveling alone, at that time.

Both of their obituaries also say they were the parents of eleven children, and the census sheets only show ten. They say six sons and five daughters, one son having proceeded them in death. According to the John Luther Furnish family, in Oregon, their first born was a son, named James, and that he was born and died in England. That being the case their sixth and last son they also named James.

BRIG GOSSEYPIUM, CENTER, PARAMARIBO (DECEMBER 16, 1833)
William was born in Massachusetts on 21 September 1834, and their third son, Thomas Edward, was born in New York on 9 August 1836. The remaining eight of their children were all born in Ohio, according to the 1850 and 1860 census sheets.

The obituary of Thomas Edward Furnish says:

"he was born in Buffalo, N. Y. Aug. 9, 1836. In 1841 he moved with his parents to Brookfield, Stark Co., and from there to Savannah, Ashland Co., in 1844. In 1860 Mr. Furnish came to Ind. and located near Spencerville."

The eldest daughter's obituary, Mary Ann, says she was born in Stark Co., Ohio, 13 July 1838. Their next child, Nancy Elizabeth, the newspaper clipping says was born in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio. The next child John Luther, was born 19 July 1842 at Massillon, Ohio, (Stark Co.) Mary Ann's obituary says she moved to Clear Creek Twp., Ashland, Ohio, when she was six years old, with her parents.

I feel this is an error, that Nancy was born in Clear Creek Twp., and that instead she was born in Massillon, where John was born, as the information on John is from his Service Record in the National Archives. (Richland Co. then, became Ashland.)

Today Brookfield is in Trumbull Co., (organized in 1800.) and Massillon is in Stark Co., (founded in 1826.) From 1788 to 1851 the counties of the State of Ohio witnessed many boundary changes and alterations as governments pieced together a patchwork quilt design which now makes up the county structure. There were arguments over this matter before 1800. After the adoption of the State Constitution of 1851, the General Assembly snipped and shaped the counties until each had at least 400 square miles as prescribed by law. Washington county was the first to be erected in the Northwest Territory in 1788, and 65 years later, Noble county was the 88th and last to be organized.

In 1844 David moved his family to Clear Creek Twp. Clear Creek Twp., is now in Ashland Co., however it was created about 1818-1820 by the commissioners of Richland county and continued under that county's jurisdiction as a full-sized township, six miles by six miles, until Ashland Co. was organized in 1846, when the east two-thirds of Clear Creek and all of Orange became a part of Ashland county. Now Clear Creek township is four miles wide, east and west, and a little more than six miles long. It was near this border line that David and Caroline Furnish purchased twenty-five acres of land on 4 July 1849 from A. F. & Mary Jane Shaw, located in Section 15, Twp. 25 (Clear Creek), Range 17, being a part of the N. W. ¼ of Section 15, in Ashland Co., Ohio. The amount "to them in hand paid" was $275.00.

Ten years later this same property was sold back to the Shaws for the sum of $1000. It was recorded 4 July 1860. This property has a branch of the Clear Creek running through the corner of it, and a spring still flows near where the buildings once stood, near the creek.

After selling the land in Ohio, they moved on westward into Indiana, where on 1 July 1860 they purchased eighty acres of land in Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., described as: E ¼ of S E ¼ of Section 35, Twp 33 (Jackson,) Range 13. Recorded 1 Oct. 1863.

David and his sons cleared the land and hewed the logs for their log cabins that preceded their lovely brick homes near Spencerville.

David was said to have been a hard worker, but very gentle and kind, and well liked. He also had some artistic ability, and did some painting. His granddaughter, Adella (Furnish) Lochner, for many years had a picture of a ship which he had painted on the round board from the end of a keg, while coming to America.

It says of him in his obituary:
"Father Furnish was a consistent follower of Christ for over forty years, during which time he walked worthily before his family and the world, the Evangelical Lutheran church being his home. During the last eight years of his life he was a great sufferer of bodily ills and pain, but bore it with Christian fortitude."

"owing to an injury he spent several years almost helpless."

"November 18, 1888 - father is sitting in his old arm chair as usual, he sits there day in and day out, he hardly gets out of the house unless he is helped out. Sometimes I think he has the patience of Jobe."

"His final illness was brief, of only about forty hours duration, but in the midst of his affliction he gave the brightest evidence of his perfect trust in God, and resignation to his will. He was conscious to the last, and but a few minutes before his departure, he talked to his children, and after saying the following words, "Sweet Jesus, Sweet Jesus," he calmly fell asleep, and his spirit went into the presence of it's maker. He could have truly said as Paul of old did, "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand; I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the Righteous Judge shall give me at that day."

"Father took sick on Sunday evening, before Christmas and died on Christmas day at three minutes before ten o'clock in the morning. He had neuralga of the heart on Monday, we sent you and all the rest of the family a dispatch concerning father and not hearing anything from you I did not know where to write to inform you of the sad news. We kept father until Friday, expecting some of his children, but none came. David Shearer and Will came, Ida did not get here until he had passed over the dark river. He was sensible until the very last, his suffering was great until a while before he passed away. Abe is appointed administrator he sent you a sale bill, he sent it to Fowler, so I will send you another one. J.M.F.

"Ten children, many relatives and a large circle of friends mourn the loss of a father and a friend. The funeral services were held at the residence on Friday, December 28th, conducted by the Rev. J. Shaffer, and the body was consigned to its last resting place, buried beside his wife in the Spencerville cemetery, Dec. 28, 1888."

His wife, Caroline, had died two years before, after fifty-three years of marriage. They had some sort of celebration for their fiftieth anniversary as Margaret had mentioned in her letter.

"Mary Caroline Davis, was born in London, England, July 27th, 1814; married David Furnish in the year 1833 (1832) and departed this life, after a short illness, March 18th, 1887, aged 72 years, 7 months and 21 days."
"Our dear beloved Mother has gone to her long awaited home to live with God in Heaven. Where sickness, sorrow, pain and death are felt no more. But where all tears are wiped away. Her illness was of short duration of about 14 hours. She took with paralysis at 6 o'clock Friday morning last and died at 8 o'clock on the evening of the same day. She was unconscious about 12 hours. Sisters Mary and Nancy and Will Shearer came out but to late to see Mother alive, will stay until Saturday."

Her funeral took place on Sunday, March 20th at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the house. The funeral sermon was preached by the Reverend J. Shaffer. His Text was: Rev. 21:13-17.

She too served the Lord for over forty years, and was consistent in the service of Christ, and with her husband served in the Evangelical Lutheran church, according to her obituary.

They were the parents of eleven children. Their first child, James preceded them in death. It is reported that he was born and died in England, an infant, the others were: William Henry, Thomas Edward, Mary Ann, Nancy Elizabeth, John Luther, Abraham Myers, Margaret Jane, James Madison, Martha L., and Ida Caroline Furnish.

"The following lines were written expressive of the grief of the bereaved husband:"

"Cold and white, upon it's bier
And with death-clothes covered o'er
Love lies dead and frozen here;
Dead, yes dead, for evermore.

Oh, I am too weak and faint
To remove it from its place
And yet here I must not stay
With that change upon its face.

What can I do, left alone!
With love gone, yes, gone for aye;
God in heaven, be kind to me
Lest I also freeze and die.

IN MEMORY OF MOTHER FURNISH

Another dear mother has gone to rest,
To live with Jesus in the home of the blest,
Her chair is vacant, her voice is still,
Her form will be missed, look where you will.

The church has lost a good old mother
Whose place can be filled by none other,
Her gentle words, her kind embrace
Has left impressions that time will not efface.

Her days of suffering and affliction are o'er,
Her sighs of pain will be heard no more
God sent an angel down to bear her spirit away,
Where there is no night but eternal day.

She is now living in that mansion bright,
Where all is peace, and joy, and light,
But three short weeks ago (in church) we heard her say:
"I'm striving to live nearer Jesus, each day."

"Dear one," to you, who are sorely bereft,
She has to you a good example left,
Follow carefully the footsteps in the path she trod
Leading upward to glory and to God.

Wish her not back to this world of sin and woe,
But see to it, that where she is, you will all be prepared to go,
Then what a happy meeting, in heaven, there will be
When dear Mother's face you shall see.

WILLIAM HENRY FURNISH

2) William Henry Furnish
b. 21 Sept. 1834 Massachusetts
m. 25 Jan. 1863
cause: Tuberculosis burial: Watson Cem. on parents farm church: Lutheran occupation: Farmer/Teacher/MAIL & Freight Carrier

William Henry Furnish was born in Massachusetts, perhaps Boston, as his parents landed in the Boston Harbor on 16 December 1833, coming to the United States from England, and William was born the following September, just nine months later.

His parents kept moving westward, as his next brother was born in Buffalo, New York. From there they moved to Brookfield, Massillon and Savannah, all places in Ohio. They lived 16 years near Savannah, which is in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio. While living there Will attended Oberlin College. Their records show him enrolled in the Preparatory Department of the College, 1855-56. He was age 21 at the time.

In 1860 he moved with his parents and the rest of the family, which now numbered to ten children, William, Thomas, Mary, Nancy, John, Abraham, Margaret, James, Martha, and Ida, to Spencerville, Indiana.

The 1860 Indiana Census has William listed as a School Teacher at age 25. He taught in both the Boots and the Lockwood Schools in DeKalb Co. He taught three terms, for six dollars per term. In the spring and summer he did farm work. He also taught organ and voice.

Feb. 1, 1862 he purchased 3 acres of land in the "NE Sec. 26, Twp. 33 Range 13," which is in Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., from William R. Howey for the sum of $125.00. The following year in January he and Eva Watson were married. They were married by Jacob Mauer, Justice of the Peace.

Eva was the daughter of Charles Watson, who was born in Jefferson Co., Ohio on 15 April 1815, and moved to Indiana in the year 1835, and Rachael Wyatt, who was born in Richland Co., Ohio on 31 July 1820 and moved to Indiana in the year 1837. Charles and Rachael were married 15 September 1839, by the Reverend J. T. Robe, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Fort Wayne. Their ten children were, Eva, Mary I., John, Mary II. (the first Mary died when one year old) Lydia, Nathan, Samuel, Jesse, Charles W. and James Watson. Both Will and Eva were the eldest of 10 children. Charles Watson died 4 August 1905, his wife Rachel died 9 March 1909.

May 12, 1865 Will sold the above mentioned 3 acres to James McNamore for $250.00. The 1880 Jackson Twp. map shows this 3 acres as a part of the farm then owned by Eva's parents. The Watsons were said to have given Will and Eva 5 acres of their farm as a present, which was on the corner of Stafford Rd., and Boots Rd., where they built a small frame house. Here Adella and Charles were born, however Charles only lived 6 months. When Adella was 5 years old she fell into the cistern, and Eva felt uneasy about living there any longer, so they moved to Kendallville. Here Francis (Frank) was born, and here Eva became ill with tuberculosis.

Her family urged them to move back to Spencerville and live with them so they could help take care of Eva as well as the children. Eva had a two-year-old son, Stephen Douglas, at the time they were married, whom Will adopted. So with a sick wife, and 3 small children they moved in with the Watsons. Eva died here in her parents home at age 34, leaving Will a widower at age 40. Doug was 13, Adella 6 ½ and Frank, 2 years, and 8 months old. Eva was buried in the Watson Cemetery located on their farm, where a boulder marks her grave between the tombstones of some of the rest of the Watson family.

After Eva's death they continued to live with the Watsons, but on 12 October 1875 Will purchased a small piece of ground, 4 × 8 rods in the "5 part of SW Sec. 14, Twp. 33, Range 12 for $183.32, from Michael Reeves, and then on 29 April, 1876 he sold it back to Rachel Ann Reeves for the same amount. It was located north of the Watson property, near the Israel Shearer Farm. He purchased this a year after Eva died, perhaps intending to build a house on it.

When the children were all in their teens, Will left them in the care of their grandparents, and they Uncle Charley and Aunt Lydia Watson, (unmarried children still living at home) and came to Michigan to find work, and for some unknown reason he only returned to Indiana once. In a letter dated "30 December 1892," Frank wrote to his half brother, Clyde Furnish, in Michigan, "I saw my father just once after he went up into Michigan. That was a long way then days." For a while Will did send some money and dress material to the children.

He found work in Michigan, near Bay City, working in the lumber camps. It was here that he became good friends with Bill Massey, who invited him to come home with him in the spring. It was while he was staying with him that he met and later married Ada Sawyer.

Will was a good looking man, according to his picture, and evidently didn't look his age, as he told Ada he was 30, when he was actually 50. Ada was blind in her right eye since very early childhood; a strange coincidence, as his mother was blind in her left eye, and wore a prosthesis.

Ada was only 3 years older than his daughter Adella, who was married just two months after Her father's remarriage, and just a few days after her 17th birthday. Ada and Will were married in St. Johns by the Reverend J. H. Richards.

Ada's father, Amos Sawyer, was born in Monroe Co., New York, coming to Michigan with his parents in the fall of 1845. He was born 5 April 1834, and died 3 January 1920, in Maple Rapids, Michigan. He enlisted in the Civil War, 13 August 1862, and served in Co. D. 18th Mich. Vol. Inf. and served in said regiment until September 1864 when he was taken prisoner and was held until the war closed and was honorable discharged June 1865.

Her mother Cynthia Van Housen was born in Hector, ThomklinCo., New York, 20 October 1834. Here she lived until 1855 when she moved with her parents to Granville, Michigan. On 27 September 1857 she and Amos Sawyer were married. They became the parents of 4 daughters, Viola C., Clarinda D., Ada M., and Martha J. Sawyer, and an adopted son, Alfred K. Jefferson. They moved from Hillsdale Co., to Clinton Co., in 1874 and remained there as residents of the county including the village of Maple Rapids the rest of their lives.
Will worked at many and varied jobs, from farming to following the threshing machine in the harvesting season. They lived 5 miles N. E. of St. Johns, where they built a small 4 room house on a 5 acre plot of ground they had previously purchased.

He was able to get a contract with the U. S. Postal Dept. to pick up and deliver mail and freight. He did this for many years, with his route becoming larger and larger. He was doing this before the first Rural Route experimental route began in Virginia in 1896. He received $1.00 per year from each of his customers for his service. (Some paid $.25 each quarter year). He did this with his horse and "Democrat Wagon." Sometimes after the Virginia experiment proved a success, Will's route was taken over by the Postal Dept. and five routes were formed coming out of St. Johns. George Kelly took the largest part of Will's route, but parts of it went to two other carriers. The four other carriers delivering out of St. Johns were Decatur Broos, (formerly a school teacher, and taught Will's children in the Parkers School) John C. Hugus, Archie Chant and C. D. Carusse.

Will was in good health until the last two years of his life, when he suffered with a kidney disorder known as "Bright's Disease." Will and Ada lived all of their 19 years together in Clinton Co. To this union three children were born, Clyde Otho, Effie Millicent and Earl Alger Furnish.

Will died 19 January 1904, and the obituary in the paper stated he was 54 years old, he was actually 70, but Ada did not know his age until after his death and she corresponded more regularly with his daughter, Adella Lochner, in Indiana.

He died at his home 5 miles northeast of town at seven o'clock Tuesday evening.

His funeral was held at the home Thursday morning at nine o'clock, burial was in the Soules Cemetery near Maple Rapids. The day of the funeral, Michigan experienced one of the worst blizzards in her history.

After her husband's death, Ada sold their home in the country, and bought another small home in Maple Rapids. Her eyesight continued to worsen, with a cataract forming over her left eye. She finally sold the home in Maple Rapids and lived out her remaining years with her children. She died at the home of her eldest son, Clyde, who lived S. E. of Corunna on the Garrison Rd. She died of Pneumonia after being ill for a week.

Shortly after Ada's parents moved to Maple Rapids, she became a member of the Congregational Christian Church there. She attended both the Sunday School and the "Womans Home & Foreign Missionary Society," as well as Church. Will had taken an active part in the Lutheran Church in Spencerville, Indiana, and at one time had served as their Sunday School Superintendent. Both his parents and the Watsons were devout Lutherans.

Stephen Douglas Furnish was named after Stephen A. Douglas, an American Statesman, styled "little giant" serving in the U.S. Senate at the time he was born; however he went by the name of Douglas rather than Stephen.

Doug and Sarah McKinley were married in Leo, Indiana, 18 Dec. 1866 by S. H. Currie. They lived in the area all of their lives. Doug was a carpenter, and built many homes in the vicinity, especially in the Garrett area. He also built a new home for his uncle Charley Watson, on the farm where he had been raised. He also built a new home for his brother Frank at 814 Midway Drive in Auburn. The Auburn Courthouse records show that he and Sarah dealt quite a bit in real estate.

After he retired they bought 40 acres of land, one mile east of Hopewell and a quarter of a mile south, and built them a new home there.

He died in Sacred Heart Hospital in Garrett of mesentric thrombosis, and was buried on the 20th in Roselawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana.

After her husbands death Sarah went to Garrett and lived with her son Milo. She had been in poor health for the past 10 days before entering the Garrett Convalescent Home on the 8th of June, she died on the 11th. She succumbed to complications of age. She had lived in Garrett for the last 14 years. She was buried from the Dilgank & Cline funeral home in Auburn. Her funeral was conducted at the funeral home at 10 a.m. Wednesday with the Reverend Joseph Ferguson of near Auburn officiating.

Burial was in Roselawn Cemetery, near Auburn on the 14th.

Doug and Sarah Furnish were the parents of 2 sons, Glen and Milo Furnish.

There is never a heart free from pain;
If one seeks in this world for true solace,

'Tis the touch of God's sickle at harvest
Since He reaps in the fields He has sown."

From Funeral Card for Milo Furnish Adella Florence Furnish (Della)

b. 5 Mar. 1868 DeKalb Co., Ind.
m. 12 Mar. 1885 Waterloo, Ind.
d. 2 Dec. 1949 Auburn, Ind.

Peter Perry Lochner (Pete)

b. 8 Sept. 1861 DeKalb Co., Ind.
d. 17 Sept. 1939 DeKalb Co., Ind.

Adella and Peter were married in Waterloo, Indiana, by the Reverend Samuel P. Klotz, V.D.M., pastor of the United Brethren Church. Adella was only 17 years of age, a very nice looking young lady with lovely auburn colored hair, and very petite. Peter was tall and dark featured, and nice looking also. Adella was a native of Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., Indiana, and spent all of her life in that vicinity, except for the thirteen years they lived at Winona Lake, in Kosciusko Co. (1916-1929) which was 32 miles from their farm home. During World War I the hotel there was converted into Army Barracks and Peter worked as a carpenter and general repairman, as well as serving as a member of the "Town Board." He also operated the bowling alley at Winona Lake for Homer Rodeheaver and the Reverend Billy Sunday.

Adella seemed to have more than her share of heartaches and disappointments during her lifetime, but weathered them well without complaining. Her mother died when she was only six and a half years old, her brother Francis (Frank) was only two years and eight months old, and her half brother Douglas was thirteen. All three children were reared by the Watsons, their mother’s parents. As well as a maiden aunt and a bachelor uncle, Lydia and Charley Watson, who also lived at home. Her father stayed on and lived with them at the Watsons after his wife’s death until the children were all in their teens, and then he left them in the total care of their grandparents, and went to Michigan to find work. The big disappointment was that the children only saw their father once after that. This was confirmed in a letter dated 30 Dec. 1952.

"You know Clyde I never knew about you folks as I seen our Father just once after he went up into Michigan. That was a long way then days."

(If order for Will to make the trip he first walked into St. Johns, which was five and one half miles, then took the train to Grand Rapids, and there he transferred to a train for Auburn, Indiana, and then walked or got a ride the best way he could the twelve miles to Spencerville.)

Adella was heartbroken when her father died, 19 January 1904, as he died at 7 o’clock on Tuesday evening and the messenger did not get to her house with the telegram until ten o’clock on Wednesday night, and the funeral was on Thursday. She wrote to her step-mother Ada:

"It was pouring down rain when the messenger came at ten o’clock Wednesday night. It stated he would be buried Thursday if it had said Friday Abzas Furnish and myself would have come. Did it rain there? It rained here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday then turned to snow. It is still snowing this Monday afternoon."

(Michigan had a blizzard the day of the funeral.)
Adella made plans again, this time to come on the 7th of April and wrote:

"March 27, 1904...it just seems I cannot get over my grief and sorrow till I can come to see you all."

But then her grandmother Watson became ill with "overflow of the gall," and she wasn't able to come, as her grandmother was not expected to live. (Her grandmother did recover and lived until 9 Mar. 1909). Her grandfather Watson was "very feeble and helpless as a child" the last 10 years of his life. He died 4 Aug. 1905.

When ever her grandparents were ill, they wanted Adella by their side, and she felt guilty if she couldn't be there. At times it was very difficult as she had five small children of her own to care for, and they lived three and a half miles away. But Grandma Watson was the only mother she had known since she was six and a half. In spite of Lydia and Charles living at home they still needed Adella when they were sick. Speaking of Aunt Lydia and Uncle Charley she wrote:

"they have 120 acres of land and are quite well fixed; but Frank and I signed off to Uncle Charley some time ago for $50.00 a piece, as our Ma's share, so we won't get anything more."

At the time of her father's death, she and Peter were living on the Lochner Homestead, which they had bought. Adella wrote:

"we have 80 acres with good buildings but we owe $1000 yet but have stock enough and if we do not have bad luck will get out all right."

Times were hard then, they worked very hard; in fact that spring they "opened the sugar camp and made 35 gallons of Maple Syrup." They used to have between two and three hundred trees tapped, and sold the syrup for $1.00 per gallon. "Eggs are only selling for 12¢ a dozen."

In 1915 they built a new barn on the Lochner Homestead, and Adella did the cooking for ten men. They kept the farm until 1924 when they sold it to Adolph Westrick. They lived on it one more year then moved to a neighboring farm. December of 1935 Peter became ill, his condition progressively worsened until 17 September 1939 when he died.

On 12 March 1935 they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, rather quietly. For their 25th it was different. Even the Michigan relatives were invited to come and help them celebrate on Saturday, 12 March 1910, at 10 o'clock a.m. at their home in Jackson Twp. Ada and her three children could not come, but sent a silver teaspoon, with a gold inlay of the map of Michigan in the bowl of it. With the anniversary invitation was a letter telling of "the great revival we had at Spencerville this winter with 103 conversions. David and Paul Furnish were among the number."

Adella made plans many times to visit her step-mother and her two half-brothers and one half-sister, but she was always disappointed, because of bad weather, or sickness in the family. Though Adella and Ada corresponded they really never met. But she did finally get to Michigan, thanks to her cousin David Grosh and his family. The Groshes had a friend drive them to Michigan in August of 1933, and they brought Adella with them. It was a real delight to finally meet her two half-brothers, Clyde then 47 and Earl 41. Adella was 65. For some reason their sister Effie was not able to come. It was a great meeting, and the relationship continued to grow down through the years. Clyde had corresponded with Vera and Habel since they were in their teens, as they were near the same age. Adella was able to come again to Michigan with her son Jay Lochner, and cousin David Grouch in 1935. Effie was ill at the time, with cancer, but she did finally get to meet her. (Effie died 14 July 1935.) Her last trip to Michigan was in August of 1940, when she and her daughter Blanche came with her granddaughter and her husband, Wilma and Dee Steininger. After returning home she wrote (Sept. 1940):

"P. S. Did you see a $ under a plate? B. and I remembered you. Get yourself something you like from your sister and niece.
Blanche and Me."

Peter was the son of Jacob and Mary (Wyatt) Lochner. Jacob homesteaded on what is now County Road 68 near the Hopewell Community. In 1874 he built a lovely brick house, but they had only lived in it for one year when Mary died. She was born in 1836 and died 22 October 1876 at age 62. Her father was Thomas Wyatt, a brother of Rachael (Wyatt) Watson. Some time later Jacob married an Amish woman, Adella and Peter resided for 27 years on the Lochner Homestead, and 14 years on neighboring farms. Peter farmed and did carpentry work. In 1905 he was elected Trustee of Jackson Twp. and served for four years. He belonged to the Democratic Party and actively participated in it. He suffered much with arthritis, and was ill for 33 months and was a helpless cripple at the time of his death. To add to Adella's "lot in life" her daughter, Mabel, and son, Jay, and his family were in an auto accident on 21 June 1938, when another car hit them broadside. Mabel was hurt quite badly. So for many months Adella cared for the two of them, and carried meals to them three times a day. She did not complain, she just asked for results.

After Peter died in 1939, Adella and her two daughters, Vera and Mabel, went to live with her Uncle Charles Watson, back where she had been reared. They remained with him the first of March 1941 when they moved to Auburn on E. 7th St. Here Vera became ill with endocarditis in April of 1943, and was bedfast until she died in December. The following March they moved on 6th St. and lived there until October when they moved upstairs over her granddaughter and her husband, Wilma and Dee Steininger. They were happy there until 26 February 1945 when their apartment caught on fire. So in March of that year they bought a small white frame house at 1006 N. Cedar in Auburn.

While living here, on 2 Dec. 1949, Adella said to her daughter Mabel, "I'm tired, I think I will retire." She went to bed and the Lord took her home to be with Him without a struggle. She had worked hard, she had kept the faith, her heartaches were over, and now reunions were in order.

Her funeral was conducted by the pastor of the Methodist Church in Auburn, the Reverend C. C. Collins. Arrangements were made by the Gerig Funeral Home in Auburn. Her funeral was on Monday at 2 p.m. burial was in the Leo Cemetery, Leo, Indiana.

Adella and Peter Lochner were the parents of five children. Grace Blanche, Lester Virgil, Vera Mary, Jacob Jay, and Mabel Frances.

Blanche Lochner was born in DeKalb Co., and was a life-long resident of that area. She attended the local schools and studied music at Angola Tri-State Normal, finishing in April of 1904. She started teaching piano with 17 pupils her first summer, and taught for 13 years. She was the pianist at the Meese Chapel Methodist church for 40 years. In fact she suffered her first stroke while playing the church piano on Sunday, 10 January 1960.

She married John Weaver 8 February 1913 in the Methodist Parsonage in Hillsdale, Michigan. They were married by the Reverend Conner.

John was one of five children, the son of John S. and Clara (Cool) Weaver. His grandmother, Clara Cool’s mother was Sarah Wilson and first cousin of Woodrow Wilson (1856-1924) 28th President of the U.S. (1913-1921).

Blanche and John lived on a farm south of Auburn, and were the parents of two daughters, Wilma Laverene and Ermel Dawn Weaver.

Blanche’s life evolved around her family and her church. She was a charter member of the Meese Chapel “Women’s Society of Christian Service.” John did not attend regularly until after Blanche’s death. At 76 he had a change of heart and enjoyed the fellowship of the church. At 85 he still drove his car to church and to the barber-shop, and close friends and relatives in his area. But in November 1973 his daughter, Ermel came home from work and found him sitting on the porch, hemorrhaging with a perforated ulcer. He was rushed to the hospital where emergency surgery was done. He recovered, but it has been a slow process. He walks with a cane and now he and Ermel live in Auburn. In his earlier days he had done general farming.

Blanche died at her home on Cemetery Road, at 6:25 p.m. Thursday, she suffered another stroke. Her funeral was conducted at the Meese Chapel church at 2 p.m. Sunday with the pastor, the Reverend John Dicken of Auburn officiating, burial was in Roselawn cemetery, near Auburn. Geiger funeral home in Auburn were in charge.

John Weaver served as a Trustee of Jackson Twp. for terms (6 yrs.) On his 90th Birthday (1976) all his family except granddaughter Marilyn & family from British Columbia came to see him. He uses a walker but his general health is good.

Wilma graduated from Auburn High School in 1931. She then went to work at Geiger Furniture, as a Bookkeeper. She and Dee Steininger were married on a Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock in the Meese Methodist Chapel parsonage in Leo, Indiana, by the Reverend Walter M. Hollopeter.
Dee was employed at the Auburn Printing Co. at the time they were married. In 1946 he went into business for himself, and was self employed until 1968, except for 3 years. He does Job Printing exclusively, and now has his "hobby" at home. He has a printing shop built on the back of his garage.

December 21, 1952 Wilma was stricken with Polio. She was taken to Lutheran Hospital in Ft. Wayne, where a tracheotomy was performed, and she was put into an Iron Lung, and only because of a miracle survived. Faith in God, perseverance, determination, prayer, with a lot of hard work through rehabilitation centers, she is able to do her own housework, drive a car, and help Dee with his hobby. She does have some difficulty climbing stairs. Her five children ranged from 16 to 4 years at the time she was stricken.

When they lived in Auburn they attended the Church of the Nazarene, but since buying and moving to their 80 acre farm they now attend the Grabill Missionary Church near their present home. They have taught Sunday School, and served in various church offices, they both enjoy gardening, and preserving the "fruits of their labor." Dee enjoys raising sheep and in 1973 dug a lovely pond on their farm.

They are the parents of 5 children, Carmen Louise, Marilyn Sue, Rita Jean, James Dee and Ruth Anne Steininger.

b. 25 Jan. 1912 Jackson Twp., Ind.
m. 26 Nov. 1936 Auburn, Ind.
cause: Ermel graduated from Auburn High School in 1934. She and Bernard Drerup were married 28 November 1936 in the Immaculate Conception Roman Catholic Church in Auburn, by the Reverend Leo Franz, pastor. Bernard was a salesman for a Catholic Religious publication. He was struck with polio while in Dayton, Ohio, and died a short while after. They had been married only four years, and it had been a good marriage. He was buried in the Auburn Catholic Cemetery.

Ermel took their three children and went back to live with her parents, Blanche & John Weaver, and in 1942 began working for the Frazer Farm Equipment Co. on S. Wayne St. in Auburn and is head bookkeeper there now. After the children were married and away from home she continued to look after her father, (her mother had died in 1960). In the early 1970's she purchased a nice home in Auburn, from her mother-in-law, and in 1973 moved into it. Her father lives with her now, and rents his farm out.

Ermel has been privileged to make 2 trips abroad; one to the Holy Land and in 1975 took a Pilgrimage to Rome, Paris, Lourdes in SW France and to Lisbon, Portugal. To this union three children were born, Bernard Leo, Mary Regina and Ann Elizabeth Drerup.

   Vera Lochner was born in Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., Indiana. She graduated from the eighth grade at the Annual Commencement of the Concord Township Schools and Jackson Township Schools, Wednesday evening, June 14th 1905 at 7:30 p. m. She was from District No. 3, Jackson Township, her father P. P. Lochner, was one of the Trustees of Jackson Township at the time. Vera gave an Oration entitled "Ancient and Modern Oratory." She attended Auburn High School but quit in the 10th grade, and worked out doing housework. She worked in the Commissary at Winona Lake for a while during World War I, when the Hotel there was made into Army Barracks, but she got the flu and had to leave. She worked in McBrides Department Store for 22½ years and also clerked in the Boston store, both in Auburn.

   Vera never married even though she had dated one local young man for eight years. Their fathers were political rivals, and this may have been a hindrance.

   She lived at 519 East 7th St., in Auburn at the time of her death. She had resided in Auburn for the past 23 years. She was a member of the Auburn Methodist Church.

   She had been confined to her home the last seven months, death was caused from endocarditis. Her funeral was held at the Hopewell Church in Jackson Twp., on Friday p. m. at 2 o'clock. The Reverend H. A. P. Homer, pastor of the Auburn Methodist Church conducted her funeral. Gerig Funeral home was in charge.

dau. of Charles H. & Carlotta (Huston) Bartels (Carlotta was called "Lott" or "Lottie"

Jay Lochner attended the Hopewell School, he lived in the Auburn area all of his life.

He married Marie Bartels, 12 Dec. 1894, in Hillsdale, Michigan, they were married by the Reverend Wheeler in the Methodist parsonage.

Marie also attended the Hopewell School, then Garrett High School for one year, and graduated from Auburn High School three years later.

They have lived since 1931 (45 years) on the farm Marie's grandfather, Fred C. (Fritz) Bartels settled on when he came here from Schwerin, Germany. Two generations of Bartels have lived on it before Marie and Jay moved there. There are 80 acres, 61 of which are farm land. Her grandparents first lived in a log house here. Jay's grandfather, Jacob Lochner, came from Bavaria, Germany and settled across the road from the Bartels and a little north.

Marie is an excellent cook, and has a real knack for setting a beautiful table with delicious foods. Their home was the usual place for the festive family dinners, as they live in a large farm house, with lots of room, and because she was such a good cook. "The latch string" was always out at their home, and people felt free to just drop in for a few minutes, or a few hours. And Marie would never let you leave without having you sit down around the big square oak table for at least a snack.

Their home was the kind of home their children felt free to bring their friends.

Marie was also active in Democratic Politics, and her Home Economic Club.

Jay is an avid reader, a philosopher, and for years has been an active Democrat. Although he says he was never a 100%er as he had often been called. In later years one time he was asked who he was going to vote for? And his reply was somewhat hesitant, and he said, "I really don't know who to vote for, if any one of the 4 men on Mt. Rushmore were running, I'd vote for any one of them." And then he went into a rather lengthy oration on all the attributes of each of the four men, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, and Teddy Roosevelt. And then he read some thoughts by Josiah Gilbert Holland (1819-1881) and said this was the kind of President he wanted to vote for. Here are the lines written by Holland:

God, give us Men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty and in private thinking.

He also stated that as far back as he could remember, all the Furnishes were Republicans, including his mother. And that at one time his father, Peter Lochner, Marie was found dead in her bed at 10:00 P.M. Died Sep 12 of Poisoning.
ran for Trustee on the Democratic Ticket and that his Uncle Abe Furnish ran for Trustee on the Prohibition Ticket, and that Uncle Abe had said that he voted for his father. They ran on different tickets, but were alike in their philosophy.

He also told how proud he was of his children, and said that while they were growing up he didn't impose a lot of hard rules on them, things they couldn't do and so on. But "in the depth of the panic (depression) the most I said to them, and there were no jobs, and no income, was we've all got good sense, and give us an opportunity and we'll get out of this mess - in short order, and we did." The family worked together, and Jay worked at many and varied jobs. He worked as Assistant Supt. for the P. W. A., he worked nights at Murphys 5 and 10¢ Store, at the Palace Theater, and at C. & E., all in Ft. Wayne.

He learned the Carpenter Trade by working with another carpenter, and by taking a Correspondence Course through the mail. He worked as a carpenter for 26 years, and many times was foreman on the job. He worked mostly on commercial buildings, seldom on residential. He helped to build St. Joseph Hospital, and the Lutheran Hospital, and Wolf & Dessauer Dept. Store, all in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Jay has a good sense of humor, and one time it was observed that he had painted the toes of his shoes white. When asked about it, he said he had dropped a 35 pound vice on his toe, and "boy I did my own square dance and did my own calling too, so now I wear shoes with steel toes, and painted them white so I could see my feet move."

Some years back he set out a fruit orchard, with the help of his eldest daughter Charlotte, they set out 24 fruit trees, apples, cherries and pears, in a 40 rod sq. This has been his retirement pride and joy, however a few years back he suffered a Coronary and then a stroke. He has recovered nicely from both but is unable to work in the orchard. Marie also underwent major surgery and suffered a stroke, but she has recovered enough that she has been able to sort apples, and take care of the selling of them as well as the cider. He is still able to read much of the time.

To this union six children were born, Robert Linden, Charlotte Adella, Phyllis Maxine, Donald Jay, Jack Alton and Richard Dean Lochner.

Phyllis Lochner graduated from Auburn High School in 1937, and went to work for Magnavox in Ft. Wayne for a short while. Leaving there, she went to work at National Finance & Loan Co. In March 1941 she accepted a position as Teller in the Lincoln National Bank & Trust Co.

In October of 1941 she went to Chicago for a 3-day vacation. Here she met Earl Roop, and the following September received her engagement ring. She left the Bank on the 15th and they were married on the 16th in the Methodist parsonage of the Methodist Church, Connorsville, Ind. They took a short honeymoon to Cincinnati. She then took a job with Transcontinental & Western Airways, as a passenger agent. Her new job consisted of booking reservations, decoding weather, handling passengers, learning tele-type, operating the two-way radios between station & station and between station and ship. She was sent to Chicago where she took her examination and received a radio operator's permit. Was fingerprinted by the F.B.I. and sworn in to handle the U.S. mail. She wore a regulation TWA uniform. This job was trying, plus the long drive back and forth at night was too much for her, so she gave up the job in January 1943, to be a homemaker, and a year later a mother.

In 1961 she went back to the Lincoln Bank as Teller and in 1962 was made personal assistant, she quit again in 1964. She has worked as Election Clerk for more than 15 years, is active in Lutheran Church Women, bowls and plays golf, and goes Back to Auburn each week and takes her parents grocery shopping, or to the doctor, as the case may be.

Earl became Engineer on the Penn. B. R. in December 1954, (now Central). He is afflicted with empyema, and is allergic to antibiotics, so goes to Arizona or Colorado each winter for his health. He hopes to be able to retire in March of '?? and go out there and live, as he feels so much better out there. Retired 4 Oct. 1977, moved to Tucson Valley, Ariz., Jan. 1978.

Phyllis and Earl are the parents of three daughters, Sandra Lu, Linda Diane, and Rebecca Lynn Roop.

They built a lovely home in Ft. Wayne in 1954.

Phyllis and Earl are the parents of three daughters, Sandra Lu, Linda Diane, and Rebecca Lynn Roop.

Sandra Roop graduated from Central High School in Fort Wayne, and from Warners Beauty College also in Fort Wayne. Sandra and Laurence Murphy were married, 4 April 1963 in St Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Fort Wayne. After a few years this marriage ended in divorce, and Sandra took a job in the Lincoln National Bank and Trust Co., working as a teller. She is presently (1976) attending Indiana University - Purdue Extension, hopefully working toward a Degree in Nursing or Mental Health.

To this union two children were born, Michael Laurence and Kara Ann Murphy.

It was strange that in March after his father had died in December, that he took out an Insurance Policy with triple indemnity, with the beneficiary named as his brother Tom, so that if anything happened to him, Tom would have money to get his education. One wonders if he had a premonition?

Mabel Lochner attended Hopewell grade school and graduated from Auburn High School in 1911. She attended Winona Normal School for 42 weeks (3½ summers) and taught school for six terms (3 years). She taught in District 8 and 9 in Jackson Twp., and at Sugargrove, Kelhams, Hopewell, and Kaiser Twp., all in Dekalb Co.

Since teaching she has worked at many and varied occupations, from selling cosmetics, house to house, to working for the Duhlske Stock Co., she sold scholarships for a commercial school, "Hall Business University" she clerked in Frank's Dept. Store in Ft. Wayne for four years, was a companion to Dr. Harriett McBeth. She also clerked in the Wolf and Deacours Dept. Store in Ft. Wayne and in the Gamble Store in Auburn. In January 1955 she started working as a Practical Nurse, in homes in Auburn.

Mabel has never been a very strong person, and has had many a bout with illnesses, but has managed to recover each time. She is well read, and has a fantastic mind for remembering dates. She has taken care of herself by trying to eat a balanced meal, taking added vitamins and by keeping active.

It may be of interest to her readers that Mabel was involved in two buggy accidents as a young lady, (one account from a newspaper clipping elsewhere) and the other time she was in a buggy with a local boy by the name of John Nugen, and her sister Blanche was in another buggy with John Weaver the man she later married. It seems the two fellows decided to do a bit of racing, and their buggy wheel hubs collided. Both Mabel and John were tossed out, but were not hurt, and the horse went on home without the driver. She was also involved in two auto accidents, 1938 and 1952.

Mabel lived in apartment houses after she quit working, finally tiring of this she bought a little house on 21st street in Auburn, and moved into it on 30 April 1974. She sold the home she and her mother had owned on North Cedar, and started a new life for herself at age 80 years.

Mabel never married although at one time she was engaged to a pre-med. student.
HORSE FRIGHTENED UPSSETS BUGGY

OCCUPANTS BADLY BRUISED

Driver of machine did not stop, but went whizzing on in the darkness.

As the result of their horse becoming frightened at a passing auto buggy five miles south of this city between 5 and 6 o'clock Friday night, Misses Blanche and Mabel Lochner figured in an ugly mix-up which might have cost them their lives.

The two young ladies were returning from Auburn to their home in Jackson township when near the Frank Reed residence the auto buggy, which was being driven without lights or any signals whatever, approached, coming at a high rate of speed from the south. The driver of the machine made no effort to slack his speed or even give half of the road, and as a consequence the horse which the young ladies were driving plunged sideways or a collision would have resulted. The buggy was overturned and the occupants pinned underneath the wreckage. So complete was the smash-up that the horse was easily freed from the rig and proceeded on home. The young ladies extricated themselves from underneath the wreckage and telephone messages were sent to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Lochner, who soon hastened to their rescue.

An effort was also made by M. Reed to stop the reckless auto driver but without avail as their speed was such that it was impossible to head them off before reaching Auburn. An investigation is being made by the manufacturers of this city to ascertain the names of the two men who were in the machine and when the exact state of affairs is learned they will be dealt with accordingly.

Every precaution is being exercised by the men in charge of the manufacture of autos here to prevent testers from making long drives into the country, and to check the fast driving that is often indulged in when a good piece of road is found. Farmers along the routes leading south from this city are becoming indignant and have threatened to organize to prevent fast driving. They claim that the lives of their families are in constant danger and already several dogs have been killed as well as chickens.

The driver of the auto that caused the smash-up above referred to, came near having a similar accident before reaching his destination in this city. When near the Norman Shaffer place they met Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bartles, who were returning from this city, and again they refused to give any of the road or check their speed and the horse driven by Mr. and Mrs. Bartles came very near getting away from them. They were forced to the side of the road and escaped up-setting by only the slightest degree.

The Misses Blanche and Mabel Lochner suffered considerable bruises in their horrifying experience last night. Miss Mabel has a sprained wrist and is otherwise scratched about her face. She is a student of the Auburn High School and was being taken home by her sister, the latter escaping with only bruises.

3) Francis Marion Furnish (Frank)
   b. 6 Jan. 1872 Kendallville, Ind.
   m. 16 Oct. 1892 Auburn, Indiana
   d. 23 Nov. 1962 South Bend, Ind.
   cause: Infirmities of age 90
   burial: South Bend, Indiana church: St. Marks Lutheran, Auburn occupation: Hardware Clerk

Francis Marion Furnish was the son of Eva Watson and William Henry Furnish. He was born in Kendallville, Indiana. When he was yet a baby his mother became ill due to tuberculosis. His sister, Lydia, and her brother, Charles Wesley Watson, moved with them. However, it was only 2 years and 8 months old; Eva was 34. She was buried in the Watson cemetery. When Frank was in his early teens his father left Indiana and went to Michigan to find work. He only returned once after that and it is uncertain if perhaps there was some friction, perhaps too much “bossing,” in the home, which may have contributed to his leaving. The grandparents and the Aunt and the Uncle continued to care for them.

In a letter dated 30 Dec., 1952, Frank wrote to his half brother, Clyde Furnish, in Michigan, “I saw my father just once after he went up into Michigan. That was a long way then days.” Sic Frank attended the Boot’s School, which was near the Watson farm, and where his father had taught school. At age sixteen, he got his first job away from home, working as a clerk for the Swineford House, now the Auburn hotel.

In 1892 he and Margaret Jane Reed were married in the Moses Chapel, out in the country south of Auburn by the Reverend Billy Reese. To this union 5 children were born. The first Basil Talmadge, died of meningitis at six months of age, then they had twin boys, stillborn, all 3 are buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Auburn. Then Bernice Marie and Charles Cecil Furnish. All the children were born in Auburn.

Frank’s next job was at the Kiblinger Factory, where he worked for a few years, then he went to Leasures Hardware also in Auburn, where it is believed he was working at the time of his father’s death; however he wrote a letter to his father on the 20th of January, not knowing he had died the day before. It was written on “ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY” stationery, and stamped: Auburn, Indiana, Penn’a Lines. L & T 2293. The contents of the letter are:

Dear Father and family: I read a letter indirectly from you. I am sorry indeed to learn of your illness and that circumstances are such that I cannot be with you. I have looked year in and year out for some word from you only to be disappointed. It should not be that father and son should be as strangers. I have set time after time to visit you, but have never been permitted to do so. Della and family are well. All our relatives in this vicinity are well as far as I know. I have a family of two children aged 8 and 5, both going to school. My wife has very poor health. This is all the time I can spare at present, will write you again. Hope this will find you improving in health. Hoping to hear from you soon. I am your son. F. M. Furnish

I have every cent tied up in a bank failure here, and could not leave town unless I go afoot.

He was not able to attend his father's funeral, nor were any of the Indiana relatives, as he died at 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening, 19 January 1904, and the messenger did not get to his sister Adella's house with the telegram until 10 o'clock Wednesday night and the funeral was on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. (Michigan had a severe blizzard the day of the funeral and Indiana rain.)

Frank worked in a Notions Store in Auburn from 1903 to 1912. The store was owned by A. B. Olds then by Charles Kimely and finally by Tete Ashelman. He also worked for Fredericks at the Auburn Hardware. Then they moved to South Bend where for many years he worked for Mayers Hardware there, retiring from there just a few days before his 90th birthday. He retired 31 December 1961, his hearing and eyesight were failing him and he was "like a fish out of water" as he had worked since he was 16 years of age.

Family tradition says he was named after the American general and patriot, Francis Marion, (1732-1795), who had earned for himself the nickname of "Swamp Fox" during the Revolutionary War.

His wife, Margaret Jane Reed, was the daughter of George Washington Reed and Elizabeth Isabelle Ferguson. She was the youngest of 5 children. The others names were: Charles Albert, Eliza Alice, Emma Aldora and James Ferguson. She was born in Jackson Twp., Dekalb Co., Indiana.

Margaret was not a well person. In 1904 Frank stated in a letter, "my wife has very poor health." Having lost 3 infants in her early years of marriage caused her much grief. She suffered with pernicious anemia for many years and in 1937 had a severe case of shingles on her face and nose, which remained very sensitive the rest of her life. She was seriously ill in 1944, and their daughter Bernetta was called home from Washington, D. C. Frank had been hit by an automobile and had a broken collar bone and many bruises. She died 2 September 1952. A letter from Frank to his half-brother Clyde, dated 30 Dec. 1952, So. Bend, Indiana reads:

"I hardly know what to do the last 4 months. Margaret and I started out in the depression of 1892. Lost in 2 bank failures and the same thing over again in 1928. But she was my counselor and adviser for 60 years. So we weathered the gale together, and I can hardly get along without her.

However I am still working 6 days a week. I take the Auburn paper and read that sister Della's granddaughter, Mrs. Steininger, is in the Lutheran Hospital at Fort Wayne with polio. She has 5 children."
The other granddaughter, Ermel, lost her husband several years ago with the same thing.

Clyde I never knew about you folks as I only saw our father just once after he went up into Michigan, that was a long way then days. You say you have 15 grandchildren. Well have we or did we ever have any brothers or sisters up there? I never knew. You seem quite old to young folks, but you knew we had a great uncle in Ireland a few years ago who was 108 years, in good health and his mind was clear as a bell, so there is hope for me. Hope and to see you all some day. Love to all, goodnight. (Bernice is still with me.)"

Frank had beautiful handwriting, even at age 90, it was still pretty much the same. His last letter to Clyde read:

"So, Bend, Ind. Nov. 22, 1961
Clyde and family, your kind invitation to attend your Birthday celebration at your home at hand and we would be more than pleased to be there, but I am one of the down and out class, as I will be 90 years (if God wills) Jan. 6th. I'm still up and going but it is some work so I am staying very close to home. However last Sept. I went to the School Reunion in Dekalb Co., were I went to school and father used to teach. The school building, a red brick, is now used for a dwelling, some family lives in it. The is the third school house, the other two were frame buildings sitting on blocks about 2 ft. from the ground so the snow could blow under it. There is no one living in that school district that went to school when I did. Arthur Furnish, Uncle Abe's son, is living near Spencer, but was not able to attend the Reunion.

I noticed you addressed your letter to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Furnish. My wife Margaret died Sept. 4th 1952. Since then my daughter, Bernice, is taking care of our home the same as mother did.

I'm very sorry I cannot attend your Birthday celebration, but will be there in spirit and hope you may have many happy birthdays as the years gone and go. I do not have a car and am too old to get a license to drive, so I will have to hole-up like a woodchuck. I hope this may find you all enjoying the blessings of health and prosperity. My son Cecil lives at Ft. Wayne and don't get to see them too often. Hoping to see and hear from you often. Am one of the family.

F. M. Furnish (Frank)"

He died the following 23rd of November on Clyde's 76th birthday. His funeral was conducted by the Reverend Quinton J. Everest, pastor for 22 years of the River Park Worship Hour, a weekly radio program. The Gospel Center was only 2 blocks from their home, so Frank and Margaret attended services there; however they never transferred their membership from St. Mark's Lutheran church in Auburn. The funeral service was conducted on Monday, 26 November 1962 from the Hollis Chapel at 2:30 P.M. Burial was in St. Joseph Valley Memorial Park, South Bend, Indiana.
Politically Frank was a Democrat; however his father and grandfather were both Republicans. He had been in good health most of his life, and his daughter, Bernice, once wrote: "Dad said he had no pain and was not sick in his dying days."

They had lived much of their married life in Auburn, before moving to South Bend. They had lived on S. Decor, N. Jackson, 9th St., Indiana Ave., 1005 N. Main St. and at 1923 they moved to Mishawaka, a suburb of South Bend. In 1940 they sold the home in their son Cecil’s home, at quite a sacrifice. The Auburn Courthouse Records show that he bought and sold several pieces of property in Auburn between 1913 and 1919.

Frank and Margaret were the parents of two children that lived to maturity, Charles and Bernice. Their oldest child, Basil, died when he was 6 months old, then twins were stillborn. All three are buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Auburn, Indiana.

Cecil was born in Auburn, Indiana, he attended Harrison Grade school, and graduated from Auburn High School in 1914. He also attended Tri-State College in Angola, Indiana. He served in World War I, in Co. E, of the 309th Engineer Corp. He served in France for ten months. Gayle attended school in Richland Twp., DeKalb Co., Ind.

He and Gayle Myers were married in the Lutheran Parsonage in Auburn, by the Reverend E. E. Slater. They lived in South Bend until 1955, where he was an accountant for the Indiana and Michigan Electric Co. In 1955 they moved to Fort Wayne to 3302 Indiana Ave., where they still reside. He continued to work at the Electric Co. until his retirement 1 August 1960. He and Gayle are both members of the First Presbyterian Church of Fort Wayne. In Politics they are Republicans.

Gayle is artistic and enjoys doing watercolor paintings, mostly scenery, and has a lovely one hanging over their fireplace. She also sews beautifully, tailoring her own suits as well as making her other clothing.

To this union 5 children were born, Mary Catherine, Betty Lorine, Charles Cecil, Jr., Warren Leroy and Thomas David Furnish.

Betty Lorine Furnish was born in South Bend, Indiana. She graduated from the John Adams High School there, and attended Presbyterian College in Missouri. She graduated from Indiana University, and received her master's degree from Columbia University in New York. She started teaching in 1956 at the Frances Slocum School in Fort Wayne, and taught there until she became ill.

Betty was a member of the American Association of University Women, the First Presbyterian Church and its choir and Round Table group.

She died in St. Helena, California, where she had gone for treatment just one month before her death. She died, at 5:30 a.m. on Tuesday, 15 Aug. 1967. Services for her were held at 2:30 p.m. on Friday in the First Presbyterian Church, Fort Wayne. Burial was in Greenlawn Memorial Park. Arrangements were made by the D. C. McComb & Sons Funeral Home Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Bernice Furnish was born on Easter Sunday, at the home of her parents on S. Cedar St., in Auburn, Indiana. She was delivered by Dr. Buchtel, and Laura Karian was the trained nurse in charge. She attended Harrison grade school, and played the children’s games of her day, “Run Sheepielun” and “Hide and go Seek.” She attended Auburn High School, and Tri-State College in Angola, Indiana, taking a stenographic course. She had taken piano lessons for some years, and remembers playing Rachmaninoff’s Prelude in 4 sharps for a special performance while at Tri-State College. She also attended Thomas Commercial School in South Bend, Indiana.

She worked at many and varied places. Her first job was at the Auburn Automobile Co., where she worked for 2 years. She then went to the Wayne Tank and Pump Co., in Fort Wayne, here she stayed with her great Uncle Abraham and Aunt Sylvia Furnish. Uncle Abe made a lasting impression on Bernice. She observed that each morning and each evening he read his Bible and then knelt by his chair to pray.

Her next job was in the Records Office of the Auburn Courthouse. Then in 1942 she went to work for the U. S. War Department, Washington, D. C. This office was the first one that moved into the new Pentagon Building; Arlington Farms, Virginia. While in Washington she lived at the Arlington Farms Government House, living in the Maine Hall. (The Halls are all named after the States.) After a couple of years with the War Dept. she transferred to the Department of Justice and worked there until 1947 when she left and came home to help her father, as her mother was very ill, and her father was 75, and still working every day, and trying to keep up the home and take care of his wife. Bernice enjoyed her work in Washington, and has many happy memories. She recalls that President Franklin D. Roosevelt was in office then, and Francis Biddle was the Attorney General.

Some of her other memories are: a cruise on the Potomac, on a 3-decked ship; Arlington Cemetery, which was across from the ‘Halls’ where she lived; all the Government Buildings and statues and monuments. The Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.; Niagara Falls; New York City, and the World’s Fair; Gettysburg Battlefield in Pa., and of course the new Pentagon building at 18th and Constitution Ave., where she worked.

She married, yet made plans twice, both times the relationship was broken.

As a small child of 2 or 3 years of age she started attending church and Sunday School at St. Marks Lutheran Church in Auburn, with her parents, there she made lasting friendships that continue until this day. She attended there for nearly 25 years.

After moving with her parents to Mishawaka she and her mother attended a Baptist church there, and one day she recalls she and her mother coming home and finding her father asleep in a chair with one of her mother’s hats on. He thought he would stay awake until they got home, and did it for fun thinking it would break up the monotony. They all had a good laugh anyway. In South Bend Bernice attended the Seventh-Day Adventist church and her parents attended the Gospel Center Church. Bernice for some time did play the piano for the River Park Methodist Church in South Bend.

She has been in good health, except for being afflicted with tinnitus (ringing in the ears) since having the flu many years ago. She has sought cures from Mayo Hospital, as well as Chicago and Fort Wayne specialists, with no relief.

After her father's death in 1962 she sold the house and bought a mobile home, later she sold that now lives in a small apartment on N. Cedar St. (She was born on S. Cedar St.) She is not allowed to have the sound on her TV, as it disturbs the other tenants, so she goes to the Eckhart Library and reads the Chicago Tribune and the Fort Wayne Journal Gazette for a pass-time, and to keep up on current events.

She doesn't attend church anymore, as she cannot hear well enough. In politics she is a Democrat.

Clyde Otho Furnish, the eldest of three children born to William H. and Ada E. (Sawyer) Furnish, was born in a log house on Rose Center Road (W. of the R. R.) in Bengal Twp., Clinton Co., Michigan. This was located six miles west of tracks) in Bengal Twp., Clinton Co., Michigan. This was located six miles west of St. Johns, on what was known as the John Jury farm. He weighed 10 pounds at birth, and was delivered by Dr. Henry A. Palmer, M. D. of St. Johns.

When Clyde was a small boy his father bought five acres of ground on Chandler road, Bengal Twp., and built a four room house. He remembers that there were three large wild cherry trees on the back of the property, and that his father cut them down and used them for timbers underneath the house.

He also remembers that his father made and baked the pancakes in their home whenever they had time, and remembers his sometimes grilling a slice of bread with pancakes batter on each side, and how they, as children, looked forward to his special treat with maple syrup poured over the top.

Clyde attended the Parkers School for most of his formal education. For one year he and his sister and brother attended the Bowell School in Duplain Twp. It was only one mile from their home and the Parkers School was a mile and a half. Also they one mile from the school, and the Parkers School was a mile and a half. Also they could ride with their father, as he went by the school, on his way to "run his mail." Each morning he went to Rochester Colony (a settlement of people from Rochester, New York) and picked up mail and delivered it to Shepardsville, then he delivered the mail from Shepardsville to "The Colony" and her surroundings. He also delivered the mail on his way home and down the side roads as well. Along with the mail he also delivered the "Free Press Paper" and the "Grit" magazine. His father left the paper deliveries in the neighborhood for Clyde to do after he got home from school.

He didn't start attending school until he was seven years of age, as he had a mile to walk alone. He and his sister, Effie, started at the same time. Their first teacher was Margaret Kelley. Clyde completed the eighth grade and then reviewed the eighth grade two different winter terms. One time at the Parkers School and again at Ovid # 6, as he was working away from home doing chores for his room and board at the Charley Walkers.

It was the custom, at that time, to alternate with a "Spool down" one Friday afternoon and "deciphering (mental arithmetic) the next. He has excelled in both, but he doesn't do much mental arithmetic any longer. His children like to brag about "their spelling and oral arithmetic, all his life. His children like to brag about "their spelling and oral arithmetic, all his life. His children like to brag about "their spelling and oral arithmetic, all his life. His children like to brag about "their spelling and oral arithmetic, all his life.

Clyde remembers another experience he had as a young man of about seventeen. He was in St. Johns one late afternoon and it started to rain, and just wouldn't quit. It was getting late and he didn't want to ride his bicycle five miles in a pouring rain. So he crawled up in the hay now of Jack Burnham's Feed Barn. This was a barn where people tied their horses and fed them if they were going to be there any length of time. Clyd went to sleep thinking he was the only one up there but at day break he was awakened by a black man who said: "hey boss, what time is it?" And the man was in a hurry.
was suddenly alive with men. He was greatly surprised.

Clyde was eighteen when his father died at age seventy. Clyde, Effie and Earl were his children by his second wife, as he had lost his first wife at age 24. The damaged freight cars for the 'Chicago Hamilton & Dayton' and the 'Pere Marquette'.

His next job was in Lansing where he worked for Jake Slate at the Lansing Artifical Stone Co. His first job was helping finish a "cellar bottom." He also worked for walks around and approaching our State Capital. He remembers that one summer he and finishing sidewalks. Clyde is left handed and Bill was right handed so they worked together very well; Clyde finishing the right side and Bill the left.

While working in Ionia he met Viola Ostrander. They first met when she was 14 years of age. At that time her brother, George, was dating Maude Jones. Her mother Viola and her sister, Alma, were not allowed to date young men, but were allowed to go to Ionia with their brother George. So it was at the Jones home that they first met. At first Clyde escorted Alma and Bob escorted Viola. Their first time out to the division of the Modern Woodman at that time. Clyde had become a member of the Modern Woodman 31 August 1905 in St. Johns. He was 19 years of age.

One night George brought the young people all out to their home for a sleigh ride and then they played games in the house afterwards. This was the only time that Clyde talked to the young people as they came out in the kitchen, but he was a sick man, and died when Viola was 16 years of age with what was called at that time "neuralgia of ox's heart," the doctor said it was as large as an

After her father's death Viola went to work for her room and board and a small amount of money doing housework. She worked in Greenville, and Ionia mostly. It was again diagnosed as "neuralgia of the heart," the same thing her father had. She was angina pectoris.

After Clyde and Viola had made definite plans to marry, Clyde rented the upstairs flat in the house his childhood friend, Jim Curtin lived in at 216 W. Main St. Lansing. 26 May 1910. He and most of the other young people that attended the wedding stayed up most of the night watching Halley's Comet. He said: "It was a clear night, the comet was very bright with a long tail that shone like a string of electric lights people thought that when the tail touched the earth it would bring the end of the world."

The following December Clyde and Viola were married. They were married on the 21st of December 1910 in Ionia, Michigan by Henry C. Clark, Justice of the Peace. He was a friend of the Ostrander family.

After the ceremony they came back to Lansing to live in the flat Clyde had rented. There was only one key to the house and it was kept over the door on the ledge. When Clyde reached for the key it was no where to be found. No one was at home down stairs chilly, and he had his new bride home with her trunk. Suddenly he remembered he had ordered coal a few days before so he checked to see if the door into the coal bin was been secured from the inside. He found it had not been, so he crawled through the door to the coal chute and over the freshly delivered coal, and then unlocked the door from the inside and let Violia in. They hurriedly got her trunk upstairs and the doors closed and the lights out as quickly as possible. In just a few minutes the Curtin's and many of their friends arrived all ready to chivaree them when they arrived. Clyde and Vi listened in on the conversation from the downstairs and felt very smug because they had outsmarted them! The next morning Lena heard sounds upstairs and she and Jim came up and discovered they had been there all the time. They showered them with rice and they were chivareed about two weeks later.

For a wedding gift, Clyde had a beautiful new solid walnut bedroom suite in the flat to great Vi, as well as a set of crystal stemware and punch cups and a set of Wm. Rogers 1881 A-L silverware in the new grape design.

Clyde recalls that Jim Curtin's parents lived the next farm to his grandparents and that one time his Grandpa Sawyer sprayed his potatoes with Paris-green and that later in the day Pat Curtin's turkeys came over into the potato patch and walked right down the rows eating the potato bugs that had fallen. His turkeys all died. There were hard feelings over that, even though neither family had noticed the turkeys over on Sawyer's property. Jim and Clyde, however, remained good friends.

Their next move was to 910 E. Saginaw and then they bought a home at 517 E. Saginaw, between Cedar and March streets. After five years of working with cement Clyde became more and more plagued with epistaxis. The doctor felt it had to be the lime in the mortar that was causing them, and suggested that they try living in the country. So they moved to Newburg (near Bancroft and Vernon) where he worked as a farm hand for John Corruthers for five years. On 1 March 1920 they moved onto the Wallace Moore farm, located at the corner of the Garrison and Scribner roads, five miles S. E. of Corunna. They worked this farm on shares with the following agreement:

"Clyde Furnish, party of the second part, agrees to furnish horses and tools and do the work. Each party to furnish one half of the cows, hogs and poultry; also the seed for crop planting. Each party to stand one half the expense of binder twine, coal for threshing and threshing bills and such feed as may be needed for stock. Any stock being sick and needing the attention of a veterinarian is to be employed by second party and the expense to be divided equally between each party. There being 14 acres of wheat on said farm second party is to harvest same and retain one half of the crop, but shall leave 1/2 acres of wheat on said farm at the expiration of the lease. All work horses as well as other stock kept on said farm is to be fed from the undivided crops, any surplus not needed for stock and other crops not raised for feeding purposes to be divided and sold and each divided equally between each party. Also young stock, poultry, eggs and cream to be divided equally. Secured party is allowed to cut such wood as he may need for one stove."

This was a 160 acre farm, with a sixteen room house. They signed this contract on 24 February 1920, it was extended until 1 March 1935. With the contract was a verbal agreement that Clyde could buy the farm as soon as he was able to pay off the existing mortgage in the amount of $6000. The sale price of the farm was then $19,000. They were about to make the transaction when the depression of 1929 hit, and their dreams were shattered. They lived here, however, for 15 years.

Then 1 March 1935 they moved near Morrice, on the Gallagher farm, and in March of 1945 they moved near Ovid on the Shufelt farm, and finally on 1 March 1950 they were able to buy their own farm on Hovey road near Kirkhill Road in Middlebury Twp., Shiawassee co. This farm was formerly known as the Fred Kline farm and consisted of Viola was the 5th of 7 children born to Salem Caushes and Anna Viola (Powell) Ostrander. Her sisters and brothers were, Sarah Belle, George Gilbert, Charles Chester (Chet), Alma Ann, Salem Samuel, and Ruby R. (?Ruby) Ostrander.

Viola attended Lyons High School through the 10th grade.

Their farm homes were always like "Grand Central Station," and especially the Moore farm with it's sixteen rooms. Clyde's mother lived with them for many years after she sold her home in Maple Rapids, and aunts and uncles lived with them from time to time and helped with the work, as well as their oldest daughter, Beatrice, and her husband. They looked forward to company nearly every Sunday. This was their touch with the outside world, as they were tied down with cattle and much work.

Viola was a hard worker, she made all her own bread, 10 loaves a time, and sometimes twice a week. She churned her own butter for many years, and sewed for her children as well as taught them how when old enough. She was a cook good and could put a fine meal on the table in short order. She canned, and pickled food stuffs from the garden and orchard, and made jellies and jams and fruit butters.

Clyde worked hard all his life. He was a steady worker, working at about the same pace all day long. On rainy days he always had work to do that he had saved for a "rainy day" and one could usually find him in the tool shed repairing machinery or in the barn repairing a harness or sharpening mower teeth, and other tools on the grind in wheel, or perhaps repairing a pair of shoes.

He started working away from home at eleven years of age. The years he worked in Lansing as a mason, top bricklayers only got $.60 per hour, finishers $.30 and laborers $.20. Then when he worked for John Corruthers at Newburg, (he owned 1000 acres and was the largest sheep feeder in the area, as well as feeder cattle, and was the biggest potato producer in Shiawassee Co., harvesting over 20,000 bu. a year from more than 100 acres) they dug the potatoes with machinery, but they wore knee pads and by hand. One spring they tapped 750 trees and made maple syrup from it. Then when as the milking, then out in the fields with the horses until noon, and back after meant a rest and food for them also, and sometimes didn't even want to finish out the row they were working. Many years later he used a tractor.

Some of Clyde's happiest times were the harvesting seasons, when the farmers all helped each other thrash. The thrashing machine and the farmers moved from farm to farm until the crops were all harvested.

Clyde first learned to drive a 1912 Clark truck, made by Clark Carriage in Lansing (R. E. Olds started out working at Clark Carriage). The first car he owned was a 1923 Ford Model T he bought from a neighbor, Wilbur Bennett, in 1924. He drove until he was 87 years old and never had an accident, or was the cause of anyone else having one. When his last license expired, 21 March 1972, he never tried to have it renewed.

One of the high points in Clyde's life was in August 1933 when for the first time he met his half-sister Adella (Furnish) Lochner. A cousin, David Grosh, hired a friend to drive him and his wife Laura, their son Marion and daughter Ruth to Michigan to meet Clyde and Vi and their family. They brought Adella with them. It was a very exciting time for all. They had corresponded for many years, and Adella's two daughters, Vera and Nabel, and Clyde had corresponded since they were teenagers. And now they finally had met! Clyde was 47. Adella was 65 at the time.

Then two years later, in August of 1935, Clyde and Vi were driven to Indiana by their daughter and son-in-law, Marion and Kenneth Harris, and they met Clyde's half-brother, Frank (Marion Francis) Furnish. This all seemed like a dream that had come true. Today (1946) it seems like not much of a task to drive to Auburn, Indiana with our high powered automobiles and super-highways, but back in the Model T and Model A era it was a "long" trip.

As a teenager Clyde attended the Young Peoples Social Endeavor Society, which was made up of the young people from the Methodist Church and the Disciples Church at Rochester Colony. At sixteen he finished the Catechism class and was supposed to be baptized along with the others in the class by Elder Findley, pastor of the Disciples Church in Maple Rapids, but the Elder became ill so could not do it as scheduled. When he was well enough to reschedule the baptismal service Clyde was working for Charley Knoup who lived N. W. of St. Johns and wasn't able to be present, as his only transportation was his bicycle.

Charley Knoup was a German Methodist who always said the same grace, three times a day, in German. So in a short while Clyde had learned to imitate him but was not real sure what he was saying. This started a family tradition since his birthday is on the 23rd of November and so close to Thanksgiving his family always celebrated the two together as long as it was possible to do so. And as an added bit of nostalgia Clyde was always requested to offer his "German Grace". Something he can still do at 90 years of age.

He has a 'dry' sense of humor and always enjoyed a good prank or joke. He could change his voice and talk in different dialects, and his children begged him over and over at these celebrations to tell favorite jokes, we all knew so well, for the benefit of the new comers at the table.

His baptism was delayed many years. They never lived in an area with a 'little country church' near by. While he and Vi were rearing their large family it was very difficult to milk a herd of cows and then get everyone ready and travel five miles to the nearest village church; first in a horse and buggy, then the Model T and finally the Model A. They taught their children the true values in life, an best they could, without the help of the church. But on 14 April 1946 Clyde and his youngest daughter, Genevieve, were both baptized and he and Vi and Genevieve all became members of the Middlebury Methodist Church, which was located about two miles from where they lived at that time. The Reverend Herbert K. Hitchens was their pastor.

In later years he said the Poem " Hoeing" pretty much expressed how he farmed:

HOEING

Said Farmer Jones in a whining tone to his good old neighbor Grey,

"I've worn my knees through to the bones, but it ain't no use to pray.
Your corn looks twice as good as mine, too, you don't pretend to be
A shining light in the church to shine, and tell salvation's free.

I've prayed to the Lord a thousand times to make this corn grow,
And why yourn beats so and climbs, I'd give a world to know."

Said Farmer Grey to Farmer Jones in his easy, quiet way,

"When prayers get mixed with lazy bones, they don't make farmin' pay.

Your weeds, I notice, are good and tall, in spite of all your prayers.
You may pray for corn till the heavens fall, if you don't dig up the tares."
I mix my prayers with a little toil along in every row,
And I work this mixture into the soil, quite vigorous with a hoe.
An’ I’ve discovered, tho’ still in sin, as sure as you are born,
This kind of compost, well worked in, makes pretty decent corn.

“So while I’m prayin’ I use my hoe and do my level best
To keep down the weeds along each row, an’ the Lord, he does the rest.
It’s well for you to pray both night an’ morn, as every farmer knows,
But the place to pray for thrifty corn is right between the rows.

You must use your hands while prayin’ tho’, if an answer you would get,
For prayer worn knees and a rusty hoe never raised a big crop yet.
And so I believe, my good, old friend, if you want to win the day,
From plowing, clean to the harvest’s end, you must hoe as well as pray.”

Clyde has always enjoyed working in the garden and working around the shrubs in the yard. After Vi died he continued to set out her gladiolus and dahlia bulbs every spring until he left the farm the winter of 1971-2 and went to live with his youngest daughter, Genevieve, and her husband, Abe Eldridge, and their four daughters in Owosso and even then he took the bulbs with him, and is still setting them out.

His family was able to help him celebrate his 85th birthday on the farm. A short while after that he sold his farm to one of his grandsons, Dean D. Furnish.

Besides belonging to the Modern Woodman since he was nineteen years of age, he was a member of the Odd Fellow Lodge and attended regularly for many years. In party politics he declares himself a Republican, but votes for the man not the party.

Now in his 90th year (1976) he still tries to take a walk every day, or else works in the garden, weather permitting. He uses a cane or the hoe, as the case may be. He has always been an avid reader and kept up on world affairs, but now his eyes won’t let him read as much as he used to, but he still listens to the 11:00 o’clock news before going to bed.

He has always been known for his honesty and integrity and believed “a man is as good as his word.” He was always considered a good neighbor.

There was a deep and abiding love between Clyde and Vi, and he sat and held her hand as she crossed over to meet the redeemer on the other side. She has asked her family not to pray that she would recover if she couldn’t be well, and said she was not afraid of dying, her house was in order. She left a host of friends and loved ones.

Clyde is much loved by his large family of six living children, 24 grandchildren, and 37 great-grandchildren. Two daughters have died and three grandchildren.

Clyde and Viola were the parents of nine children. Everett the eldest was born three months premature and only lived a few hours. The other children are Beatrice Beth, Marion Mae, Vera Viola, Eugene Ernest, Jane Julia, Edith Esther, Clinton Clyde, and Genevieve Gaytha Furnish.

Beatrice Beth Furnish was born in the Edward W. Sparrow Hospital, Lansing, Mich. 15 June 1913. The delivery room fee at that time was $3.00 and the total bill for both she and her mother from June 15 to June 28 was only $25.25. She was born with lots of long dark brown hair and the nurses put a little blue ribbon in her hair before they brought her to her mother; after she had been bathed and dressed after delivery. Beatrice was delivered by Dr. Brockett, in Lansing.

When she was two years old she moved with her parents to Newburg. They first lived on the Rippey farm and later moved to the Hosington farm, both then owned by Corruthers the later place had a better house. It was on Lemon road. Here Beatrice attended Shiiawassee No 1 country school. This school was in continuous use from Jan. 1857 until May 1962, when it was sold for a dwelling. The bell was removed from the school and is mounted on a concrete slab beside the stone marker in Shiiawassee Square which was erected by the Shiiawassee chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution. It was erected in 1926 and reads: "This square of land was set aside for public use when Shiiawassee-Town was platted in 1837 in hope the Capital of Michigan would be located here." The records were brought here from Detroit and held for a day, but before the day ended Lansing had won over, as the site, and Shiatown has been celebrated as "Capital for a Day." The little town straddles the Shiiawassee River about six miles southeast of Corunna.

In 1920 they moved onto the Wallace Moore farm located at the corner of Garrison and Scribner roads. She attended the Lemon School which was located in that very corner of the farm. The school got it's name from the John & Julia Ann (Trowbridge) Lemon Family who purchased land here in 1839 and settled there in 1843. They had eleven children and many of them lived here in Shiiawassee Twp., Shiiawassee Co., in Sections 14, 15, 10 and 11. The Lemons were strong supporters of schools. Mrs. Moore was formerly Julia M. Lemon. She was a daughter of John and Julia Lemon.

Beatrice attended the Lemon School through the eighth grade, and then attended Corunna High School through the eleventh grade. She lived in town, working for her room and board through the week, and came home on the week-ends. For a while she lived with Julia Moore. In Corunna she attended some of the functions of the Methodist church with Mrs. Moore, and frequently attended Epworth League on Sunday evening.

Beatrice and William F. Breiler were married 26 June 1930 in the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Corunna, with the Reverend B. A. Cranter, pastor, officiating. They were attended by Bill's brother, Albert of Venice, and Catherine Burdick, of Bancroft, a friend.

Beatrice had lovely handwriting, and worked well with her hands. She sewed and liked to embroidery and did beautiful work with small even stitches. She loved the out-of-doors too, and enjoyed flowers and the animals. She was a 'fun' person too. She liked music, and enjoyed dancing and to be on the go, doing something.

She especially loved babies, and wanted children of her own desperately, but was denied this privilege. She was especially fond of her baby sister, Genevieve, born three years after she and Bill were married. Since her mother was 43 she couldn't understand why it couldn't have been her instead.
Her husband, Bill, early in life became a victim of osteomyelitis of the leg. As a young lad, playing baseball, he was hit in the leg with a base ball bat. He has been hospitalized and has undergone surgery on it numerous times. Because of this injury and the problems that kept occurring he had to quit doing heavy work, but worked many years as Park Attendant at McCurdy Park in Corunna, then worked in the school as one of the custodians. He is now retired and lives near New Lothrop.

Beatrice and Bill were not able to make their marriage work so had separated three years before Beatrice was killed when the car in which she was riding crashed into a moving Grand Trunk Western train near the intersection of M-76 and M-71, just north of Durand, in a blinding snowstorm. She was twenty-four.

She had only been home for a week when it happened. She had been in Detroit with her sister and brother-in-law, Vera and Vincent Harris, trying to find work. All she had been able to find since their separation was house work.

She had gone to Perry to help a cousin and her husband out, Genevieve (Balcom) and Jack Hoag. They had recently moved there and had three children, the eldest not quite three.

According to Jack's sister they didn't leave the house until after 11 p.m. They went to Morrice, two miles away, to the Community Hall to attend a party. They didn't stay very long. All three of them were killed along with Carl Ruler the driver of the car. Later someone said they overheard them talking as they left, and had said they were going to Flint for a steak supper, and wanted to get there before the place closed. They were all approximately the same age.

Beatrice was taken to Mapes Chapel in Durand. Her funeral was at 1:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon with the Reverend William Schiata, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Corunna, officiated. Interment was in Soules Cemetery, near Maple Rapids.

Bill remarried 13 March 1940. He married Anna Dunlley. They have two children, Maxine and Clayton Breiler.

Elizabeth (Avey) Harris

Marion Furnish was born near Newburg, about one quarter mile southeast of where Coco and Newberry roads intersect, in Vernon Twp., Shiawassee Co., Michigan. This farm home at that time was known as the Rippey farm.

When she was three years old she moved with her family onto the Wm. Wallace Moore farm. This farm was located at the center of Garrison and Scribner roads. Here she attended the Lemon School through the eighth grade. Her high school years were very difficult years as this was the peak of the 'depression'. Her freshman and sophomore years she rode back and forth daily with other students. Her junior year and through that summer plus her senior year until January she worked for her room and board acting as 'nurse maid' to Judy and Joe Robbins III. Their father, Joseph Robbins, was part owner at that time of Robbins Furniture Factory in Ossusko.

In January of her senior year she went to work for Beatrice and Harry Casteel. They were expecting their second child and needed some extra help. She worked for them until after their daughter, Sharon, was born and then went home to help her mother.

Her mother was expecting her ninth child, and she was age forty-three. Marion stayed home from November through January. Her baby sister, Genevieve Gaytha, was born 14 December 1933.

The first of the year she went back to Casteels for a while and then took a job for the next six months working for Edith and Frank Moore, taking care of his mother Julia Moore. (Moore's owned the farm her parents lived on). Mrs. Moore was now in her eighty's and they didn't want her left alone. They had to be away during the day as they owned and operated the local bakery in Corunna. Marion worked there until the end of June when she and Kenneth Harris were married.

Kenneth and Marion had attended high school together, however, Marion graduated a year before Kenneth as she graduated when she was sixteen. She had taken three grades in two years at the Lemon School. Marion graduated in June 1933 and Kenneth in June 1934 both from Corunna High School.

Their wedding ceremony took place Saturday, 30 June 1934 at high noon in the home of the groom's sister and brother-in-law, Dorothy and Fred West. Mr and Mrs. West also acted as their attendants. The Reverend Frank Cockson, pastor of the Durand Methodist Episcopal Church officiated.

A wedding repast was served following the ceremony and at 8:00 o'clock supper was served to the bridal party in the home of the bride's parents southeast of Corunna and where they spent their first night together as Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Harris.

Later that night a large chivaree took place to help celebrate the occasion.

The next day they left on a wedding trip to Indiana to visit relatives. Returning home they lived with the groom's parents. Soon they were able to build a lovely home a few rods from his parents home. It was located on the Geeck road between Perrett and Lytle roads. It was here that Kenneth felt 'the call' to the ministry, however he resisted it for three years. In 1946 he made the final decision. They sold their home to Vera and Leo Rothe, friends in the Corunna Methodist Episcopal church, where they were members and were taking an active part. They moved to Wilmore, Kentucky where they had purchased a rather large home and were able to room students upstairs to help some with their expenses. Kenneth enrolled in Asbury College there.

Kenneth Harris was born near Kerby on the farm he had lived on all his life before going to Kentucky. He attended Lytle School through the eighth grade, then Corunna High School and on 1 June 1949 he graduated from Asbury College with his A.B. Degree. He then enrolled in Asbury Theological Seminary and was assigned as pastor of the Fullerton Methodist Church, Fullerton, Kentucky. He served there for three years. He then transferred to Hamma Divinity School, a Lutheran Seminary, in Springfield, Ohio and was assigned as pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church in Manchester, Ohio, where he served for one year.

He graduated from Hamma on 16 May 1954 with his B.D. Degree and was ordained in June of that year at the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Church by Bishop Marshall Reed. At Conference he was assigned to serve the Methodist Church in Byron, Shiawassee Co. He served there for fifteen years. In 1966 he was assigned the church in Grass Lake, Jackson, Co.; and in 1969 to the Lexington/Bethel Charge, Lexington, Sanilac Co., all in Michigan. They are still serving Lexington/Bethel since 1976.

Marion accepted her changed role, from farmer's wife to 'queen' of the parsonage with willingness and grace and has been loved by each congregation they have served. She is a good mother and has spent much time with their children, helping them with their education and problems, filling the gap when she had to act as father as well as mother the many hours Kenneth had to be away. She is a woman with insight, understanding and determination. She possesses many skills, and gives others the feeling she is self-confident. She is an able speaker, and is frequently asked to do so at banquets, retreats, mother's clubs, and on occasion has preached the Sunday sermons when Kenneth became too ill, or was absent, and could not do it. She has taught Sunday School most of her married life.

Marion is an avid reader and likes to do crossword puzzles. She sews and likes to crochet, embroidery and do floral arrangements.

Kenneth is a good preacher and pastor. He feels his best work is done in the 'ministry of calling'. He is a versatile person; he is mechanical and usually repairs his own car. He likes to work with wood and with glass, and always leaves a parsonage in better condition than when they arrived.

The Byron church honored them with an 'Open House' for their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They also honored Kenneth with an appreciation party entitled, 'This Is Your Life Kenneth Harris', for his part in helping with the building of their new educational unit.

First the architect drew the preliminary plans then Kenneth reworked them to meet the needs of their congregation, with the approval of the Official Board, then the plans were given back to the architect and he re-drew them. The congregation there still compliment him on the terrific job he did as it still 'meets their every need'. He also helped a great deal in the manual labor, when he was available, which they appreciated.

The 'This Is Your Life' part came as a complete surprise. Only Marion knew about it. It was a real success with many people out of his past being present, with many humorous experiences of the past to reflect upon, as well as many pictures. Of course it was brought up to date, 1962.

In February of 1966 Kenneth was privileged to go on an eleven day tour of Mission Work in Haiti. This was an all expense paid trip, again a gift of the Byron church. Kenneth is an "early to bed, early to rise" sort of person. He is very ambitious, a hard worker, and finds it hard for him to relax. Marion is more calm, and works at an even pace. She plans her work well ahead, but like most minister's wives she is not always able to work her plan. Their personalities complement each other.
The only major illness they have had to cope with was in 1974 when Marion was diagnosed as having endometrial cancer. This was diagnosed in July and four weeks in July and August were given to X-ray treatments, followed immediately with a six day Radium implant at Mercy Hospital, Port Huron. Six weeks later on 31 October a complete hysterectomy was performed.

On the night previous to surgery a long distance call from Philadelphia was received from the Reverend Harold Dakin. He was anointed, and prayed for 'in proxy' through the Order of St. Luke at St. Stephens church. Marion reported that many times, too weak to pray or have much interest in anything, there was always a constant awareness of God's abiding presence and a sense that all was well. She attributes this to the constant flow of prayers that were being offered in her behalf not only locally but from far and near.

She had nearly recovered from the cancer treatment and surgery when they were hit broad side, by another car. Kenneth was not hurt, but Marion suffered for several months with crushed ribs on the right side and the effects of a pneumothorax when the crushed rib perforated the pleura. This summer, however, she has done very well and check-up reports are all excellent.

In June of 1975 the Lexington/Bethel churches had an anniversary party for them. They thought it was their fortieth anniversary but it was actually their forty-first. They were given a generous purse that enabled them to take a three day holiday into Canada where they visited Stratford-upon-Avon.

To this union six children were born: Shirley Anne, Robert Leroy, Carol Jeanne, Allan Clyde, Debra Kay and Jeffery Lee Harris.
Shirley Anne Harris was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. She lived on a farm near Kerby and attended the Lytle School until she was eleven years of age. At that time (1946), she moved with her family to Wilmore, Kentucky. They had lived in Wilmore about three years when her father was assigned as pastor of the Methodist church in Pulaski, Kentucky. He served there for three years and was assigned to the Trinity Methodist church in Manchester, Ohio. Shirley graduated from Manchester High School on 22 May 1953. She then furthered her education by completing a course at International Business Machines School in Cincinnati. She went to work at the General Electric Corporation there as a Key Punch Operator and Clerk Typist.

Shirley has been a very active person. Among other things, she likes to paint and redecorate her home. She plays the piano and has been an 'Avon Lady' for fourteen years. She bowls in three leagues, and coaches cheerleaders for Funcham and Ouyer Football. She has been a member of the Cincinnati between the ages of 7 and 15. She and Ray are members of the Pipefitters Union in Mt. Healthy.

Raymond Joseph Doxsey was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He lived on a farm near Kerby and attended the Lytle School until he was eleven years of age. At that time (1946), he moved with his family to Wilmore, Kentucky. They had lived in Wilmore about three years when his father was assigned as pastor of the Methodist church in Pulaski, Kentucky. He served there for three years and was assigned to the Trinity Methodist church in Manchester, Ohio. Shirley graduated from Manchester High School on 22 May 1953. She then furthered her education by completing a course at International Business Machines School in Cincinnati. She went to work at the General Electric Corporation there as a Key Punch Operator and Clerk Typist.

Shirley and Ray were married in the Byron Methodist church by her father, the Reverend Kenneth L. Harris, pastor of the church. She walked down the aisle on the arm of her uncle, Vincent B. Harris of Troy, Michigan, who gave her in marriage in behalf of her parents and himself. Shirley looked lovely in her bridal gown of Chantilly lace over white satin and net. Her sister Carol was her maid of honor and her sister Debra, age four, served as her flower girl. The best man was Ernest Doxsey, brother of the groom. A reception followed the wedding ceremony in the undercroft of the church. Following the reception they left on a short honeymoon, returning to Cincinnati to reside, as they were both employed at General Electric.

Ray served two years in the U.S. Navy. He took his Basic Training at Burbridge, Maryland and then was sent to the base in South Hampton, Bermuda. He was a Boil Utility Man on the base. Shirley was able to join him there, in fact their first child Raymond Joseph, Jr. was born at the Navy Base in Bermuda on Father's Day 15 June 1958.

Ray is President of the Pipefitters Union #302. He served on the Pipefitters Apprentice Committee from 1961 to 1973. He liked this job very much but felt he should give it up and spend more time at home. He is Piping Superintendent for B. F. Shaw. He is in charge of the heating, sanitary piping, air conditioning lines in the buildings they work on. At present he is working at Columbia Power House.

Ray is District Supervisor of District #32, which is all the schools in Mt. Healthy School District. Shirley helps Ray schedule the games for approximately 60 teams. She also looks after five years ago they set up an umpire school and insisted on all their umpires attending Ray was – Cincinnati Reds, Powell Crosley, Jr. Amateur Baseball Fund and the Cincinnati Recreation Commission. This includes a total of 34 Districts in the Greater Cincinnati area and Northern Kentucky. This is all non-paying jobs, but they receive a lot of personal satisfaction from helping so many boys and girls.

In 1974 Shirley was asked to set up an Umpire School for girls softball, which she did. Her first class was 25 girls between the ages of 13 and 17. They started the season with 20 girl teams. Ray is also on the Springfield Township Recreation Commission.

Both Ray and Shirley have been given Kentucky Colonel’s plaques for their Volunteer work to youth.

The Doxseys are a very close knit family. They have always worked and played and worshiped together.

Ray and Shirley are the parents of five children: Raymond Joseph II (Joe), Cheryl Lee, Douglas Allan, Carol Jeanne, and Timothy Ernest Doxsey.

He lived on a farm near Kerby and attended the Lytle School until he was nine years of age. At that time his parents moved to Wilmore, Kentucky where Bob attended school. He graduated from Wilmore High School May 25, 1955.

In 1949 his father was assigned the Methodist church in Fullerton, Kentucky as pastor. Bob was not happy with the move and choose to go back to Wilmore in 1951. He lived with his grandmother, Catherine Harris, who had sold her farm in Michigan and had moved to Wilmore. He started Asbury College in the fall, and soon dropped out. He decided to go to work in Cincinnati at Tool Steel Gear and Pinion where he soon was the youngest man on the largest machine. Progress was constant for Bob. Before long he had worked on most machines in the plant. As the Plant grew so did his responsibilities. He attended several seminars as well as he took two years of College training at the University of Cincinnati while on the job. The then became foreman.

In 1975 Cincinnati Tool & Steel built a new division for the manufacturing of crane wheels for the steel industry and Bob was named Division Manager.

Bob and Peggy Small were married February 11, 1956 by the Reverend Funk. They were married in the Methodist parsonage in Covington, Kentucky.

Peggy was born at home in Crayton, Kentucky. She attended school at Barterville, (1-3): Headquarters, (4-8) and graduated from Nicholas County High School in 1954. She attended Asbury College one and one quarter year. She is a very talented young woman. She is a beautiful singer and pianist, homemaker and wife. Peggy and Bob are both active in the Trinity United Methodist Church near Milford, Ohio. Bob has held the position of Finance chairman, and Administrative Board Chairman, also Adult Coordinator for Trinity church. Peggy has served on the Board of Trustees and sang in the choir.

They have a beautiful tri-level home, with many beautiful trees on small acreage near Milford. Their property boarders a wild life sanctuary at the back. The song birds are legion. They enjoy gardening, and always have a beautiful garden. Their family enjoys cook-out’s together as well as fishing. Last summer they spent their vacation on a river boat.

Bob is 6 ft. 4 in. tall. He and Peggy are the parents of three children: Jacqueline Lee, Thomas Leroy and Richard Dean Harris. They are an exceptionally good-looking family.

Carol Jeanne Harris was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. She lived on a farm near Kerby with her family until she was five years of age. At that time they moved to Wilmore, Kentucky, where she attended school. In 1951 her father was assigned as pastor of the Methodist church in Pulerton, Kentucky, and then to the Trinity church in Manchester, Ohio, finally coming back to Michigan in 1954 to serve the Methodist Church in Byron. Carol made new friends each time they moved.

She was a lover of music and played the piano and accordion. She also played trombone in the school band for five years and held first chair and sectional leader the last two years. She had part in both the Junior and Senior play and served on the Student Council and was a member of Future Home Makers of America and Future Business Leaders of America. She was majoring in commercial work. Carol was active in school and church activities. She was secretary of both the Senior MYF and her local church, the Reverend Kenneth L. Harris, as he visited various rest homes, they looked forward to their visits.

Carol was killed instantly on Wednesday afternoon, 15 April 1959, as she followed her fiancé, Larry Smith also of Byron, in his car. He was driving a truck delivering some farm equipment to Lake Odessa and later planned to return to Byron in his car with Carol. The accident happened one mile east of Perry on the Britton road at 3:57 p.m. at a grade crossing on a country road between Morrice and Perry. They had left right after school had been dismissed. Larry cleared the tracks but Carol did not. She was struck by a fast moving passenger train. Larry's 1953 two-door sedan was split in two by a double-header diesel locomotive pulling passenger train No. 17. Carol was thrown out, but sustained a broken neck, and died instantly.

The Engineer, Gleason Powell, of Battle Creek told State Police Officer P. A. Martin that the truck and the car crossed the tracks close together heading west. He said he thought at first his engine would hit the truck. The crossing protected only said he could not tell whether or not either vehicle had come to a stop. (It was however they were moved almost immediately.) Sections of the car were found more travelling from Port Huron to Chicago.

Her funeral was held Saturday, 18 April, in the Byron Methodist Church. The Reverend Hugh Townley, pastor of the Ames Methodist Church, Saginaw, and the Reverend William Combs of Vernon officiated. Burial was in Middlebury Cemetery.

Carol and Larry had been classmates for five years, and would have graduated together in June. They had announced their engagement in March. Larry witnessed the accident in his rear-view mirror and had a very difficult time for some time.

Carol was a pretty girl with a ready smile, and a pleasing personality. She had a host of friends. In her memory the Byron Methodist church built a new Church Bulletin Board on the street side of the church with her name and the date on it with the Scripture: "Blessed are the pure in heart." from St. Matthew 5:8.
Allan Clyde Harris was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He weighed 8 lbs. 5 oz. at birth and was delivered by Dr. Arnold, M. D. of Owosso. When he was one year of age his parents moved to Wilmore, Kentucky, where his father began attending Ashbury College. By the time Allan was ready for school his father had been assigned to the Methodist church in Fullerton, Kentucky where Allan attended school K-2. His father was next assigned as the pastor of the Trinity Methodist church in Manchester, Ohio, where Allan attended the third grade. Here his father graduated from Hamma Divinity School in Springfield, Ohio. After graduation they moved back to Michigan. Here Allan attended school K-8. His father was next assigned as pastor of the Methodist church in Byron, Michigan. Here Allan attended school grades 4-12. He graduated from Byron High School on Thursday evening, June 6, 1963. He then attended Flint Junior College for two years where he studied to become a Millwright through General Motors.

In July 1965 he and Carol Douglas of Cincinnati, Ohio, were united in marriage. They were married in the Cincinnati Church of God by her pastor, Reverend Danny Drake. Carol's sister Claudia Douglas was her maid of honor, the best man was William Martin. Cheryl Doxsey, age six, niece of the groom was the flower girl and Jeffery Harris, age seven, brother of the groom was the ring bearer. They were married just ten months after they were introduced.

Carol lived in Cincinnati all her life before her marriage. She graduated from Western Hills High School in 1963. Among others the Schools 'Hall of Fame' claims Doris Day, of the Theater and T. V. fame and Pete Rose of the Baseball world. Allan is employed as a Millwright at Buick Motors Corporation, Flint, Michigan. And with his wife and family they live in Davison where they are very active members of the Bethel Assembly of God Church. He is in charge of the maintenance and care of the buses. He also has a Sunday route. He played the Cornet in school 5-11 grades and also plays in the church orchestra. Carol is a 'singing evangelist' for the buses, taking a different bus each Sunday. She plays her accordion and sings for the children on the bus, as well as with them. She has a lovely voice and plays both the piano and organ, and is currently taking piano lessons. She is a wonderful mother, spending much time with her children, as well as working in school as a volunteer mother aide. In church she works as a Sunday School teacher and special children's worker.

Shortly after their marriage they bought a small house on the outskirts of Davison. Since then they have added a sizable addition and a two car garage. It is a lovely and adequate home for them now as their children are growing. Allan is very mechanical and works well with his hands. He is very much like his father, a 'Mr. Fix-it.' As neither of them are afraid to take things apart and find the trouble and put it back together again in good working order.

Allan and Carol are the parents of three children: Allan Clyde, II, Carol Annette, and Melissa Kay Harris.

Debra Harris was born in Portsmouth, Ohio. She weighed 8 lbs. 9 oz. and was delivered by Dr. Scaggs, M.D. of Portsmouth. She was born while her parents were ministering in Manchester, Ohio, and at the age of a year and a half moved with them to Byron, Michigan. She attended Public school in Byron from Kindergarten through the first semester of the ninth grade, then the next two and a half years at Grass Lake High, finishing her Senior year at Cross-Lex High near Lexington. She was a member of the National Honor Society in her Junior and Senior years.

Debbie always enjoyed music. She played the Flute in the school band from the fifth grade through her Freshman year in College. She also played accordion and piano. She tried out several musical instruments through the years and continues to enjoy playing piano and guitar at her own leisure and with friends. In her younger days she couldn’t understand why her friends complained because they had to practice. She thought "practicing was fun."

Debbie attended Taylor University, in Upland, Indiana for two years, then transferred to Eastern Michigan University at Ypsilanti where she earned her B. S. Degree in Social Work in April of 1974.

She spent the next year and a half working as a secretary at the University of Michigan, Child Development Project, a innovative program in 'preventive' or 'infant mental health'.

On March 29, 1975 she married Mehrdad Ahmadi (Mo), a young University of Michigan engineering student from Tehran, Iran, who had recently embraced Christianity. Her father baptised him on Palm Sunday in the Lexington United Methodist Church. They were married by her father, the Reverend Kenneth L. Harris. He was assisted by her uncle, the Reverend Albert E. Hartoog. They were married for one year and then separated. Their divorce was final in November 1976.

In January 1976 she began work on her Masters Degree in Social Work at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. She plans to finish her degree in May 1977. Her immediate plans after graduation are to travel out West and enjoy some of the natural beauty of our country.
Jeffery Harris was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He weighed 6 lbs. and was delivered by Dr. J. H. Graves, M.D., of Owosso. He was born while his parents were pastoring the Byron Methodist Church. They moved to Grass Lake when he was eight years of age where he attended school (3-8). When he was eleven they moved to Lexington where he attends Cros-Lex High School and the Sanilac County Career Center where he is studying auto mechanics and body work. He will graduate in June 1977.

Jeff was handicapped during his first eight years of school by a visual perceptual disability diagnosed as dyslexia. Since neither side of his brain was dominant, he frequently saw in reverse, or started pronouncing words midway rather than in the beginning or ending syllables. Pupil movement was erratic and he could not easily follow a line across the page when reading. After many years of special tutoring, physical therapy, eye exercises and special glasses, results finally surfaced in the eighth grade and in a matter of six weeks he was reading well and able to function normally in the classroom. And now in his Senior year his marks are above average.

He plays the Baritone in the school band and has been a faithful member of it since his fifth grade. This has meant many happy occasions since the Cros-Lex Band has a high rating and has made many interesting trips, including Virginia Beach, Va.; The J. L. Hudson parade; Sarnia, Canada, etc.

Jeff has a ready smile. He has a real love for his family, he has a host of friends, and people of all ages enjoy having him around. He is kind to animals and has taken unusually good care of his own pets. His school report says: "Jeff shows great promise," and "he adds to class discussions." He is ambitious and is booked heavy all summer doing lawns and other odd jobs for his customers in Lexington.

I. Vera Furnish, as the third daughter born to Clyde and Viola (Ostrander) Furnish. I was born at 12:15 P. M. on Friday, 16 May 1919 and weighed 8½ lbs. Mother had semi Dad for the nurse, or midwife, Mrs. Nellie Pannaman, in the morning; which was a good idea as I told I arrived just before Dr. Johnstone, K. D. did.

The farm was known as the Holstonia farm and was located on the Lemon road near Garrison road. When I was one year of age my parents moved west about a mile onto the Wm. Wallace Moore farm on the Garrison road. This farm consisted of 160 acres, but the part I grew to love the most was the 16 room house. When I became old enough my father taught me how to cultivate, with horses of course, and also had the job of driving the horses on the hay wagon. I too drove the horses on the hay rope that pulled the slings or hay forks full of hay up into the barn.

I attended the Lemon School, (1-8); Corunna High School, (9-10); and Perry High (11-12) graduating from Perry High on Thursday evening, 10 July 1937 in the Roosevelt Auditorium. Part of both my Freshman and Sophomore years I worked for my room and board at Margaret and Doug Hills in Corunna. (We lived five miles from town and there was no one I could ride with living out our way, so I had to stay in town.) The last half of my 10th grade Dorothea and Margaret Bohumsky, both Juniors, and I lived in a light housekeeping apartment. Then that March my parents moved to Antrim Twp., so my Junior and Senior years I was able to live at home and ride back and forth daily.

Immediately after graduation I went to work for friends of my parents who were expecting their eighth child. Their oldest child was under ten. So that meant I had to do most of the cooking, dishes, washing, ironing and cleaning for a family of nine plus for myself, for $5.00 a week.

I had received my engagement ring in March from Vincent Harris. He was working in Detroit, and living in a boarding house, and came home on the week-ends. After a couple of weeks he convinced me that I was worth much more to him than $5.00 a week and I wouldn’t have to work nearly as hard. So we set our date and made our plans.

Vincent and I were married in Auburn, Indiana. Phyllis Lochner, my cousin from Auburn was my attendant and Paul Bulanick, a friend of Vin’s was best man. After the ceremony we visited my Aunt Adella and Uncle Pete Lochner and then came back to Detroit where we set up housekeeping. We had been married by the Reverend G. LeVan Fisher, pastor of the Church of Christ. We were married in the parsonage.

Vincent Harris was born in Shiawassee Co., Antrim Twp., on the Braden road, east of Nohal road. He was delivered by Dr. Shaw, M. D. of Morrice for the sum of $7.00. He attended Gallagher School Fractional District No. 4 (Antrim & Conway Twp.).
He started high school in Fowlerville then changed and went to Morrice High, graduating in June of 1933. He played the guitar in the school band and earned his 'Orange & Black' letter "W" in football. He gave the "Welcome to Seniors," his Junior year at the Jr. and Sr. Banquet. Because of the 'depression' his class didn't have enough funds to pay an outside speaker for a graduation address so the class took it upon themselves and had class participation. Vin gave a talk on "The Farm Mortgage Plan."

After graduation he went to work for $.50 a week and his room and board, helping with the harvesting of crops as well as other farm work. Just before his 18th birthday, (he graduated at age 17) he went to work in Detroit at the Chevrolet Gear & Axle & Forge. He worked there for 13 years. He had worked his way up from assembly line to maintenance. He quit the factory and went to work as a bricklayer and worked in this capacity the rest of his life. In March of 1948 he went into business for himself. For a short while he had a partner; but then bought him out and worked for himself until June 1961.

He had hoped, with three sons, some day to establish a business: "Vincent B. Harris & Sons." But by now his sons had all decided that they wanted no part of it; so he decided to relieve himself from some of the responsibility and work for someone else for a change.

One of his first jobs fulfilled a dream. Six men were asked to go, from the local, to New York and work on a skyscraper. This was one of the greatest working experiences he ever had. On his own he had done both residential and commercial also churches, but a skyscraper was something else!

At the time of his death he was foreman on the new Ramada Inn being built at 300 Enterprise Dr. (just off Oakwood, east of Southfield.) He was working for Jack Barron Construction Co., Pontiac, Michigan.

Vin and I had celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary with Open House and then left for a fishing trip to Chapleau, Canada. We took our youngest son, Dan, with us as well as friends, Lois and Irvin Kaufman and their son Bob. We had an enjoyable time. The fellows caught their limit of pike each day, and threw many back. Vin loved to fish and hunt. One of our favorite places to fish was at "Taylor & Hawks" camp between Lachine and Hillman. He taught his boys how to handle a gun and took then hunting with him for the first time or two.

All of our married life Vin had talked about going West. He especially wanted to visit Oregon. His great-uncle, Frank Harris, had lived there and each time he came back to visit whetted his appetite more and more to someday go out there. Finally we decided to plan for the first three weeks in September, 1966. We first bought a new Chevrolet Custom 3/4 ton truck with camper mounted, in April, and then spent the next few months studying road maps and planning our route etc.

Finally our day arrived and we left Troy and drove to Ludington where we boarded The La Shanty and left for a fishing trip through the Baja Horns. We stopped in Pullman, Washington to visit some friends. Here the men folk took Vin trout fishing on Medical Lake. He came back laughing and said he had never had so much fun in his life fishing. But—something had hurt him on the wrist. It was reddened and a little swollen. We applied First Aid and in a few days it had healed. We visited friends in Sunnyvale, Washington, and went on to Seattle. Here friends took us to the Space Needle, left from the World's Fair. It was here that I first noticed that Vin wasn't weathering the trip as well as I was. He seemed to tire easily. (He had never been seriously ill since we were married. And as a boy only when he had been bitten by a rattlesnake.) He was rugged and so strong. He was 6 ft. 1 in. tall and weighed around 220 lbs. We thought perhaps it was the high altitude that was slowing him down.

We next stopped at Crater Lake and Sequoia National Park then started for home. After we left Bakersfield, California, he made the remark: "Well, I've seen all the mountains, craters and canyons I want to see, I just want to go home now." He did, however, stop to see the Petrified Forest.

He started to complain of his legs cramping him. I drove more and he slept more and more. (Which I guess is typical, somehow, husbands trust their wife's driving more after they leave the mountains!) We arrived home on Thursday afternoon on the 6th of Sept. (Incidentally we left earlier than we had planned to because we were advised in going so late we might have trouble getting through the Northern Passes.) On Saturday he helped Irvin Kauffman stake out a basement for their new house, then got his hair cut and spent the afternoon making coffee for our neighbors and friends, telling them all about our trip around the picnic table. When asked how he liked the new camper he replied: "Great, just like two kids in a doll house!" He gave everyone a big red delicious apple we had picked in the Yakima Valley, while visiting our friends, June and Debbie Hornaday in Sunnyside, Washington. He seemed to be feeling great!

He worked on Monday and Tuesday but both nights complained of being so tired and his legs seemed to be so weak. His expression when he called me at work was, "I'm so tired I don't think a chair will hold me." On Wednesday he stayed home from work, his temperature was slightly elevated, I called the doctor and he had me pick up two prescriptions at the Drug Store. He thought, as Vin did, that he was coming down with the flu.

Against my wishes Vin insisted that I go to work that day. He said: "I'll be okay, I'll stay in bed and take my medicine." Our next door neighbor offered to check in on him every couple of hours and said she would call me if there was any change. So I went to work only to be called by our second son, Rod, saying he had come over to see his Dad and found him disoriented and had called the ambulance and was having him brought into Emergency. Needless to say I was shocked, but met them in Emergency. Dr. Sullivan had been called. He checked his over and still said he thought it was the flu but would admit him for the night. He nor Vin could see no need for me spending the night, so I left a little after midnight only to be called by Dr. Sullivan early in the morning asking me to come in.

When I arrived I found him extremely diaphoretic, his pulse was so rapid I could not count it accurately; he was disoriented at times. The doctor said he couldn't understand why none of the medicine he had given him had taken hold? He had him moved to a medical floor where his regression was rapid. I was privileged to be allowed to stay and suddenly I remembered the bite on the wrist! (Which later proved to be the villain.) I discussed this with the doctor and further medication was given. But about midnight he laid over in my arms and died. I was told that the spinal fluid had checked out with a positive 'viral encephalitis.' I was also told: had it been bacterial encephalitis instead of viral the medication would have worked.

His funeral was on Monday, 17 October 1966, at 1:30 P.M. from the Big Beaver Methodist Church where we both were members. The Reverend Paul F. Elosquist, pastor and the Reverend Albert E. Hartong, our former pastor of six years, officiated.

Burial was in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy, in the "Garden of the Resurrection" section.

VIN was a member of Local 29, Bricklayers, Masons, Plasters Union, Pontiac. He was a member of the Official Board of the Big Beaver Methodist Church where he had also taught the Adult Sunday School Class.

To this union three sons were born: David Dale, Rodney Gene and Daniel Merle Harris. Vin also had two brothers: Merle Wayne, older than he, and Frank Eugene Harris, younger than he. He had six grandchildren, and loved each of them dearly. He was extremely happy when David and Ronnie named their baby boy after him.
I had never thought of becoming a widow. Vin had often said jokingly: "I come from a line of 'long livers' and I expect to live to be at least 90 myself." (He did have several ancestors who had!) But he died two days after his 51st Birthday.

It now seemed providential that I had been urged by some nurse friends, as well as by Vin, to take L. P. N. training. I had graduated from McAuley School of Practical Nursing at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, in March of 1961 and had been hired full time by the hospital afterwards. I continued to work which seemed good for me. Yet strangely enough the most difficult patient I think I ever cared for was my first patient - my first day back to work after Vin's funeral.

In report our little Nun, Sister Mary Anastasia, had informed me that I would be in Intensive Care alone until 5 o'clock when the R. N. would arrive. She stated that there was no one in there at the moment but shortly I would be getting two patients from surgery with tracheotomy's. They soon arrived and after connecting all the tubes and the respirators and checking the vital signs I checked the face sheet to see what the diagnosis on my first patient was? I was shocked to see the words "Viral Encephalitis". Needless to say it was a little rough as I couldn't help but relive the last day of Vin's life, however, they did not do a tracheotomy on him. And for some unknown reason we ended up with five cases in St. Joseph's. All died but my first patient.

I continued to work and kept involved in the church and with family and friends. Vin and I had had such a good marriage, we were sweethearts all our married life together, and I even found his love sustaining me after death. I couldn’t imaging myself dating another man, even though my pastor and my father thought I should. They thought I was too young to live alone and had too much to offer. One morning after a counseling session with my pastor I came home and knelt by my bedside and told the Lord what kind of a man I thought I could be happy with and then asked Him: "If you know of any such man that I could be happy with, You will have to get us together, because I am not going man hunting!" And that was the end of it as far as I was concerned. Some time later one morning the phone rang and I heard a familiar voice say: "This is Al Hartoog, and I'm wondering what you are doing on your next day off?" My quick reply was: "I am working on election." He said, "Oh, that is just a local election, you won't be late; I was going to take you out to dinner, but in that case I'll take you for a sandwich, I need to talk with someone.

Al had lost his wife Jeannette, 1 February 1969. She was ill for six years, however, she had had some long remissions, with cancer.

I knew he was someone Vin would approve of; as he thought the world of him. He often came home from a board meeting with remarks like: "That Al Hartoog, he's sure of his kind of guy; or he is the salt of the earth kind of guy; or he's a diamond in the rough." And likewise I have heard Al say: "Boy if I had more men like Vin Harris on the board!" In fact Vin knew him much better than I did. I saw him on Sunday morning at Worship, and as he walked through his office into the chancel for the second morning service, as I taught a Sunday School Class in his office. Besides I worked afternoons full time so I was not in on any night activities at the church.

Our relationship grew stronger and on the 25th of February 1970 Al asked me to marry him. After I accepted his proposal I learned that he had asked my eldest son, David, for permission to marry me, which I guess Dave was pleased that he asked him, and happy to give his consent. Besides Al was everything I had asked the Lord for in my early prayer except for one small detail. He was not 6ft. tall! He was 5ft. 9½ in. Which was a very small thing. The Lord had been very good to me.

Kiddingly Al tells people that the only reason he asked me to marry him was because my sister, Marion, is married to a United Methodist minister and he figured I would know what I was getting in too!"
It was true, I did know a little about life in the parsonage; but visiting the parsonage is quite different from living in it! I had accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour at age 20 and shortly after that both Vin and I had dedicated our lives to Him, so we both had been a vital part of the church most of our married lives. And had enjoyed good fellowship with our pastor and his family each time.

There are many drawbacks to living in the parsonage but the blessings far out weigh the drawbacks. The rewards cannot be measured in dollars and cents. I have taught Sunday School since 1947; my first class being a class of twelve year old girls. For several years I taught High School; grades 9-12. Many of these young people have been a real blessing to me. Several are ministers today. Some are teachers, I believe at least two are doctors, some are nurses etc. etc. Their notes at Christmas time are so appreciated. For the last five years I have taught the married class with ages ranging approximately 40-60. This is an interesting class too, but their vocations were established long ago; so their interests are much different.

son of: Abraham Adriaan & Fenna (Fannie) Aleida (Brunsting) Hartoog

Al and I were married in the Big Beaver Methodist Church with the Reverend Paul F. Blomquist, now my former pastor, and the Reverend Michael Grajcar, my pastor, officiating at our wedding ceremony. There were 297 guests that signed our guest book at the reception that followed in the undercroft of the church. We took a honeymoon trip to the Upper Peninsula where as a wedding gift we were given the use of a lovely cottage at Cederville, right on Lake Huron, for two weeks. This friend had also made our wedding cake, which was a white fruit cake, it was most delicious.

Al was born in Kalamazoo, Michigan. He is of Holland descent. He lived in Detroit most of his growing up years. He has his B. A. Degree from Wayne State University, and his B. D. from Garrett Theological Seminary, and his M. A. from Northwestern University, both located in Evanston, Illinois. He was ordained as a minister of the Methodist Church in June 1946 by Bishop Raymond Wade. He has always been assigned to churches in the metropolitan Detroit area until he was assigned to his present charge at Elkton two years ago last June.

Al and his first wife Claudia Jeanette Abel were the parents of two children: Mark and Judith Rae Hartoog. Mark has his Ph D in Astronomy and has a position with the University of California, connected with Lick Observatory. Judy is married to Andrew J. Alexander, they live in Flint. Judy has her Masters Degree in Social Work Research and is employed by the City of Flint. Andy is in the restaurant management business.
David Dale Harris was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan, 23 August 1939, at 2:10 A.M., Wednesday; weighed 8 lbs 3 oz. and was 20 in. long. He was delivered by Dr. William F. Weinkauf, M.D., of Corunna. (Hospital Ward $3.50 per day then.)

David Dale was the name my father had picked out for my youngest sister, Genevieve, had she been a boy. We liked the name and thought we would please my Dad by using the name he had picked for a son. Of course he was hoping for another David Furnish but was happy to settle for a David Harris instead. I will always remember the afternoon Dad came to the hospital to see me and I told him what we had named the baby and how he became all choked up with emotion; he was so pleased.

He was a very special grandson not only to my parents but to Vin's parents as well as he was born on their 28th wedding anniversary and was their first grandchild. (My parents had a granddaughter and a grandson older than David.)

The reason David was born in Owosso was because Chevrolet had shut the plant down for inventory and we were living in furnished rooms at the time and had decided to rent a flat after our baby was born and start buying our own furniture. So we went to the country, for the lay-off period, and stayed with my sister and brother-in-law, Marion and Kenneth Harris who were farmers at the time, until Vin was called back to work. My stay was much longer than we had anticipated as David arrived a month later than was expected. Vin was called back to work and stayed with friends and found us a flat to live in.

My labor was long and exhausting but so gradual that I did not realize my condition until my doctor came in to check on me. After a short examination he hurried to the Nurse's Station, which was near by, and I heard him reprimanding the nurse in charge for neglecting me, and ordered me into the delivery room immediately and then made the statement: "She is so far gone now I don't know if I can save her or the baby!" That bit of news, which I am sure I was not supposed to hear, was shocking to me and even more so since I had made no preparation for death! In a few minutes I prayed the 'sinner's prayer' and promised the Lord I would live for Him and dedicate my baby to Him if He would spare our lives. I was sincere and really meant what I had prayed and the Lord blessed us as the next thing I remember is the doctor saying to me, "Vera, you have a fine healthy baby boy." And aside from an instrument mark on his forehead he was a beautiful child with long black hair.

When David was two weeks old I kept my vow and when the invitation was given that Communion Sunday morning I went with the other communants and knelt at the altar for prayer with the others who were there to receive Holy Communion. I have often said I knew what John Bunyan meant in his "Pilgrim's Progress" when he said "the pack fell off his back." That was exactly my reaction. At that moment by life was changed, and not of my own doing, it was the grace of God alone, I was only the vessel. I have counted it a privilege and a joy to live these thirty-seven years a life in service to Him.

The following week-end we moved back to Detroit and moved into the upper flat in a two family dwelling at 19983 Yacama. The people below were Scottish and were friendly. Their daughter, Betty, was David's first babysitter. It was while living here that David became an early 'streaker'. I had left him in the bathroom 'occupied' for a moment while I ran the garbage down the back stairs to the alley one afternoon. As I was turning the corner I saw David running down the street in front of the apartment building. I didn't have time to call out to him so I just kept running down the street after him. We were both a bit of a shock to the neighbours.
was hurrying up the stairs I could hear laughter out in front, and wondered what was so funny? Well, to my amusement, David was no where to be found upstairs. So I hurried down the front stairs only to find him dancing around naked on the front lawn. He was only two years old at the time. He must have taken off down the front stairs at the same time I went down the back!

Another time I had just baked and iced a chocolate cake and left it on the cupboard while I ran the garbage down again. He was busy playing in the living room. When I came back I discovered he had dragged a chair over to the cupboard and had eaten a couple of fists full of cake. He looked up at me and said "do e Mama." I didn't scold him as I was reminded of a similar incident told about me when I was small. My mother as I was reminded of a similar incident told about me when I was small. My mother being a little girl, my mom had tried to keep me out of the kitchen and had eaten the had partly hid me. I had carried a blackberry pie under the table and had eaten the center out of it. I had pie all over my face and hands as well as my clean dress. Mother had just cleaned me up for when the men came in for dinner! I looked up at her and said: "pie Mama pie." So how could I scold David?

When he was a toddler he would sit on the floor and bump his head on the floor between his legs. My mother was afraid he would injure himself so one day when she was caring for him, and he did that, she bumped his head just a little harder than he was doing it. It hurt, but he never did it again, literally that is!

When he was two and a half years old we moved to the Township of Troy; now the City of Troy. We had bought a six room and had two story house unfinished. Vin and I both felt the country was the best place to rear children, since we were both farms kids. We weren't there too many years before we began to wonder. David loved animals that weren't his to keep just because they were friendly and followed him home.

And then there was the unforgettable night when Vin's brother was home on leave from the Army and was visiting us. We had an invitation to a wedding and a reception in the Navy and was visiting us. We had an invitation to a wedding and a reception in Highland Park and wanted to attend. Frank told us to go ahead that he would be glad to stay with the three boys. It was a 6 o'clock wedding. and David was 9 years old. David said he didn't know how to pilot a plane but Johnny did and he was going to teach him! I could not believe what I was hearing!
I have told my children that someday I am going to write a book and call it "My Three Sons!" But now I think I will stop with this.

In Detroit we began attending Thoburn Methodist church which then was at the cor-

I moved in the services. The Reverend William Schlitts, pastor, officiated.
The Nursery Dept. of the Sunday School was enrolled there through the 8th grade. E David was enrolled by and so now the children stayed in the church. The Reverend James H. James was our first minister; John Grenfell, Sr., S. S. Supt.; and Mary Stevenson, Nursery Dept., Supt.
He loved to look at their display of souvenirs and artifacts.

He started Kindergarten in the Big Beaver Methodist church as the school was fast becoming crowded and they were using the church at the time. About three years later the church burned just one hour after the 49 kindergarteners had been disassembled. Then attended Big Beaver Elementary, which was built in 1919, and the old High school was now attached to the elementary and so now the children stayed in High School before he had completed the 10th grade.

He had his first car when he was 16. It was an early 1940 Ford convertible with skirts on the fenders etc. He started working for his father as a laborer and became a good cement finisher, but he disliked the work very much. He finally found his nitch in working with heavy equipment.

David taught the boys how to handle and use a gun correctly and took them hunting.

One day we were hunting in an old logging camp and came upon a little shed. Fresh hay had been put there and there were fresh horse tracks too!! Later we were talking with some local hunters who told us the horses were left over from the time when someone kept feed for them in the shed. Well, David hunted more for horses than he did for deer. I'm not sure what he had in mind, but I think he dreamed of bringing a horse home with him; even though we did not own enough property to keep one, and were zoned against such.

David liked to fish and we took him with us until he felt he was too old to go with us anymore. Our favorite place was called "Taylor & Haws Camp", near Lachine and Millin in Alpena County. We had at least three happy family vacations there and had good luck fishing as well.

When David was nine years of age we had given him a purebred Irish Setter puppy.
She was six months old at the time. He named her "Penny". She was a beautiful dog, and truly a boy's best friend. She met David after school and was there when he left.
She lived to be ten years old and even then was seen to wait for David to come home before she could die. When he came home that night he petted her and talked to her and after a few minutes she laid her head over and was gone. The next day the three boys took her out under the apple trees and wrapped her in a pink satin quilted bedspread and carefully buried her in a straw lined grave, then poured a cement marker with the word "Penny" scratched on top. The whole family loved her. Her first litter was 13.

David has most of his life been a nonconformist and is always looking for "the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow." He even took up scuba diving and got maps that showed him where ships have sunk in the Great Lakes and was going to strike it rich.

(Bridge) he ran out of air. He was fortunate to be able to surface and to come up by one of the piers and was rescued. That experience ended his scuba diving and their trumpets for the day was a few tools etc that had been dropped when the bridge was being built.

David has a good personality; a laugh that is contagious; well liked and is fun to be with. He seems to enjoy nothing more than having coffee with the fellows at the local coffee shops.

When we first moved to Troy there was a place called "Salt Water Pool." It was located on Rochester road at 18-mile road. We took the children there often when they were smaller as well as to the lake to swim. Their father was a good swimmer and liked to play with the children in the water. I am the coward and like to dug my feet in when the 'horse play' begins.

It was at Salt Water Pool that David met 'Sue' Naevison when they were both 16. Sue was a 10th grader at Dondero High in Royal Oak and David a 10th grader at Troy High. When he started bringing her home for dinner we knew it was serious.

They were married in the Big Beaver Methodist Church at 3 p.m. by David's uncle, the Reverend Kenneth L. Harris and the Reverend Reginald Hocking, pastor of the church, who assisted. Lillian Wilson, friend of the bride and Gaylord Harrison friend of the groom were their attendants. David's friend, John Garlock, and his brother, Rodney Harris, seated the guests. A reception followed in the undercroft of the church.

To this union one daughter, Vicki Sue Harris was born. The marriage ended in divorce and after her mother remarried Vicki was adopted by her step-father, Gerald Hart.

Vincent Dale Harris was born in Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, Michigan. He weighed 8 lbs. and was born at 10 P. M. In September of that year when less than a year old his parents separated and his father was given custody of him. He lived in several foster homes and had many baby sitters then eventually David bought a small home in Troy and the two of them lived together. This did not work out and he went to live with his mother. But after six weeks, Ronnie called David's brother and his wife, Rod and Barb Harris, and asked them to come and get him. She said "He is miserable and is making everyone here miserable because he wants to live with you folks and nobody else." They went after him and were given Legal Custody.

Vincent is a handsome boy, very blond, with large blue eyes. He loves animals and enjoys putting models together.
The first time I saw Vincent after he came to live with Rod and Barb, and their already large family, I asked him if he was happy now? And he said: "I sure am Grandma, and I hope I never have to live any place else again." Then he said: "And do you know what else Grandma?" I said: "no, what?" He said: "I don't have to call Aunt Barb - Aunt Barb anymore; because she is my Mom now." "And I have two Dads!"

In my book Barbara is a very special daughter-in-law. Really she is more like a daughter. She already has seven children of her own. And has two boys near Vincent's age. One a little older and the other a little younger and so naturally there is sibling rivalry. And Vincent is not without emotional problems having had so many 'mothers' in his young life. So the adjustments are many for both. But the family is all trying to help Vincent; although at this age he thinks work is punishment.

This reminds me of my own parents. After my grandmother Ostrander was killed in a car accident in 1921; my parents took my mother's youngest sister and raised her. And then many years later they took a second cousin, whose mother had died and put her through high school. It seems the ones with the biggest families always have room for one more. I hope someday Vincent is as appreciative as my Aunt Ruth and my cousin Frances were.

Vincent attended Kindergarten at Andersonville, near Pontiac; Morris, (1-2); Johnson - Nyles, (3-5); and in the 6th grade at Bownan; all in Troy.

November 4, 1967—Vera Harris, Karon (Hollingsworth), Daniel and David Harris
Rodney Harris, Sr. was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He was delivered by Dr. William F. Weinkauf, M. D.; born at 8:43 P. M.; weighed 7 lbs. 12 oz. and was 21 in. long.

He was born in Owosso mostly because at this point I didn’t want to change doctors as he was just 19 months younger than his brother David. Delivery was much easier this time as he was born about 20 minutes after I was admitted to the hospital. A few days after he was born, however, he became jaundiced. This did not clear up until after we were back home in Detroit and Nettie Gillespie, the Scottish lady who lived in the flat below us, gave him an herb tea. He cleared up almost immediately.

When he was nine months old we moved to Troy Township, now the City of Troy, to an unfinished six room house. That winter Rodney developed pneumonia and the doctor wanted to admit him to the hospital. I asked if I might not take care of him at home. He agreed to let me take care of him overnight and said he would be out to check on him in the morning.

I made a tent with a sheet over his crib and funneled steam under it. I gave him his medication along with clear liquids in his bottle. I stayed up the whole night and worked and prayed and when the doctor arrived the next morning Rodney was sitting up in his bed playing. He had a bottle of weakened grape juice and the first thing Dr. Manning said when he saw him was “what is in that bottle?” I explained and reminded him that Rodney was allergic to orange juice and he seemed relieved. He made good progress and did not need to go to the hospital. But when he was ten years of age we weren’t as fortunate. I left him home too long, because he didn’t complain and kept saying he felt better. He didn’t have a high elevation of temperature either. We admitted him to the Helene Meinke Hospital in Hazel Park, 15 April 1951, where he remained for eight days. This time the pneumonia was more stubborn and even the penicillin didn’t bring the desired results so Chloromycetin was given. It cleared it up rapidly; without any side effects for which we are most grateful.

Rodney always seemed to be a happy child, with a ready smile and even temperament. He was cuddly as a baby and has always been affectionate. As a boy he was eager to give a helping hand. If I happened to be working outside when he came home from school raking leaves or whatever he would pick up the tools and help; and seemed to enjoy it. He liked to see the yard clean and neat. If I needed a helping hand in the house he would gladly help.

When Rod was born we were members of Thoburn Methodist Church in Detroit. He was Baptized on 25 April 1943 by the Reverend James H. James, pastor. He had been enrolled in the Nursery Department of the Sunday School on 4 January 1942. John Grenfell, Sr. (now the Reverend John Grenfell) was S. S. Supt., Mabel Stevenson was Supt. of the Nursery Dept. Both families became long lasting friends of ours.

In 1948 we decided to change churches and started attending the Ferndale Church of the Nazarenes; the Reverend Kenneth A. Hutchinson was the pastor. We had friends that attended there so it was easy for our children to adjust. It was during special meetings at Ferndale that Rod accepted Christ as his personal Saviour on 11 September 1949. He was eight years old. The evangelist was the Reverend Edward H. Ferguson. Rod re-remained active in church and S. S. all through high school and college then after he was married he and Barbara served as youth counselors for about three years.

Rod attended school at Big Beaver Elementary. Mrs. Husselman was his kindergarten teacher. The children at that time rode the Martin Lines public bus. Rod went to school with the older children, but he was the only one who got off the bus at noon so I met him the first day and the second. But when he saw me standing there and the bus door opened up he looked up at me with his big brown eyes and said: "you don't have to come and meet me I can do it myself!" He attended Baker Jr. High and Troy High School graduating in June 1959. That fall he was enrolled at Adrian College where he attended for one and one half years.

He always liked school and yet grew weary of it each May and by August he was eager for it to start.

Rod took an active part in school and earned his school letter "M" in basketball, football and track from high school and his "A" from college in track as a high jumper on the varsity team. He also served on the Student Council; Home Coming Committee; Prom Committee, Varsity Club and Courtesy Patrol.

He sang in the school choir from the 5th grade on always had a solo part. Miss Ruth Banford, music teacher was great help to him. When the Senior Choir was evaluated at Wayne State University they were each graded on five qualities. He received a high rating of "2" as an over-all average; and a note that read: "you have a lovely natural voice; don't let anyone spoil it!" The song he sang was "From Where You Are." For the graduation exercises he sang several solo parts with the choir as well as a solo and a duet with Irene Marcella. In college he sang in the choir and in a quartette.

Rod and Barbara had their first date when he asked her if he could take her home from a school dance their Junior year in high school. This led to a three courtship.

Barbara is 5 ft. 2 in. in height and Rod is 6 ft. 4 3/4 in. They were married in the Big Beaver Methodist church on 10 June 1960. The Reverend Ralph Janka, pastor of First Methodist and the Reverend Reginald Hocking, pastor of Big Beaver Methodist, both in Troy, officiated. Their attendants included Barbara's sister and brother-in-law, Melva and William Artman, as matron of honor and best man. David Harris, brother of the groom served as one of the ushers. A reception was held in the undercroft of the church.

Barbara was born in Pontiac, Michigan and has lived in the same area all of her life. She attended Poppleton School, (K-6); Baker Jr. High, (7-8) and Troy High School, (9-12). She sang both in Cleo Club and Choir in high school. She is a gal who wears many 'hats'. She has been a room mother many times; Den Mother, 2 yrs. When Troy organized a volunteer Probate Court for first offenders she was asked to help with the formation of it. She has been with it since its inception and was named first Director of Probate; a post she held for four years. At that time she asked to be relieved of her duties and was made Assistant Director(1976). She and Rod have both held various offices in PTSA and this year Barb was elected as Assistant District Director of NCPTA No. 7. She works as a Precinct Chairman on City elections. And as a hobby does custom cake baking and decorating. Her clever designs are much in demand.

One of the reasons Barbara is able to do so much outside the home is the fact that her parents property meets theirs at the creek that flows at the back of their property. The children have a well worn path to grand- and grandpa's house. As well as often they own to baby sit at the house. They seem to thrive on it; the children love them dearly but I in no way can compete with them as a P\G.

Another project that involves the whole family is Poppleton School. It is the only one-room brick school house left in Troy. It was 100 years old this year and Barbara served as chairperson in October for a combined effort to celebrate the birthday of the school along with the school's 1st Annual School Fair.
These projects help in raising funds for the Troy Historical Society to save the school. Barbara and her family have a natural interest since Barbara attended school at Poppleton as she is one of her seven children. She was a custodian for 30 years. He is now 78 but has continued to work relief since his retirement so now works in all the schools in the system. Of late he has worked more hours than the full time custodians have.

Rod, just completed his 15th year at Pontiac Motors, Pontiac, Michigan. He hired in on 25 November 1961. He has taken many courses since then to further his education. From General Motors Institute he has taken courses in: Industrial Writing, Industrial Economics, Psychology, Speed Reading, Production Material Processing, Shop Mathematics and Blueprint Reading. At Oakland Community College he took: Welding, Metallurgy, Machinist Handbook and Fluid Dynamics. He took all these courses from 1962 to 1964. His classification is Machine Repair Machinist.

He ran for School Board in 1969 for a four year term and was defeated by a narrow margin. He belongs to the Masonic Lodge, Troy 599.

When his father, Vincent Harris, died he did not have their house completely bricked. Some time later Rod picked up his Dad’s tools and finished the job. He did a beautiful job and since then his work has been in constant demand. He only is able to work at it on a part time basis, however, and does mostly fireplaces.

Barbara and Rod are both family people. They hold strong ties to parents as well as grandparents, sisters and brothers. They have many get-togethers with them. Barb was born 16 years after the rest of the family (3 brothers and 1 sister). So felt much like an only child. She loves children and warned us before they were married that she wanted seven! We didn’t believe her but they are the parents of seven youngsters and have taken in an eighth for good measure. On 31 May 1975 they took Vincent Dale Harris, Rod’s nephew, into their home to rear. They were given Legal Guardianship of him and are working hard with him. He has many problems from lack of a normal home life but is improving.

I would like to record a couple of humorous things that happened in Rod’s past:

One occurred on Sunday afternoon when he and his brother, David, were out playing with the neighbor children and Vin and I decided to take a nap when Danny took his. We were awakened by an airplane flying very low over the house which was quite annoying. Later that evening we found out that Rod and Dave were both in that plane along with a couple of other neighbor children. The four of them had pooled their money to save the scavenged pop bottles enough to make up the difference for the two dollars each they each needed for a ride. We would have been more than annoyed had we known who was in that plane!

Another time Vin and I had left the supper table hurriedly, to go and vote I think, and had asked the boys to clean up the table while we were gone. The next day I noted brown spots on the dinette walls and looking around discovered they were on the happened! They had picked up our tea bags and had twirled them! And to this day not needed for a ride. We would have been more than annoyed had we known who was in that plane.

When Rod was nine years old we were vacationing at Taylor Hawk’s Camp near Aplena and had left Rod on shore to watch Danny while we went fishing. When we came in after a short time Rod met us with a large pike. He had seen it by the dock and had dropped his bare hook and line down very carefully behind it’s Gill and had snagged it. Mr. Hawks was there to verify his story. He had done better on shore than we had out in a boat. He still enjoys fishing and has the patience it takes. He also enjoys moose hunting and goes up into Canada almost every season. He shot his first moose in 1974. Their seven children are: Rodney Gene, Jr., Elizabeth Ann, Timothy Michael, Peter Jon, Christopher Paul, Thomas Matthew and Joy Marie Harris.

   Elizabeth was a very early talker. When she was a baby they lived in a small house with a shower instead of a tub. So she and her brother Rodney enjoyed coming to our house and taking a bath. When she was 18 months old we decided to tear out the old fixtures in our bathroom and put in new ones. She came with her folks one morning and when she went into the bathroom and noticed everything was gone, she burst into tears. Her Grandpa went to see what was wrong, and she pointed her finger at him and said: "shame! shame! shame! you tore it all apart!" The only way he could console her was to show her the new fixtures and tell her he was going to make it all pretty again.

   She has always had an assortment of animals. She has a black long haired cat she calls Tiger that has had 15 litters of kittens. She also has an European White which has blue eyes. She also has a German Shepherd dog named "Princess" and two ponies; "Paco" a Shetland/Arabian and "Cing" a Brown Welch. Of course she cons her brothers into helping her feed and care for them. She attended school at: Poppleton, (K-5) and has been at Boulan now for 6-8.

Thomas Harris was born in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, Michigan. He was and weighed 7 lbs. The night Tom was born I was working on the same floor; in the Coronary Care Unit.

There is an emergency door between our Unit and Delivery; so we always knew when a baby was about to be born and listened for it's cry. But that night when we heard the doctor scrubbing we had no idea it was Barbara about to deliver. Always before they had let me know when she went in to the hospital, but this time they didn't call me. After the baby was born and Barbara was back in recovery my son Bob called and said, "Mother, how would you like to come over and see your new grand son?" It was time for my break so I wasn't long going over to see them. Tom was fine but his mother was having problems for the first time with hemorrhaging; so they kept her in recovery for some time.
He has attended Poppleton School, (K-2). He at this stage in life looks like he might be the carpenter in the family. He likes to work with wood, hammer and nails.
He is fond of animals, and of course, numerous cats and dogs.

She was named correctly. She is a happy little girl and has brought much joy to the whole family. Even her cousin, Vincent, says he loves her best of all. She is waiting for the children when the bus drops them off from school and as each one comes in there is a "hi," for mother but hugs and kisses from all for Joy. And she acts as if they all came home just to see her! She has a kitten she loves, but also likes to ride on the horses.

Daniel Harris was born at 10:25 A. M. in the Helene Meinke Hospital, 617 E. Eight Mile Rd., Hazel Park, Michigan. He weighed 8 lbs. 9 oz. and was 20 3/4 in long. He was delivered by Dr. Herman Meinke, M. D. His grandmother, Bertha Harris, was a practical nurse at the hospital and gave him his first bath. He was named by his father and his Aunt Anny Harris, after his grandfather and his uncle.

Dan started school at Big Beaver with Mrs. Burgess as his first teacher then part of the class was transferred to the Log Cabin School where he had Mrs Wiggins for his teacher. He attended Big Beaver, (1-4); Kerse, (5-6); Baker Jr. High, (7-8); Troy High, (10-11); and Ionia High, (12) graduating in 1966.

When Dan had his pre-school examination it revealed a visual problem. Further testing showed 20/30 vision in the right eye and 20/50 in the left. He had always been a very busy and restless child with short interest span. We were told this was partly due to the short time he was able to hold a focus. He was fitted with glasses and made steady progress. He still wears glasses but mostly for eye strain.

As a toddler Dan was forever wandering off. He could be out of sight so quickly it was frightening to the whole family. He would be with you then suddenly he had disappeared! Frequently we found him riding his tricycle down Rochester Road.

One time two of my neighbor women were keeping an eye on him while I was home baking his birthday cake. He was playing in the yard with the other children, and told them he was going home. Well he didn't come home and we hunted for two hours for him. Finally a neighbor girl who lived on Rochester road came bringing him home. He was all mud and crying. Her mother had heard him crying and went out in back to investigate and found him literally 'stuck in the mud'. She pried him loose and sent her daughter home with him. This was his third birthday. After he blew out the candles on his cake he said, "get another match mama that was fun!"

Another time we had gone to Ferndale to church on Sunday evening and had decided to leave the children home with a baby sitter. Well, church services had just begun when I was called to the phone and heard a familiar voice say: "Aunt Vera, you had better come right home because Danny is gone!" I said: "What do you mean by gone?" I was somewhat relieved when she said, "we don't know; we can't find him any place." Just as we arrived home, Mr. Laughton from across the street drove up with him. And then the story came out. As soon as we left, Mickey called Carolyn and while they were chatting, and David and Rodney were watching television, Danny decided to follow us. But neighbors on 15-mile road saw him with only his training pants and a hairbrush on paddling down the pavement barefoot and crying. They went out and picked him up and carried him into the house and called the police. They were not sure who he belonged to. In the meantime the girls had called the police, so he was found before we got home. Both of the girls were so embarrassed they promised faithfully they would never do that again. They are both grown now with families of their own, and each time I see either of them they remind me of that horrible experience.

I will cite one more frightening experience. We had been invited to visit friends
Who lived at Cass Lake. This time we had put a harness on Dan with a rope and tied him to the picnic table. We were gathered around talking but Dan's father was sitting on the ground by Dan to keep his company. Suddenly we noticed Dan was out of his harness and gone. I took off down the road toward the Lake, running as fast as I could. I was able to scoop him up out of the water just in time; he had run as fast as his little legs would carry him right into that big lake!

Dan was always fascinated by trains. He gave him his first electric train, an "American Flyer," for Christmas of 1955. He was 8 years old; but he still has that train and it runs well. When Grand Trunk Railroad was converting to diesel engines they ran an excursion from Royal Oak to Durand and back with what was supposed to be the "last run for the steam engines. Dan and a friend, Buster Mansfield took the ride. They were 10 at the time. (They have run other excursions, however, since then.)

He delivered papers for the Royal Oak Daily Tribune for a year and then bought a Detroit News route and delivered the News for about a year.

After graduation he worked for a while at Jones Trucking; loading the big trailers. Then he went to work as a mechanic for Royal Pontiac, the Pontiac dealership in Troy. He is very mechanical and fixes his own cars all the time and occasionally helps others repair theirs. But on 15 January 1968 his dream came true and he was hired by the Grand Trunk Railroad. On 29 Mar. 1968 he transferred to Engine Service. He was back on 23 March 1972 and made his first trip alone as an Engineer on the 61st. He is real happy with his work. He passed his exam's "with flying colors."

Dan and Karon Hollingsworth were married, 4 Nov. 1957, in the First Methodist Church of Troy by the Reverend Robert Clune, pastor. Karon's sister Judy was her maid of honor and her two other sisters, Peggy and Cheryl served as bridesmaids. Best man was David J. Valko III of Royal Oak. Dan's brother Rod served as one of the ushers. David escorted his mother.

Dan and Karon had their first date on 25 August 1963. They went to the Michigan State Fair, in Detroit, with Rod and Barb. Karon had attended Dan's 16th birthday party at his home.

Karon was born in Highland Park General Hospital, Highland Park, Michigan. She weighed 8 lbs. 4 3/4 oz. at birth and was delivered by Dr. Simon, M. D.

She attended school at Troy No. 2, (K); Colerain, (1-5); Hart, (6); Baker Jr. High, (7-8); and Troy High School, (9-12).

Dan was enrolled in the Cradle Roll of the Ferndale Nazarene Sunday School, 5 Sept. 1968; he was Baptized that same year by the Reverend Kenneth A. Hutchinson, pastor. Dan has always been good at memory work. At five years of age he could quote: Gen. 1:1; Ps. 119:105; Rom. 6:23; and John 3:16. At seven years of age on 8 Aug. 1974 he accepted Christ as his Saviour. Then on 22 December 1963 he joined the First Methodist Church of Troy; after going through the Catecism Class with the Reverend Ralph Janka, pastor. Karon is also a member there.

Dan and Karon do not have any children. Karon is a diabetic; this condition was discovered at fifteen months of age. She has miscarried three times and the doctors have advised against another pregnancy. She works as a clerk at Perry's Drugs in Troy. They live in Clawson where they are buying a home. Karon is very good with many types of crafts. She has made nearly all of the ornaments on their Christmas Tree. She also does macrame, ceramics, crocheting, sewing; she makes most of her clothes, and jewelry. She tries anything in the line of crafts that is current. They have a couple of cats and a beagle dog.

Dan's hobbies include piano for his own enjoyment, photography and auto repair. In warm weather he enjoys his Harley "Super Glide" motorcycle. Karon rides with him. They both enjoy stereo music and a fire in their beautiful fireplace; brother Rod built for them. It is made of white quarry cut Georgian marble with black split slate raised hearth and mantle. It is perfectly matched and beautiful.

Eugene Furnish was born on the Wallace Moore farm in Shiawassee Twp., Shiawassee Co., Michigan. This farm is located at the corner of Garrison and Scribner roads. He attended the Lemon School there through the first half of the seventh grade. In March of 1935 he moved with his family onto a farm near Morrice, in Antrim Twp., where he attended the Beard School through the eighth grade. He then went to Morrice High School where he graduated in 1940, Salutatorian of his Class.

In high school he belonged to the Future Farmers of America, and had many projects. As a small boy he became fascinated with pigeons, and at an early age raised many different varieties. He became very knowledgeable with his study of all sorts of pigeons, their habits and the feeding of their young. He has always enjoyed studying nature and the habits of animals as well as the birds.

He enjoys small game hunting as well as hunting for deer. He has gone out West several times hunting both for deer and elk and has made trips to Canada moose hunting as well as fishing.

From the time he graduated from high school until he went to work in Lansing in 1948 at the Motor Wheel Corporation he worked at Redondo in Owasso, Fisher Body in Lansing, the Willow Run Plant in Ypsilanti and then worked at Chevrolet in Flint for one year. He is now on his 29th year at Motor Wheel, where he serves as a Committee man and Branch Chairman of Local 182 of the Allied Industrial Workers Union. He works as a Press Operator on relief and as a Press Set-up man on Saturdays. In his role with the Union he has traveled extensively throughout the United States attending Union Conventions, Training Schools, and Union Industry Shows. He has been sent to both Madison and Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Chicago, Illinois; Denver, Colorado; St. Louis and Kansas City, Missouri; Phoenix, Arizona; Miami, Florida; New York City, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Chevy Chase, Maryland; Washington D. C. and Chatham, Canada as well as numerous cities in Michigan. He has also been interviewed on Radio and Television many times on the Lansing Stations.

Eugene and Letha Hammond were married, 20 October 1946 by the Reverend James H. Jones, pastor of the Thoburn Methodist Church in Detroit. They were married in the church parsonage. Eugene's sister and brother-in-law, Vera and Vincent Harris, served as their attendants. They were married at 5:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon with a double ring ceremony. After the ceremony they took a short trip to Northern Michigan.

Letha was born in Lansing, Michigan. She attended school at Laingsburg, (K-2); Scio, (3-7); Perry, (8); Morrice, (9-10), and Gains, (11-12) graduating with the class of 1945.

The first years of their marriage they lived on a farm near Morrice. Then in 1950 they moved upstairs in the home of Eugene's parents on the Baldwin Road. They lived here until they were able to move into their own home in Scio Twp., located on the Putman road between Hibbard and Bennington roads.

In 1959 they purchased 63 acres of land and then built a basement on it. Then had a house moved on it. The house was remodeled, Eugene and Letha doing much of the work themselves. They now have a lovely seven room home, with two baths, in the country where Eugene can pursue his hobbies as a small farmer, and both he and Letha enjoy gardening and raising flowers and shrubs. Eugene has been bothered with an respiratory condition most of his life and does much better with the more relaxed and leisurely type of atmosphere.

Eugene also has several colonies of honey-bees. His mother raised bees before him and evidently was able to teach him enough to stimulate his interest, as he has raised bees all of his adult life.

Letha has always done a lot of sewing, first for her three daughters, and now for her grandchildren. She also enjoys doing ceramics. She served for two years as President of the Middlebury United Methodist Women as well as working with the Youth of the church in the past. Currently she is Chairperson for the Extension Club in her area. Their travels have taken them several times to Northern Michigan as well as to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and to Florida and Arizona.

Eugene and Letha have suffered much mental anguish over their children. Starting with their second child every other child has been born with what was diagnosed at both the University Hospital, Ann Arbor and the Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, both in Michigan as "Epilepsy due to recessive genes." Their first, third and fifth children are normal and have been above average scholastically.

I am sure that we who have had normal healthy children can in no way fully understand the aching heart of a parent or parents caught in this sort of web. With no epilepsy on either side of the house that anyone ever knew about! Sometimes it seems there are just no satisfactory answers, however the children were all evaluated at both hospitals mentioned above.

Eugene and Letha's children honored them on the 25th of October 1971 wth a 25th Wedding Anniversary celebration. They were told they were being taken out for dinner but instead they were taken to a rented hall in an Owosso bank where they were greeted by many friends, family and other relatives.

To this union six children were born: Dean Duane, Clyde Calvin, Sandra Sharlene, Cindy Caroline, Eugene Ernest and Lorrie Lea Furnish.

Dean Furnish was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He was born at 12:27 A.M. and weighed 7 lbs. 14½ oz. He was delivered by William F. Weinaufer, M. D.

He attended the Hammond School, named for his great-grandparents, the Dewitts of Owosso, near Ovid, (X-3); then the school was consolidated and he was bussed to the High School where he attended (4-12) graduating on Thursday evening, June 2, 1966 at eight o'clock at the Ovid High School. During his high school years he was a member of the Future Farmers of America. His main projects included raising hogs. The "pig" project was very successful. His breed was a large litter and he was able to sell the fatted animals when hog prices were at a peak. He has as a proud possession, a first place entry he earned while judging beef cattle when he visited Michigan State University with his high school F. F. A group.

Dean attended Lansing Community College for two years and then Michigan State University graduating with a Degree in Elementary Education. He did some sub-teaching but did not teach full time. He worked three summers at Motor Wheel in Lansing and at the Reo factory for one summer. He then hired in full time at Motor Wheel and worked there for four years.

In May of 1976 he and Sheryl Hunt were married in the Alumni Chapel of Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Also in May he purchased his grandparent's farm. He had spent many hours following his grandfather, Clyde Furnish, around on this farm, weaning the same kind of interest also turned to keeping honey-bees. In 1974 he took a short course in bee keeping at Michigan State University. His studies were under the direction of the Nationally known Dr. E. C. Martin, Professor of the Entomology Department.

Dean ordered his first swarm from Southern breeders. Later he captured wild swarms to augment his apiary. He added a honey extractor, some comb-honey equipment and then sought out a market where he sold the packaged honey.

He also raised pullets and developed a flock of laying hens. His eggs found a ready market with his fellow employees at Motor Wheel.

In September of 1976 Dean sold the farm. He decided it was too much for him to handle, and he didn't like factory work, and he really wanted to go back to school to handle, and he didn't like factory work, and he really wanted to go back to school.

Clyde Calvin Furnish was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He was born by Caesarean section, and weighed 9 lbs. 5 oz. He was delivered by William P. Weilka, M. D. of Corunna.

He was hospitalized the later part of September in Owosso, and then was transferred to Hurley Hospital in Flint with a temperature elevation of 106. He was admitted again to Hurley Hospital the early part of December and was diagnosed as having meningitis.

He died on January 8th in Hurley Hospital at ten and one half months of age. His funeral was conducted from the Jennings - Lyons Chapel in Owosso at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday the eleventh. The Reverend Kenneth Harris, uncle of the deceased, officiated. Interment was in the Middletown Cemetery, Middletown Twp., Shiawassee Co.

Sandra Furnish was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. She too was delivered Caesarean Section by William F. Weinkauf, M.D. of Corunna. She weighed 7 lbs. 7 3/4 oz.

She attended school (K-7) at North Elementary; Ovid Jr. High (7-8); and graduated from Ovid - Elsie High School on Thursday evening, June 4, 1970. At nine years of age her parents gave her a black pony "Beauty" to ride. She doesn't ride her anymore, but Beauty still graces the landscape of her parent's farm. Sandra played the flute and Oboe in the school band (5-12). She is another Gal with many interests. She likes to sew, do ceramics, crewel work, knit, crochet and hook rugs. She also likes to refinish furniture.

She and Bill Farr were classmates in school for four years. He also played in the school band, but played the Coronet (5-12). He now plays the guitar as well. He and Sandy were married in their Senior year of high school at St. Cyril's Church in Bannister. During Bill's school years he assisted his father in managing a pheasant shooting preserve and target range. He enjoys hunting and fishing. Their 140 acre farm was named "Wild Acres." He now works as a I and A Serviceman for the General Telephone Company. His hobby is painting cars, and he does a beautiful job on them.

Sandy and Bill bought a new little home in Corunna five years ago. They are the parents of three children: Jamie Mae, Jason Jacob and Jesse Dean Farr.

Eugene Furnish was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He was delivered by Caesarean Section by William F. Weinkauf, M. D. He weighed 9 lbs 10 oz.
He attended Eastern Elementary School (K-6), Owosso Jr. High (7-8) and is a Sophomore at Ovid - Elsie High School. He belongs to 4-H. He had rabbits for his project for four years and received four blue ribbons. He has had gardening now for three years. He likes animals and has a pet cock almost every year until it hears the ‘rattling call’ and leaves to make it’s abode with it’s own kind. He likes to fish and hunt and sets traps in the winter for mink and muskrats.

He has played the Coronet in the Ovid - Elsie School Band since the 5th grade.
He presently plays in the Senior Band as well as the Marching Band for the School.
He did sing in the church choir, though now he seems to have lost his singing voice or desire. He also belongs to the United Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Ernest is and has always been a boy with many athletic interests. His room displays many bowling trophies, arm patches etc. that he acquired in "Peanut" League and Junior League Bowling competitions. He has been the pitcher on a 4-H soft-tall fall for the past four years. He is an accomplished swimmer. His training at the Ovid - Elsie High School Pool included all basic strokes and life-protecting techniques. In 1974 he was one of fourteen from a class of one hundred and thirty to receive the "President’s Award" in physical fitness acquired through endurance contests in various calisthenic exercises. In his Freshman year he ran Cross-Country with an Ovid - Elsie High School team in competition with students from other area schools.

He enjoys "hazing" on Citizens Band Radio; listening to Sterophonic Records and Tapes; reading magazines and books on fishing and hunting and sharing his interests with his circle of friends, often via the telephone.
During the summer months several of the neighbours have hired him to help harvest their grain and store baled hay and straw and to assist them with other "farmern work.

Presently he is employed after school by a neighborhood fishing-tackle and bait enterprise. He skins chicken "pelts" for How West Tackle Company. The pelts are dried and shipped nation wide to bait manufacturing concerns.

Ernie's number one pal; confidant; teacher/instructor, surely all around best friend, since he first began dating his Sis, is his brother-in-law, Bill Farr.

Lorrie Furnish too was born at Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. She too was delivered by William F. Weinkeuf, M. D. by Caesarean Section. She weighed 9 lbs. 1 oz. at birth.

Her parents did not know that she too was afflicted until she was ten weeks old. She was also cared for at home until she was one year of age. Then she had to be placed in the Caro Epilepsy Hospital. She is now 13 years of age.

Late report: Lorrie was taken to Hurley Medical Center, Flint, Michigan in late December (1976) with pneumonia. She was there about three weeks. Her condition seemed to improve and she was returned to the Caro Hospital where she died one week later.

She died on Sunday morning at 8 A. M. on the 23rd of January 1977.

Lorrie's funeral was conducted from the Jennings - Lyons Chapel, Owosso, Michigan at 3:00 P. M. on Wednesday. The Reverend Brian Runzheimer, pastor of the Middlebury United Methodist Church, officiated. Internment was in the Middlebury Cemetery.

cause: Tuberculosis/Emphysema church: Roman Catholic occupation: Store/Theater son of: Harley (Minchell) & Elizabeth (Freeman) Stebbins

Jane Furnish was born on the Wallace Moore farm in Shiawassee Co., Michigan. This farm is located at the corner of Garrison and Scrivner roads. She was partially named for Mrs. Moore whose first name was Julia. She attended the Lemon School starting at the age of six. She was held back one year because of an unbilical hernia. She attended there until she was ten years of age. At that time she moved with her family to a farm near Morrice in Antrim Twp., where she attended the Beard School through the eighth grade. She attended Morrice High School (9-12) graduating in 1943 having received the third highest marking in her class her Senior year. She was offered a scholarship to Ferris State College, but did not accept it. Earlier in school she had thought she wanted to become a teacher, but by graduation time she had decided against it. A decision she says she has never regretted.

She was in both the Junior and Senior plays. She played basketball for four years. History was her favorite subject. She is an avid reader and likes to keep up on current events.

Her Junior year in high school she worked for her room and board at the Joe McDivitt's and her Senior year she did the same; living with Mrs. Dora Flynn. Then on her week-ends both years she worked at a small restaurant called 'Ruby's Cafe' at Perry's intersection with M-78 and M-47. After graduation she took over the night shift of running a small diner located where M-78 by-passes the village of Morrice. After a short while she went to work in Owosso at the Bendix Aviation Corporation where she worked for nearly a year.

It was while working at Bendix that she was persuaded by a co-worker to go to Florida with her as her husband had been stationed there at Coral Cables. Jane's parents were reluctant to have her go that far away from home at age nineteen, on her own, as she had lived a rather sheltered life and was quite naive. She says she will never forget her father's parting words to her. He said, "Jane, you are going to be like a little bird that first leaves the nest. There will be hawks, crows and other 'bad birds' cut to get you! You take care of yourself that none of them catch you."

Her first job in Coral Cables was at a soda fountain. Here she met a tailor who persuaded her to come and work for him which she did, but not for long. He had her ripping seams and answering the phone in a dark dingy room which was far too boring for her. She then went to work at a factory that made plastic domes for airplanes. While working there she started dating James Stebbins. She had met him while working at the soda fountain in Coral Cables. They were married in Miami about a year later.

Jim served in the U.S. Army in the South Pacific Theater, enlisting in 1942. He was wounded at Guadalcanal when the ship he was on hit a mine and he received third degree burns on his chest from the oil on the water that had caught fire and was burning. He was wounded a second time when a Japanese hand grenade was thrown into a foxhole where he and a 'buddy' were. The grenade hit his buddy and he was blown to bits. Jim received a leg injury as well as a shattered knee. Because of "shell shock" he was returned to the States where he spent several months in White Sulphur Springs at the Veterans Hospital in West Virginia. He never fully recovered. He was given a 90% disability with an honorable discharge in 1943. He received a Purple Heart.
After his discharge he worked in various stores in the Miami area, usually as a stock clerk. But his true love was with the theater. He was an artist and demanded perfection. He also did store window dressings, and often painted his own backdrop. He was temperamental, and if in the mood did some beautiful paintings, as well as landscapes, and other things. Two of his best paintings were a picture of his oldest daughter Elaine, at the age of one, and one of General Patton.

One of Walt Disney’s Scout observed some of his work at one time and offered him a position with the company. For some unknown reason he declined this offer. He worked for some time as Assistant Manager of the Olympia Theater in Miami.

After the war was over jobs became scarce so Jim and Jane and the children all moved to Michigan hoping to find work. He worked at Woolworth’s in Lansing for a while and then became Assistant Manager of the Gladmer Theater there also.

Problems were many in this marriage and after seven years it ended in divorce in 1952. Jim went back to Florida where he lived mostly with his mother. He had many odd jobs but he never could erase the nightmare of the war from his mind and used alcohol as a means to forget. He died in Veteran’s Hospital near Jacksonville, Florida, a victim of tuberculosis and severe emphysema on 16 January 1973. He was buried in the Military Section of the Opa-Locka Cemetery, Florida.

Jim was the son of Harley Winnehall, who had been adopted and his name was changed to Stebbins, and Elizabeth (Freeman) Stobbins.

To this union three daughters were born: Elaine Jane, Candace Rae and Cheryl Beth Stebbins.

In October 1952 Jane went to work for Oldsmobile in Lansing where she worked until she suffered a spinal injury in 1961. She has since had two spinal fusions as the result of the injury and is on a permanent sick leave until she reaches retirement age. In 1973 she was in a body cast following the last fusion, which was done at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, for five months.

Shortly after Jane went to work at Oldsmobile in 1952 she was diagnosed as having cervical cancer. Surgery was done immediately and her recovery was rapid. Some of her earliest recollections are when at age four her father’s ‘back’ sheep “Tom” had gotten out of the barnyard, and Jane who was fearless and playing near the barn, started toward him to pet him and he charged forward and hurt her to the ground. Each time she got up onto her feet he would hurt her down again. Finally Mother heard her cry and saw what was happening. She yelled to Jane to “lie still,” which Jane did not do, Mother grabbed the garden rake and ran with it. She dragged the teeth of the rake down across old Tom’s nose and he made a hasty retreat back to the barnyard. Mother rescued Jane who was terribly frightened and bruised some but not badly hurt.

She remembers the many years that as a family we packed a picnic dinner, and then gathered all the flowers, in bloom, from the yard and then many times purchased a few plants along the way, and we visited Smokey Cemetery near Maple Rapids. Here we put flowers on a plant or two, on the graves of our grandparents and other members of the family that were buried there. Then we had a picnic dinner afterwards. Sometimes on the ground under a shade tree, but more often in Maple Rapids where we visited a great-aunt and uncle, Aunt Clara and Uncle Henry Schlarf. As a child, not knowing the real meaning of Memorial Day, she looked forward to the outing and the picnic.

Another unforgettable and very sad story she tells us is when she was eight years of age and Mother had bought her a new suit of long underwear. This was ‘depression’ years and ‘new anything’ was hard to come by. Hand-me-downs were more the normal. Anyway she had put her new underwear on and had gone to bed with them on. To be awakened by her sister; telling her she would have to take off the new underwear as her sister, Edith who was two years younger than she, was very sick and the doctor had said she would have to go to the hospital and she didn’t have any underwear nice enough to take her there in. As it turned out giving up her new underwear was a small thing, as she had to give up her sister and closest playmate as well, as Edith died just a few days later of complications caused from an appendix that had ruptured a few days before.

Jane had a brother two years older than she and another one five years younger. But she chose to play mostly alone, and she feels that is the reason she still likes her own company and enjoys times when she is alone for short periods.

son of: Charles Herbert & Leylis Ruth (Bowers) Shull

Jane and Jim Shull were married in the Methodist church, Mason, Michigan 2 June 1962. They met while both were working at Oldsmobile.

Jim was born in Bryan, Ohio. His father died at a very early age, just before his 29th birthday. Jim was only 20 months old. He attended school in West Unity, Ohio, and then at the age of seven years moved with his mother and step-father Clyde Hoffman, to Tonka, Michigan where he attended grade school. Later they moved to Sunfield, Michigan where he graduated from High School in 1948.

On 24 June 1948 he married Joyce Jackson. To this union three children were born: Steven Charles, born in Tonka, Michigan on 26 June 1949; Debra Dawn, born in Hastings, Michigan on 11 April 1952; and Becky Jo who was also born in Hastings, on 7 March 1957. This marriage ended in divorce.

Jim remembers the years when he and his mother lived with his grandfather, Frank Bowers, after his father had died. He loved his Grandpa Bowers and remembers the many good times he enjoyed with him in his early years. Especially does he remember the times they went hunting and fishing. His grandfather made a lasting impression on him as did many of his uncles.

Jim worked at Oldsmobile in Lansing for a short time in 1948 then re-hired in 1950 as an hourly employee. In 1960 he became a supervisor in the Inspection Department. During this time he took short courses at General Motors Institute in Flint and also at Oldsmobile. He was promoted to General Foreman and then placed on a corporate level job working out of Detroit as a Quality General Motors Auditor traveling throughout the United States and Canada contacting all General Motors car and truck assembly plants and thus giving them a quality index rating which is reported to the performance of each individual factory.

On the 12th of March 1976 Jim was sent to Frankfort, Germany, Brussels and Antwerp, Belgium; Singapore; Melbourne, Australia; Johannesburg and Port Elizabeth, South Africa; Rio de Janeiro and San Paulo, Brazil. Jim and another man were selected to go to the General Motors plants in these countries to teach and instruct and also observe in the ways the job was being done there. General Motors wanted the overseas standards brought up to date and wanted them to check their care for the quality index auditing.

Jim is an avid hunter and fisherman. Traditionally he takes a fishing trip into Canada each year. He likes doing carpentry work around the home base in his leisure time.
Jane and Jim both love the out-of-doors. They have a camper and are able to get away and enjoy nature at her best occasionally. They have a small yard, but Jane plants tomatoes and peppers among the flowers. She also enjoys doing crafts. She likes to do bead making, crewel embroidery, knit and occasionally put a Jig-Saw Puzzle together.

Jane and Jim now have fourteen grandchildren between them. They try hard to be 'good' grandparents. Jane only remembers one grandparent, her Grandma Furnish, who died when she was six and one half years of age. But she does remember her reading to her and because Grandma had cataracts on her eyes she had to hold the book very close to her face. She also told stories and sang to her. This is part of the heritage they would like to leave their grandchildren; the fact that they took time to be with them and had time to listen when they wanted to talk. They would like them to be honest always in all of their dealings; to love God; and "to thyself be true."

Cheryl Stebbins was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan, at 1:30 o'clock. She weighed 6 lbs 2 oz. at birth.

Cheryl attended school at the Octagon No. 8, Canaan, (rural Ingham Co.) Mason, Waverly and West Junior High in Lansing and then graduated from Eastern High School in 1968. She graduated on Wednesday evening, 12 June, at 8:00 in the Lansing Civic Center.

She has held various jobs such as clerk, telephone operator. Her last job was as settlement clerk and proof operator at the Michigan National Bank.

Cheryl and Ronald Marr were married in the Miller Road Bible Church on 5 March 1971, by the Reverend James Dotson, on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A reception followed the ceremony in the Telephone Credit Union Building on Clare Street, Lansing. They took their honeymoon in Canada.

Cheryl loves animals and always wanted a horse. Each Christmas she would ask for one. She finally achieved her dream but after she was married. She now has two beautiful quarter horses which she can talk endlessly about. They bought an older farm house in the country located on four acres of property so she can ride her horses as well as have a barn to keep them in. She and Ron both like country living.

Ron Marr was born in Sparrow Hospital, Lansing at 2:30 A.M. He attended school at Elmhurst, West Junior High and graduated from Everett High School in 1966.

Ron, after only working three days at Fisher Body in Lansing, was asked by his foreman if he would like the job of utility man. He accepted the job and seems happy with his work. Before this he worked in appliance stores both as a salesman and as an electrical repairman.

They are the parents of three children: Amy Lynn, Kevin Michael and Shelley Marie Marr.

She was named for Edith Moore, daughter-in-law of Wallace and Julia Moore and her grandmother, Ada Esther (Sawyer) Furnish.

Edith loved the out-of-doors. She was a very happy mild tempered little girl. She had started the Lemon School District No. 8 the fall before she died the following March.

When she became ill she complained of a "stomach ache". I remember her lying on a couch in the dining room and me asking her where she hurt? And her reply was, "when I lay on my back; my back hurts, when I lay on my side; my side hurts, and when I lay on my tummy; my tummy hurts." After mother tried the usual remedies for a 'stomach ache' and nothing brought relief she called the doctor that evening. He ordered her into the hospital immediately. He was sure it was appendicitis, and hoped it hadn't ruptured!

Mother was allowed to stay with Edith. Dad came home to do chores and be with us children. I well remember the afternoon when he told us: "Dr. Weinkauf says she is going through the crisis and this will determine whither she will live or die." I can see Dad yet walking the dining room floor with the tears running down his cheeks as he prayed that she might live.

This was the days before antibiotics and even though she was a healthy little girl she didn't have strong enough resistance to combat the infection caused from the ugly peritonitis that had already set in. She died 18 March 1932. Her funeral services were held from our home with the Reverend Hugh Townley, pastor of the Corunna Methodist church officiating. She was buried in Sowles Cemetery near Maple Rapids in a grave between her grandmother and grandfather Furnish.

I am sure our loss was heaven's gain but I must say our home was never the same without this 'ray of sunshine.' And there are always those "if only" guilt feelings that dog us all. So many times Mother said "if only I had called the doctor first!" And yet the home remedy's had worked with the rest of us so why wouldn't she try them first? We know alot more as laymen about symptoms of appendicitis than they did 44 years ago. For this we are all thankful as well as the antibiotics and other medical science.

Clinton Furnish was born on the Wallace Moore farm in Shiawassee Twp. He was delivered by Dr. William F. Weinkauf, M. D. of Corunna. This farm is located at the corner of Garrison and Scribner roads. He attended the Lemon School part of his Kindergarten year and the following March (1933) his parents moved to Antrim Twp. near Morrice and he attended the Board School through the 8th grade. On 1 June 1943 a tornado swept through the township, destroying the school as well as many other homes and other buildings. He then attended school in Morrice, (9-10) and in March of 1945 his parents moved near Ovid onto the Claude Shufelt farm. Here he attended Ovid High School and graduated on Thursday evening, 5 May 1947 at 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium. Clinton played football, (position, tackle); he was in both the Jr. and Sr. school play; was secretary of F. F. A. both years as well; received the State Farmers Award and was a member of the National Honor Society finishing in the top third of his class.

On 11 Sept. 1948 he and Lila Jean Francis were married in a double ring ceremony at St. Joseph's Rectory in Owosso. The Reverend Father John S. Daniel officiated at the 11 o'clock A. M. wedding ceremony.

Lila was the only daughter with a family of six boys which included two sets of identical twins. She has lived in the Owosso area all of her life. She attended the local schools there graduating from Owosso High School in June of 1948. After graduation she worked as head cashier then assistant manager of the local theater. She is where she and Clinton first met. Lila Jean comes from a very close knit family. And being the only girl in the family loves and is loved by her brothers. They have proved to be more than just brothers-in-law to Clinton as well. Since he only had one brother he has appreciated having Lila's brothers as his brothers too.

Lila says: "my married life has been very fulfilling; married to one 'super guy' We have had 28 years of rich and rewarding love and the sharing of sorrows. Our children have been a source of strength and love as well as my husband. My life has been and is full."

After graduation Clinton continued to work on the farm with his father until 1950. At that time he went to work at the Fisher Body, Plant One, Flint. In 1953 he was transferred to their plant in Grand Blanc where he has worked continuously ever since. He works in Tool and Die; he is a Keller Operator. They have lived in the Owosso area all of their married life. In 1968 they built a lovely 4 bedroom home in North Owosso.

Clinton enjoys fishing, small game hunting as well as deer hunting. One of his prime possessions is his father's shot gun; which Dad gave to him a few years ago. He has coached Little League baseball and was Cub Master for the Boy Scouts at the Washington School.

In May of 1973 he lost his index finger on his right hand, in a farm accident on his son-in-law's farm. He was laid-up for six weeks but has adjusted beautifully.

As a child Clinton escaped all the childhood diseases. When we other children were sick with them he insisted that he wasn’t going to catch what we had at the time; and he didn’t. That is until he was a Freshman in High School at Morrice. He seemed to catch them all then and didn't think it was 'funny' at all. After his sister Edith died, Clinton acquired an imaginary playmate and would play by the hour carrying on a double conversation with his 'friend.' He also had a collie dog named "Pal" he loved very much.

He remembers how hard our Uncle Sam Ostrander could pinch with his fingers; his thumb was missing. Also the beautiful bread our Aunt Elsie Furnish made. And then he was the first one to take Lila to a farm. She was a city, born and bred, gal and didn't know much about animals or farm life. So Clinton had a lot of questions to answer!!

They are the parents of six children: Regenia Marie, Charlotte Ann, Denise Violia, Keith Michael, Jeri Lynn, and Joseph Clinton Furnish.

Genevieve was born at home in Shiawassee Twp. on a farm S. E. of Corunna known as the Wallace Moore farm. It was located at Garrison and Scribner roads. She was delivered by William F. Weinkauf, M. D. of Corunna. When less than two years of age she moved with her family to a farm near Morrice, Antrim Twp., known as the Gallagher farm.

She started school at the Beard attending K-3 grades there. On June 1, 1943 a tornado swept through this area, demolishing the Beard School as well as miles of buildings, trees and what ever was in its path. Only the back porch was ripped off her parents home but most of the apple trees in the orchard were uprooted. That fall the children were bused into Morrice where Genevieve attended grades 4-6.

In March of 1945 she moved with her parents to the Claude Shufelt farm near Ovid, where she attended the Sherman School 7-8. In March of 1950 her parents bought a neighboring farm on the Baldwin road near Hubbard road in Middlebury Twp., Shiawassee Co. Here she attended Ovid High School, 9-12, graduating on Thursday evening at eight o'clock on June 7, 1951.

She then went to work in Owosso at Butler Clothiers but only worked for three weeks when she went to work at Mulhall & Erb Lumber as a bookkeeper. She worked there for five years.

While working at Mulhall & Erb she met Abe Eldridge. January of 1955 they were married in the Middlebury Methodist Church. The Revery Robert Duff officiated at the candelight ceremony. Her sister, Jane Stebbins, was her matron of honor and Alfred Eldridge, brother of the groom was best man. A reception was held in the undercroft of the church.

That October their first daughter, Pamela Jo, was born. Then Genevieve went to work for Central Telephone Co. (now General) in Owosso. She worked here for one year and then gave birth to her second daughter, Vickie Sue, in June 1957. She next went to work at Mulhall & Erb in Corunna and worked until 1966 when they closed out the company. She worked for Owosso Building Supplys for seven months then went to work at S. & W. Equipment, Case and Massey Ferguson, where she has worked for the last eight years.

Abe was born in Owosso, Michigan on Mason Street. He attended the Emerson School, (K-3); Eveleth in Corunna, (4-5); Wilkenson, in the country, (6-8) and Owosso High School (9-10).

He enlisted in the U. S. Army Jan. 8, 1951. He enlisted for two years. His service record reads:

- Army - Basic, Ft. Knox, action - Korea Service No. R A 16 401438
- Rate - Cpl. (Y) 25 Sept. 1953 Class RAQMC effective date of separation 11 Dec. 1953 Type of separation - Released from active military service. Place of separation - Fort Sheridan, Ill. Born 10 Oct. 1932 Owosso enlisted for 2 years. Decorations, National Defence Service Medal, Korean Service Ribbon, United Nations Service Medal and 3 Bronze Service Stars. Most significant duty assignment -
110th Quartermaster Battery Co. Service School (May/July 1952)

Food Service School 16 weeks. Baking.

After Abe's discharge he went to work for Mulhall & Erb Lumber Co., in Owosso. He worked there from April 1954 to July 1955 then went to the Austin Co. and then to Olds where he worked from November until April. He at that time went back to Mulhall & Erb and stayed until they closed out the business in 1966. He then went to work as a truck driver for Robbins Furniture Co. in Owosso. For the last two years he has worked in the store on furniture repair.

They have lived in the Owosso, Corunna area all of their married life. And presently own a lovely home off Corunna Avenue between Corunna and Owosso. The back of their property borders on the Shiawassee River. The river has quite a bit of activity; ducks and other wildlife as well as canoe and row boat activity when the weather permits. Genevieve and Abe have a camper they especially enjoy fishing trips.

Genevieve is too busy trying to keep up a house besides working full time to pursue many hobbies, however she loves flowers and enjoys working in her flower garden even after a busy day. She also has many house plants, she seems to have a 'green thumb'.

On 20 June, 1975 Genevieve was hospitalized at Memorial Hospital in Owosso with a coronary. Other than that she has enjoyed good health for the most part.

Her father, Clyde Furnish, has made his home with her since the winter of 1972. He and Genevieve were Baptized at the same time, 14 April 1946, in the Middlebury Methodist Church. And so they along with Genevieve's mother, Viola, joined the church together. It is at this church that a celebration in his honor was held to help him celebrate his 90th Birthday. He was 90 on the 23rd of November the celebration was held on Saturday the 27th, 1976.

Genevieve and Abe are the parents of four daughters: Pamela Jo, Vickie Sue, Marianne and Karen Lee Eldridge.

She attended Elsa Meyer School, (K-3); Louise Peacock, (4) and Elsa Meyer again, (5-6) and Old Corunna High, (7-8).

Karen was born a "blue baby" (a baby born of a very blue color due to mixture of the venous and arterial blood through a defect in the heart). She had an opening in the wall of the septum and had open heart surgery at the Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan on 22 August 1969. The surgery was performed by Dr. Arterio Arzamagis, M.D. She had a rapid recovery with her complexion changing from blue to pink immediately. She now is a very active child.

Karen has been in 4-H work for four years.
Effie Millicent Furnish was born in Essex Twp., Clinton Co., Michigan. She was born on the George Fox farm, 2 miles east of Maple Rapids on the Maple Rapids road, and across the road from where her grandparents, Amos and Cynthia (Van House) Sawyer lived on the Will Sickles farm. She was the only daughter of William H. and Ada E. (Sawyer) Furnish. Will had another daughter, Adella, by his first wife Eva (Watson). Effie had two brothers, Clyde and Earl.

She attended school at the Parker School, Bingham Twp., except for one year when she and her brothers attended the Rowell School in Duplain Twp., since it was one mile from their home and the Parkers School was a mile and a half; and besides it being closer to the school they could ride with their father on his way to "run his mail route." Each weekday morning he went in to Rochester Colony and picked up the mail and then went to Shepardsville and picked up the mail and the small freight and delivered it en route back to Rochester Colony, as well as "the Colony then continued his delivery on the way home, delivering down the side roads as well.

The children were only allowed to attend the Rowell School for one year, as their enrollment had increased, and the teacher didn't want the extra burden of children outside her own district.

Effie was sixteen years of age when her father died, 19 January 1904. After his death her mother sold the little home in Bingham Twp., and bought another small house in Maple Rapids, and they moved into town. Here Effie attended High school through the 10th grade. She then went to work away from home, doing house work, for two and three dollars a week and her room and board. It was while working away from home that she met and married Frank Malkin secretly as her half-sister, Adella, wrote to her mother:

"February 15, 1910 - I don't think it was nice of Effie to get married and not say a word to you about it, I hope they will get along nice." Adella

Effie and Frank were married in Owosso, 2 October 1909. Effie was 21 and Frank slightly younger was 19. She sometimes now signed her name Effa.

Frank was born in Brant, Michigan, Saginaw county. He was the son of Thomas Henry and Permla (Ecker) Malkin, and one of a family of four boys. His brother's names were Harold, William and George.

Frank and Effie lived on rented farms, working them on shares, all of their married life together, living in the Ovid, Garland, Owosso, Bancroft and Newburg areas; all in Shiawassee County.

Effie died at Memorial Hospital in Owosso, Sunday at 10:30 p.m., 14 July 1935.
after a several weeks' illness with stomach cancer. Her funeral was held at the Abbott Funeral Home in Maple Rapids, with the pastor of the Maple Rapids Methodist church officiating. Interment was in the Sowles Cemetery, Maple Rapids, Michigan.

To this union three daughters and one son were born: Geraldine Pearl, Josephine Adella, Marcia Annette and Harold Robert Malkin.

Frank remarried; first to Julia Seleska which ended in divorce and then on 17 September 1946 to Eunice Frye. They were married in Chesaning.

Frank farmed most of his life. He worked a few years at the Kaiser-Fraiser plant in Ypsilanti, as a sweeper, during World War II. He worked in a gas station in Perry for a while and later managed stations in both Ashley and Perry.

At the time of his death he was living in Ellenton, Florida. He died on Sunday, 18 October 1970, of a stroke, at Manistee Memorial Hospital in Bradenton, Florida, after being ill for four weeks. His funeral was held at the Jennings-Lyons Chapel in Owosso on Wednesday at 1 p.m., with the Reverend Thomas E. Dunn officiating. He was buried in the Fremont Cemetery, near Bancroft, where his widow plans to be buried even though there was a grave space reserved beside his first wife, Effie, in the Maple Rapids Cemetery. Effie is buried in the same plot with cousins, Bertha and Floyd Hewitt.
Geraldine Malkin was born at Newburg, Shiawassee Co., Michigan. She attended the Raleigh, Octogon and Carland country schools, graduating from the 8th grade at Carland. She spent most of her childhood helping her father with the farm work.

While attending a birthday party, in July 1933, she met Silven Vincent. They were married the following April, by the Reverend Frank Purdy, pastor of the Vernon Methodist Church. They were married in the parsonage. It was a beautiful day, and Mrs. Vincent prepared a lovely family dinner. She was a great cook, as the mother of one daughter and five sons might very well be.

Shortly after they were married they rented a farm near Bancroft, and finally after renting four other farms, all in Bennington township, they purchased a farm of their own on 1 March 1949, at Bennington Rd. and Cook Rd., Bennington Twp., Shiawassee Co. It consisted of 180 acres. They did general farming.

Geraldine always worked like a hired man, and the first four farms they rented they used horses to do all the farm work. The first farm they were on had a "sugar bush" on it, and they used "ole Maude" hitched to a stone boat to haul the barrels of sap to the boiler. This was all done the hard way, and the final boiling down was done at the house where Geraldine added milk to it, to purify it, and when it was strained it would be as clear as could be.

On their second farm she milked their thirteen cows all by herself, during thrashing season, as Silven was threshing for the neighbors. Their third farm had no electricity or water in the house. Here all the water had to be pumped by hand, for the stock as well as the house, and had to be carried into the house, and back out. Kerosene lamps and lanterns had to be filled, the wicks trimmed, and the chimneys cleaned. The wood had to be cut and carried in.

One, never to be forgotten, episode that happened on this third rented farm she tells like this:

"One day when I was working a four horse team, the flies were bad, and the right hand horse was fighting the flies and threw her check strap up over her hame which in turn turned her to the right and the rest of the horses had to follow. Finally the line tightened so tight that the first horse to the right layed down and then the second. Fanny the third horse was turned around so that she was facing me with one foot resting on the pivot of the disk of the horse that was down. If she had moved her foot and set it down it would have gone into the sheath of the horse beneath her. I talked to her and coaxed her to keep it up for what seemed to be hours. Finally the fourth horse on the left was pulled down, and there I was with three horses down the fourth knowing she had to stand on three feet with one front foot in the air, and they were all hooked to a double disk. I kept yelling to the top of my voice, with no one hearing me. Silven and his brother had taken a load of hogs to Owosso, to the Live Stock Yards, and I was all alone.
When Silven and his brother returned home, and saw the predicament I was in they flew out to where I was. And strange as it may seem, that is the end of the story as far as I know, as I do not remember another thing.

The men, however, were able to release the horses and they were okay I was later told...

Shortly after their only daughter, Lois, was killed as the result of a farm accident, Geraldine went to work for the American Record Pressing Co., in Owosso. She worked there for eighteen years. First she worked at pressing records, then in the Print Shop, and finally was working in Returns when the factory burned 28 October, 1972. The following July she went to work at Memorial Hospital in Owosso. In the housekeeping department, she takes care of the Emergency area.

Geraldine has belonged to the Maple River Circle of Kings Daughters & Sons for the past 30 years, and has served the Circle as Secretary, Treasurer and President. She and Silven were both members of the Perry Church of the Nazarene, and proud of the lovely new church their congregation had built and were able to move into.

On Saturday, 3 April 1976, 12:30 p.m. Geraldine had an attack, selling off the farm machinery and some of the household items. She also has the farm up for sale. Some years ago they had sold all but 90 acres, now she hopes to keep 10 acres, and build her a small home, where she will be near her son Melvin and his wife Mary and her only grandchild Phillip.

Melvin Silven Vincent was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He attended school at the Octogan country school, and Owosso Academy. He was named valedictorian of the senior class of 1960. His grade point average was 3.61. He was active in the Crusaders sports teams, and held various class offices.
Melvin attended Owosso Bible College, and quit with less than half a semester from graduating.

He met Mary Kidd while they both were in college. They were married, 23 March 1963, by Dr. Floyd McCallum, assisted by the Reverends N. L. Goodman and G. E. Stace, in the Pilgrim Holiness Church in Owosso.

Melvin worked as a Mortician Assistant while attending college. After he was married he went to work for the Redmond Co., in Owosso, and in a short while they moved the factory out of town. The next day he went to work for the Mitchell-Bently Corp., and in a short while it too moved out of Owosso. The next day he went back to work very much and expects to stay there.

A family story handed down about Melvin, as told by his mother, goes like this:

"On the fourth farm we had rented, and the place we lived when we moved, the tall grass around the house with a moving machine and a team of horses, one of which was a young stallion we called "Pal."

"Unknown to me, Melvin, a toddler, had slipped out and taken off up the road to the house, and his father hadn't noticed him either. But Pal had and he wasn't about to pull that power no matter what Melvin said. So Silven got off the mower seat, and was going to wonder why Pal got some extra petting and loving, and he acted just as to say, "I know what I was doing."

Mary Kidd was born in Kentucky, but was living in Cincinnati, Ohio, at the time she came to Owosso Bible College. She has worked as a Floral Designer for two of the local florists. In 1973 she went to work at Memorial Hospital where she was trained as a Nurse Technician. She worked in I. C. U. for two years, but now is doing floor duty.

Melvin and Mary are the parents of one son, Phillip Todd Vincent.

Phillip was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. He is a sixth grader in the Morrice School. He plays trombone, first chair.

He has a Brown Swiss heifer that his Grandpa Vincent gave him for his 11th birthday. He entered her in the Shiawassee County Fair 4-H in August 1975. And there he took all Blue Ribbons on her plus a Purple one. He was supposed to take her to Lansing to the State Show, but his grandpa died suddenly on the 12th of August, and he wasn't able to go. He and his Grandpa were very close.
Lois Geraldine Vincent was born in Memorial Hospital, Owosso, Michigan. She was a healthy little girl and loved the outdoors. She and her brother, Melvin, were inseparable. She was looking forward to entering the Octogon School in the fall where her brother attended. And then what had been a fun day turned into a real heartache.

It seems, Melvin, age eleven was driving a Co-op F-3 farm tractor, which he often did, and Lois was riding in a little red play wagon attached to the rear drawbar of the tractor. They had made several trips west of their home, up and down the road, hauling stones, and this trip was to be their last before coming in for the evening, when the accident happened.

At the point of the accident, there was a sluiceway under the highway and a catch basin on the north side of the road. This left a hole about five feet deep at that point. Fresh rain on the dirt road had caused the shoulders to be soft. Melvin said, "a hole in the road caused him to go into the ditch and the tractor turned over." Both children were pinned under the tractor. Melvin had called to Lois to go for help not realizing she was pinned face downward. The tire bearing weight across her shoulders and neck, prevented her from breathing, and help arrived too late. When the tractor lunged sideways and overturned, Lois was thrown underneath its wheel.

The accident happened at 6:45 p.m. on the Bennington road, between Morrice Rd. and Cook Rd. on Saturday evening.

Her funeral service was held at the Jennings-Lyons Chapel, Owosso, Michigan on Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Reverend Kenneth Harries, of Manchester, Ohio, officiated. Burial was in Millcrest Memorial Gardens, Owosso.
Josephine Adella Malkin was born at 12:00 o'clock midnight, and so the doctor told her mother she could choose which date she wanted for her birth date, January 31st or February 1st. Her mother chose the 31st, but the doctor made an error, as her Birth Certificate came with January 30th, however she has always celebrated her birthday on the 31st. She was born at home, at that time her parents lived near Bancroft on S. Exchange road, she is the second oldest daughter of Frank and Effie (Purnish) Malkin. She attended five different country schools: Octogon No. 8, Ovid, Haldensley, Carland & Newburg. She graduated from the eighth grade from Newburg.

Besides moving a lot, as a child, she remembers attending her first movie. She and the other children had worked hard shelling pop corn one night so her father could sell it, and as a reward he took them to the Strand Theater where they saw a silent movie about a big collie dog. They had to read what was being said from below the picture. She thinks she was about eight years of age. And another time he took them to the Ionia Free Fair. Mostly their fun time was centered around life on the occasional Sunday dinner with company. She remembers that some of the relatives were the cake on one special plate, and now she has that plate and treasures it. It always brings back happy memories each time she looks at it. Whipped cream was quite a treat and she remembers she and her youngest sister skimming the cream off the top of the milk can, and whipping it, adding some sugar and vanilla and eating it before their folks had gotten up.

Josephine also remembers as a small child they had a rooster that liked to chase her. Everytime she went out to feed the chickens or even to play, there he was just one day her mother decided enough was enough, and he ended up on the Sunday dinner table.

After finishing school, Josephine worked out doing house work. It was while working near Bancroft that she met and later married Rolland Brown. After four and one half years this marriage ended in divorce.

To this union two daughters were born, Lela Irene, who only lived one week, and Betty Lou Brown.

Betty Lou Brown was born in Grace Hospital, Detroit, Michigan. She attended school in Owosso, first at the South Washington, and then when it was abandoned she attended the Lincoln School. Then her family moved near Morrice and she attended the Lincoln School. She attended the Methodist church in Morrice and sang in the choir also. After graduation she worked in the Montgomery Ward store in Owosso for a while then went to work at the Mitchell-Bentley factory also in Owosso. After a short while she was laid off, so she then went to Barton City to stay with her grandmother Brown. It was while she was staying with her that she met Dallas Harmon at Jewel Lake.

Dallas attended a country school near Mikado, and high school in Lincoln, Michigan; he dropped out in the 10th grade, but started night school in 1968 and earned his credits for his high school diploma. He graduated in May 1969 from Lincoln High School. Dallas attended a country school in 1968 and earned his credits for his high school diploma. He graduated in May 1969 from Lincoln High School.

Betty Lou and Dallas were married in the Barton City Latter Day Saints Church by Dallas' grandfather, Elder Squire, 9 May 1959. They live in Mikado. Dallas works as an inspector for the Forestry Dept., he drives truck part time, for the Dept.

In January of 1940 Josephine's youngest sister, Marcia, introduced her to Floyd. Jo was working for a family in Owosso at the time. They had their first date in July. He "popped the question" one night while they were driving down M-21. His father had died in 1935, and he was caring for his mother, so many things were to be considered. But when they told his mother of their intentions she set their wedding date for them.

They were married in the parsonage of the Methodist Church, Henderson, Michigan. Their wedding trip consisted of driving to Lansing to a restaurant for supper, and spending the night in the Kentworth Hotel there. The next day they visited Floyd's youngest sister in Lowell, Michigan, and then came home to Corunna. Floyd's mother lived with them for the first two months and then went to live with her daughters, however she returned frequently and spent time with them.

Floyd worked for the Brick Plant in Corunna, (later the name was changed to the Tile Plant). So they lived in that area until they purchased their present home on M-52 on the 13th of October 1962.

In 1962 Floyd left the Tile Plant and went to work for Simplicity Engineering in Durand, where he still works, he has been promoted from lathes to drill presses and recently to inspection, and hopes to work there until he retires.

Jo and her two sisters, Geraldine and Marcia, now laugh about the time they all had the measles. It seems Betty was coming down with them and her mother didn't know it, so they went and visited Geraldine, and her young son Melvin, Melvin started to come down with them and Geraldine wasn't aware of it, so they went and visited her sister Marcia and her young son Ted. They were all quite sick with them, Jo had to have help with her house work, but now they laugh about not 'being stingy with the red measles.'

Jo is a good cook, having worked out for many years. She belonged to the Samaritan Club in Owosso, a charity club, for thirty years. She likes to read mystery stories about old mansions and houses and likes to travel. They are hopeful that after Floyd's retirement they will be able to travel more.

Even though she has not attended church on a regular basis she feels it is important to believe in God and to pray. To be truthful, work and take care of yourself and keep in good health. Floyd was once a member of the Free Methodist Church in Corunna. They both like watching some of the religious programs on television each Sunday, and they especially like Oral Roberts.

To this union one daughter was born, Donna Jean Josephine Sackner.

Marcia Malkin was born near Laingsburg, Michigan, Shiawassee Co. She started school at the Octogan No 8 near Laingsburg. She also attended school near Carland, Ovid, Newburg and Remington No. 1.

Marcia and Jim Balcom were married in 1939, they had known each other nearly all their lives as they were second cousins. Marcia's grandmother, Ada (Sawyer) Furnish and Jim's grandmother, Darwinnie (Sawyer) Brewbaker, Hoerner were sisters.

Jim was born in Owosso and attended the old Washington School there. In 1927, when he was fourteen years old his folks moved near Bancroft, and he attended the Fremont School. His mother died when he was seventeen so his grandmother Hoerner came and lived with them and cared for the family, as there were six children ranging from eighteen years to five months. Blanche died from erysipelas of the face. Some years later Jim's father remarried and moved to Owosso, so Jim and Marcia moved to the farm. Jim's father died in 1963 and when his estate was settled Jim and Marcia bought out the rest of the heirs and bought his parents farm. They were remodeling it at the time of his death in 1970.

Jim worked at the Chevrolet Assembly Plant in Flint for 23 years, he was a utility man in the paint department. He was a member of the Bancroft Masonic Lodge, No. 382. He died on Monday, 28 September 1970, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, Michigan. His funeral was conducted at the Love Funeral Home in Bancroft at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, by the Reverend Lawrence Brooks, pastor of the United Methodist Church in Bancroft. Burial was in Hillcrest Memorial Gardens, Owosso, Michigan.

To this union two sons were born, David James and Ted Rodger Balcom.

Harold Malkin was born near Carland, Mich. He started school at Bennington No. 1. He also attended school at Perry, Ashley and Williamston. He graduated from Williamston in June 1945.

His mother died when he was nine years old. He stayed with his father on the farm for a while, and worked with him in gas stations in both Perry and Ashley. After his father quit the gas station in Ashley Harold went to live with his great-uncle and aunt, Fred and Hannah Eckers, in Williamston. It was here that he met Leta Hjerpe.

They were married, 16 Aug. 1945, in the Williamston Methodist Church by the Reverend Rushcong, pastor. They first lived in Williamston, then Corunna, Bancroft and Perry.

Leta well remembers the first pie she made for Harold. It was Elderberry and she didn't put anything but the berries in it. She says, "boy was that a tart one!"

Harold and Leta had been married for 21 years when he died. He had known he had diabetes for 14 years. Death however was due to a coronary.

Leta attended school at Burgess, Detroit; Redford, Detroit and Williamston. Her father was a Detroit Policeman.

After Harold's death Leta worked as a Nurses Aide for four years. Then 22 June 1974 she married Jason Nichols. He works for Agrico, near Williamston. He was married before, but had no children, so is happy to have a family and a little granddaughter who is "the apple of his eye." They live near Haslett, Michigan.

Harold and Leta were the parents of four sons, Steven Harold, George Robert, Timothy Michael and Richard Lee Malkin.

Richard Malkin was born in St. Lawrence Hospital, Lansing, Michigan. He attended Perry High School, but in 1971 he was stricken with a malignant tumor on the brain. But with "a marvelous surgeon and God’s love he is cured today.” He is very mechanical and has his head under the hood of his car more than anything else in his spare time, always taking something apart and putting it back together. He works in a laundry, running the washers, in a nursing home. He is taking night courses to get his high school diploma.
Earl Alger Furnish, the youngest child of William and Ada (Sawyer) Furnish, was born in Essex Twp., Clinton Co., Michigan. He was born in the farm home of his grandparents, Amos and Cynthia (VanHousen) Sawyer, who were living on the Will Sickles farm 2 miles east of Maple Rapids, on the Maple Rapids road at the time. His parents lived on the Chandler road, when he was born, but later bought five acres in Bingham Twp., and built a small four room house.

Earl attended the Parkers School, Bingham Twp., except for one year when he and his brother Clyde and sister Effie attended the Rowell School in Duplain Twp., since it was one mile from their home and the Parkers School was a mile and a half, and besides they could ride with their father on his way to "run his mail route." Each week-day morning he went in to Rochester Colony and picked up the mail and then went to Sheperdsville where he picked up the mail and the small freight and delivered it en-route back to Rochester Colony, as well as "the Colony" then he continued his delivery on his way home, delivering down the side roads as well.

The children were only allowed to attend the Rowell school for one year, as their enrollment had increased, and the teacher didn't want the extra burden of children outside her own district.

Earl's father died when Earl was 12 years of age, so his mother sold their small place in the country and bought a small home in Maple Rapids, where they moved and he attended school. Here, as he became older, he worked after school and on Saturday in Otto Bullis' Drug Store.

Sometime after he was eighteen he went to Lansing and stayed with his brother Clyde and his wife, Clyde and Viola, and worked for Clyde at the Artificial Stone Company. He then went to work for the Rikert Lumber Co., and from there to the Hall Lumber Co., where he worked as foreman for four years.

It was while working at Hall's that he was introduced, by a friend, to Elsie Love, the first Sunday after Thanksgiving 1923, and on Christmas Eve he asked her to marry him, she accepted his proposal so he took her home to meet his mother and the rest of the family on New Years Eve, and they were married, 24 January 1924.

They were married by the Reverend George, in the parsonage of the Mt. Hope Methodist Episcopal Church in Lansing.

Elsie was one of six children, she was born in Carmel Twp., Eaton Co., Michigan. She had 3 brothers older and 2 sisters younger than she. She was always healthy and loved horses and the out-of-doors. So at the age of four her parents let her go to the country and live with her aunt and uncle, Jessie and Merritte Locaus. Jessie was her mother's sister, and the Locaus had no children.

Her uncle's farm was located 2 1/2 miles north of Gresham and 1 mile west or about 10 miles N W of Charlotte. She attended the Smith School and walked 1 3/4 miles to and from school.

When Elsie was eleven years of age she and her aunt and uncle were all baptised at the same time in the Gresham Methodist church where they all attended church and Sunday School each Sunday.

Elsie enjoyed living on the farm, working and caring for the horses, and helping her uncle with the farm work and stayed there until World War I. She then left and went to Lansing to live and worked in the Reo Factory, later she worked at the Olds. In 1919, because of failing health, her aunt and uncle sold the farm and moved to Charlotte where they bought a home.

After Earl and Elsie's marriage they went to live with friends, Genevieve and Walter Mendell. They lived there until June then moved into a new home at 1598 Lansing Ave., which they bought. After living here for three years they decided city life was not for them, they both preferred country living, so they sold the house, Earl quit Hall's and they rented a farm near Webberville, where they lived for one year, then moved to Stockbridge where they only lived six months as the farm was sold. So they sold their interest in the stock and tools and rented a small farm near Eaton Rapids where they lived for three and one half years. Then the depression hit. They moved in with Clyde and Viola and family on the Wallace Moore farm in Shiawassee Co. This was a sixteen room house, with 2 separate stairways, so they could have their own private rooms. Viola was ill at the time, and Elsie was able to take over much of the household duties, and Earl could help with the farm work. They lived here for one year and then moved to the Henry Moore farm, a mile north of where his brother lived. Here he worked for Theodore Straugh for three years, then moved to the Elmer Woodman farm on M-47 near Bennington, where they lived for three more years, and finally moved to the Otis Wough farm on Bennington Rd., where they lived for fifteen years, all in Shiawassee Co. While living on the Wough farm their house caught fire and burned to the ground. They built a small house there and lived there for one year, then Elsie inherited her Aunt Jessie and Uncle Merrie Loomis' home in Charlotte, so they had an auction and moved to 421 Henry St. in 1934.

Earl was a very handy person, a "Jack of all trades, master of none" type of person. He had many skills and was in demand for many and varied odd-jobs. Besides farming he could do cement work, carpentry work, electrical work, as well as paint and wall-paper.

In Charlotte he worked for Rice Fowler. Mr. Fowler owned the Chevrolet & Oldsmobile Sales & Service in Charlotte, as well as owned five farms. In the summer he worked painting the farm buildings, and worked in the farm store in Charlotte during the winter. He had worked for Mr. Fowler for seven years when he was killed in an automobile accident, about noon on Wednesday, 19 January 1934, near Charlotte. Earl and Elsie would have celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on the 24th.

His funeral service was held at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday at the Presbyterian Church in Charlotte. The Reverend Kenneth L. Harris, pastor of the Byron Methodist Church officiated. (Mrs. Harris (Marion) in his niece.) He was buried in the Creshan cemetery, Eaton Co., Michigan. The funeral sermon Text used was: Isaiah 53.

No children were born to this union.

Elsie married Harold L. Williams, a man she had gone to school with as a child, as well as they had known each other all their lives; Harold's mother and Elsie's Uncle Merritt were first cousins, they were married in October 1964.

"Thomas Edward Furnish was born in Buffalo, N. Y. Aug. 9, 1836. In 1841 he moved with his parents to Brookfield, Stark Co., and from there to Savannah, Ashland Co., in 1844. In 1860 Mr. Furnish came to Indiana and located near Spencerville, on the farm on which he spent the remainder of his life. January 26, 1863 he purchased 80 acres of farm land from Marvin Francis for the sum of $800.00. He was 27 years old at the time. It was the W 1/2 N E 1/4 of Sec. 2 Twp. 32, Range 13, which was Cedar Creek Twp., Allen Co., Indiana. It was located across the road (County Line) from the 80 acres his father, David Furnish, had purchased in 1860 and the next 80 acres west.

"Nov. 17, 1863 witnessed his marriage with Miss Caroline Cuppy. This union was blessed with four daughters, one having preceded the father to the spirit world.

They were married in Ashland Co., Ohio, then the couple emigrated to Indiana where he had been working hard to build them a home.

"From a humble beginning as a poor boy in the green woods, in a log cabin, he lived alone and made the first progress toward the beautiful home that he has always loved, and where he spent his declining years. Being of a very ambitious nature, in his younger years often having to perform the most arduous labor he early in life became a victim to failing health, consequently he has suffered much and his last days may have been mingled with perplexities; however it can truthfully be said that brother Furnish's good qualities are worthy of emulation, and that the world is better for his having lived in it."

"After a short illness, resulting from paralysis, he departed this life, June 2, 1900, at the age of 63 yrs., 9 mos. and 23 days. Mr. Furnish was a good neighbor, an honest man in all his dealings, and a respected citizen. The funeral services were conducted at the house Monday, June 4, by Rev. W. H. Schrock, pastor of the Lutheran church. Many friends and neighbors were present to pay their last respects to the dead. Interment in Spencerville cemetery."

"Mr. Furnish may have had his faults and who are they who have none? he had many noble traits of character which are well known to Those of his neighbors, who have been closely affiliated with him. Industry, economy, virtue and sincerity are perhaps the predominating traits in his life. The writer has known him since he first arrived in this county, and has been a witness to the life he has lived among us. No word of scandal can or dare be truthfully said of his private character."

"Dearest Brother, we will miss you
When your form no more we see,
But we trust that you in Jesus,
Have gained a glorious victory.

Husband, father, brother, friend,
When Heaven's beauties are unfurled
We hope to meet you with the ransomed,
And view the glories of that world.

Jesus is the Rose of Sharon
And he has promised perfect rest
We will lay your earthly house away
With his emblem on your breast.

And we trust that when the reapers
Come to gather in the sheaves,
You will be gathered with the saved ones
And not cast out with the leaves."

Caroline Cuppy, his wife, was born in Ashland Co., Ohio, the daughter of John (1797 - 6 Sept. 1876) and Belinda Wheeler (1800 - 1 May 1869) Cuppy. The Cuppy's were early pioneers, moving to Ashland Co., Ohio in 1817. They settled in Clear Creek Twp., a "Scottish Settlement." The John Cuppy farm is located along the Olivesburg Road, 1 mile S. W. of Savannah. In 1818 John Cuppy and his bride began life together in a log cabin home there. Five generations have lived on the farm. Two houses have been destroyed by fire. The present house was moved out from Savannah. Caroline was one of seven children. The other children were: Susan, Eleanor, Mary A, Edwin, Abraham and Wesley Cuppy.

"In the year 1863 she, with her husband, emigrated to Indiana, settling on the farm where she resided the remainder of her life. In clearing the farm and establishing a home she endured the toils and cares incident to pioneer life. By untiring industry the forests were cleared away and the rude log cabin has long since given place to the substantial and commodious brick residence which now marks the home site." 6

The present owners love this home and take real pride in keeping it in beautiful condition. In 1972 they installed electric heat, and were told it needed no insulation, the foot thick walls were built with the brick laid so as to make air cells, which was the best insulation you could have they were told.

"Mother Furnish was a woman always found at her post of duty, her children having first place in her affections. She was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence, being a financier of marked ability, and leaves her children well provided with the goods of this world."

At the age of 40 she purchased 80 acres, next to the present 80 acres that Thomas had purchased just prior to their marriage. She purchased it from Thomas' sister and brother-in-law, Mary Ann (Furnish) and David Shearer for $2400.00. It was purchased on 31 Aug. 1872, and described as: E 1/2 N 1/4 Sec. 2, Twp. 32, Range 13.

This was the 80 acres west of their present farm, also in Cedar Creek, Allen Co., Indiana.

"About twelve weeks previous to her death she fell and sustained a fractured hip. She was given the best of medical care and was carefully watched and nursed by her daughters, but the time had come for her to lay down the burdens of life and take her departure to the spirit world. She departed this life July 5, 1904, aged 72 years, 2 months and 24 days.

In conversation with her pastor she declared her saving faith in Jesus Christ, accepting him as her personal Saviour. Having expressed a desire for baptism the sacrament was administered to her by Rev. M. C. Pittenger, pastor of the M. E. church of Leo.

Mrs. Furnish in early life was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church in her native state.

The funeral services took place from the residence July 8, in charge of G. H. Simmons, pastor of the M. E. church of Spencerville, and in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives. Interment was made in the Spencerville cemetery.

"Rest for the toiling hand,
Rest for the aching brow,
Rest for the weary way sore feet,
Rest from all labor now.

Soon shall the trump of God
Give out the welcome sound
That shakes the silent chamber walls
And breaks the turf-sealed ground.

'Twas sown in weakness here;
'Twill then be raised in power;
That which was sown an earthly seed
Shall spring a heavenly flower."

Frances A. Furnish, the eldest daughter of Thomas and Caroline (Cuppy) Furnish, was born in Cedar Creek Twp., Allen Co., Indiana. It is believed that she lived in and around this area until about 1913. After she and her sister sold their parents' farm in 1905, the Auburn Courthouse records show that Frances bought and sold various lots in Auburn up until 1913.

It is not known whether Frances, and her sister C. Mary (Marie) and Marie's husband all migrated to Canada at the same time or whether Frances joined Marie after Mr. Clausen's death. The two women lived together at least in later years, as they sent a Christmas letter each year. Frances did some rather nice drawings of birds and nature scenes, which were sent to the family. She never married; she was living in Cereal, Alberta, Canada at the time of her death, and was buried there. She was 81 when she died.

Olive F. Furnish, was born in Cedar Creek Twp., Allen Co., Indiana. She attended a Normal School, but it is not known if she finished the course and taught school or not. She was married to Vern Smith at age 22, and the following year gave birth to her only child, Glen, when he was very young they separated.

On July 1902 Olive purchased a lot in Auburn from Minnie Bartels. It was Lot 60 in the Auburn Gas Addition. Then 1 August 1905 she bought 3 lots from Emma A. Shaffer in Auburn in the Enseleys First Addition. She paid $1300 for the first lot and $1200 for the others.

During the 1940's, probably 1941, an unknown man sent Glen a $10.00 bill through the mail explaining that he had rented a room from Olive and had left without paying his $2.00 fee and wanted to get right with the Creator, so wanted Olive's son to have the money with interest! So it is assumed that after Olive and Vern separated, she must have rented rooms, or perhaps operated a boarding house.

In a letter from Ida (Mrs. James Furnish) to Ada (Mrs. William Furnish) in Michigan she wrote:
   Auburn, Indiana Oct. 1, 1905
   "The Furnish folks are all well as usual. Tom's girls sold their farm and moved to Auburn. Ollie the second girl has fits. She was married and has a boy eleven years old, they live together. She and her man parted. I had them with me three weeks this summer...all Tom's girls have terrible tempers...."
James and Ida Furnish lived across the road and a little east of Thomas and Caroline (Cal) Furnish. Evidently Olive was not well, either she had seizures or an emotional illness. She died a year later at age 36. She was buried in the White City Cemetery in Spencerville. There is a tall light brown marker that marks the graves of her mother and father as well as her sister Lona and herself. The marker is engraved on all four sides.

Vern Smith remarried and had a daughter, Erna (Smith) Beard, who lives in Auburn, as well as two other children.

Glen was thirteen years old when his mother died. He then went to live with foster parents, the George Sleussman family in Auburn, Indiana. Glen worked with his father, Vern Smith, long enough to learn a good deal about carpentry. In 1927 Glen built a house at Point Place, Toledo, Ohio. The following year he went to Flint, Michigan to work. Here he met Edna Plummer, where both had jobs, so in June of 1926 they were married in Flint and set up housekeeping in Toledo. When the depression 'lowered the boom' on the building industry, Glen heard about a small contractor in Crestline, Ohio, so in 1937 he sold the Toledo home and moved to Crestline where he continued to work until a few weeks prior to his death. He was a World War I Veteran, stationed in England.

After Glen's death Edna went to live with her daughter Virginia, but after becoming paralyzed and under heavy medication, she and her brother Lyman had her transferred to Crestline Nursing Home, where she died six months later.

Glen and Edna were the parents of two children: Lyman Earl and Virginia Rose Smith.

Lyman and Gladys were classmates in Crestline, Ohio. Gladys's father was pastor of the First Methodist Church in Crestline. Her natural mother died when she was twelve years of age. Her father had remarried before he became pastor at Crestline. Both Lyman and Gladys graduated from high school in 1946 and both attended and graduated from Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, Ohio. They were married in 1952, on his father's birthday. They went to New Jersey where Gladys taught primary grades while Lyman attended Drew Seminary for three years, in Madison, N. J. After seminary graduation and ordination they settled in Emerson, Iowa where they lived and where Lyman pastored Methodist churches in Emerson and Hastings. They returned to Ohio after his father's death in 1957. They have lived at several Ohio locations, including Crestline, Greenwich, and Perry. Then they purchased a country home in Geneva, Ohio in 1966, where they reside today, and he pastores the Baptist church there. They are the parents of two daughters: Colette Eileen and Valerie Carmen Smith.

Virginia graduated from Crestline High School in 1948, and worked at a local bank until she saved enough money to enroll in X-ray training at Cincinnati General Hospital from which she received her registry in 1952. After seven years work in that field, she met a healthy patient, Walter Gibb Hagans, they were married in 1959. They live in the city of Cincinnati because of Walter’s work for the city of Cincinnati’s Finance Dept.; however they like the country so much that they have purchased a 20 acre playground in southern Indiana, 50 miles from Cincinnati, where they raise a garden, and stalk the weeds as per Euell Gibbons explanation of edible weeds.

Walter was in World War II, in the Air Force, a Radio Operator on planes. He was in the Pacific Theater. They have no children.

C. Mary Furnish was born in Cedar Creek Twp., Allen Co., Indiana. She later on went mostly by the name of Marie. She was married to Amos Luttman in 1869, but that marriage ended in divorce. There were no children born to that union.

The Auburn Courthouse records show that she purchased from Wm. C. Henderson for $75.00 Lot 39 in Spencerville of the Shutt and Henderson addition, and that she and her sister Frances purchased from Fluke Heirs, Lot 35 in Auburn for $2900, recorded 31 Jan. 1905, and that she sold 40 acres to Wm. More Eley, on 26 April 1906 for $800. It was described as S E 1/2 of S E 1/2 of Section 14, Twp. 35, Range 13, and that she and Frances bought from Benjamin F. Hoopingamer lots 23 and 35 in the Flukes 3rd addition, on 12 Nov. 1906 for $3000.

Sometimes after this Marie migrated to Canada. It is not known if Marie and her second husband, a man by the name of Clausen went to Canada by themselves or if her sister Frances went with them, or if she came after Clausen’s death. The two women lived together at least in later years, as they sent a Christmas letter to Glen’s family each year. At the time of her death she was in her 80's and lived in Cereal, Alberta, Canada. Her estate was settled in or about the year 1963. As at that time the surviving cousins were informed that they were named in her estate.

Her estate did not involve real estate, but only personal items, such as furniture and jewelry, some of which were supposed to be of antique value. She was also supposed to have had the David Furnish Family Bible. The cousins each received a little less than seventeen dollars ($17.00).

There are only four living descendants of the Thomas Edward Furnish family at this writing (1975), Lyman Earl Smith, great-grandson, and his sister Virginia Rose (Smith) Hagans, great-granddaughter, and Lyman's two daughters: Cootie Eileen and Valerie Carmen Smith, both great-great-granddaughters.

Re: Estate of Marie C. Clausen, Dec'd. File No. 27062.
David and Mary Ann Furnish Shearer
Mary Ann Furnish, at the age of six moved with her parents from Stark Co. to Ashland Co., Ohio. Her parents bought 25 acres of land in Clear Creek Twp., near Savannah. On 17 Mar. 1859 she married David Shearer, the seventh child of a family of twelve children of Solomon W. Shearer (b.22 May 1795-d.10 Dec. 1843) and Susannah Bortner (b.7 Apr. 1797-d.7 Feb. 1886). He came to Ashland Co. with his parents when he was four years old. They settled in Montgomery Twp. south of Ashland, where he spent his early years. The Shearers came from Fayette Co., Pennsylvania. His brothers and sisters were: Peter, Israel, Christina, Margaret, Daniel, Rebecca, Philip, Frederick, Julianne, John and William Shearer.

According to the History of Ashland County David spent two years in Iowa. It is interesting to note that Mary’s brother, John, spent three years (1870-1872) also in Iowa, after he was discharged from the Civil War and had first spent four years in Ohio. One wonders if they went out there together? As 31 August 1872 David and Mary Shearer sold eighty acres of land in Cedar Creek Twp., Allen Co., Indiana to Caroline Furnish (Mrs. Thomas Furnish) for $2400. This property was located next to their present eighty acres, and across the road, but in DeKalb Co., from the eighty acres that Mary’s parents (David and Caroline Furnish) owned. In fact Thomas, Abraham and James all owned property close to their parents. So perhaps Mary and David also lived there at one time, or intended to.

To this union six children were born: Ida Florence, William Thadeus, Susannah Bortner (Sude), Harriet Caroline (Hattie), Margaret Myrtle (Maggie), and David F. Shearer.

Mary died at the age of 55, after six months of illness, five of which she was confined to her bed. Her illness was first diagnosed as rheumatism, later it developed into spinal meningitis.

With the deepest regret we announce the death of Mrs. David Shearer mentioned of whose illness has been made in these columns. For many weary months she had been a great sufferer, and, although everything that loving hearts could suggest was done for her, the end came Wednesday morning at 1 o’clock. Mrs Shearer was a noble woman in every relation in life, and the announcement of her death will be received with sorrow in a wide circle of friends. A devoted and loving wife and mother, a kind friend and neighbor, she has gone to the reward of the faithful. Mrs. Shearer’s maiden name was Mary A. Furnish and she had reached the age of 55 years, 9 months and 13 days. She was born in Stark county and was married to David Shearer March 16, 1859. A husband and four children mourn her departure. The funeral services will be held at the family res-
She has gone to the reward of the faithful. For many weary months she was a great sufferer, and although everything that loving hearts could suggest was done, her spirit took its flight April 25, 1894.

Mary A. Furnish was born in Stark county, Ohio, July 13, 1838. At the age of six years her parents moved near Savannah, Ohio. She was married to David Shearer, of Ashland, March 17, 1859. Two sons and four daughters were born to them. One son and one daughter having preceded her to the spirit land. In early life she united with the Presbyterian church, of Savannah, of which she remained a member until a short time after her marriage, when she, with her husband, united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of Ashland, and remained until her death a faithful and consistent member. She was not demonstrative in her experience, but practical in her life. She was generous and self-denying, and in deeds of love and kindness will long be remembered here and have a record on high. She was a noble woman in every relation of life, a devoted and loving wife and mother, a kind friend and neighbor. Often during her sickness she would say to her husband, "It will be hard to say good-bye to you and the children, but I think my time here is short," and at each time she would entreat them to meet her in heaven. Two days before her death and after she could not speak above a whisper, she kissed her husband good-bye and whispered, "Meet me in heaven." She left this life leaving no doubt as to her triumph in the last conflict. So and flowers, the loving tributes of her friends and her sisters in the Relief Corps, her body was laid from our sight, to await the day when she shall pass to the triumphant review before the throne. Thus is lost to us for earth a beautiful Christian life, and gained for us another friend to welcome us on the other shore.

"How joyful is the thought that lingers,
When love's ones cross death's sea,
That when our labors are ended,
With them we'll ever be."

"No parting words shall e'er be spoken
In that bright land of flowers,
But songs of joy, and peace, and gladness,
Shall ever more be ours."

The choir sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "My Jesus as Thou Wilt," and "Earth has No Sorrow That Heaven can not Heal."

Rev. Mr. Stroup read the fifteenth chapter of I Corinthians and founded his remarks on the same.

"The funeral of Mrs. David Shearer was held at the family residence last Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. P. B. Stroup, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of which the deceased was a faithful and consistent member. The last rites were brief but impressive, the large number of friends present testifying to the love and regard in which Mrs. Shearer was held. At the close the Women's Relief Corps service was read over the departed member who was highly esteemed by the order, and each member placed a bouquet upon the casket upon which rested the other many and beautiful floral offerings. Then the loved form was borne from the home which the wife and mother had made attractive by her presence."

DAVID SHEARER, PASSES AWAY

David Shearer, Sr., venerable and honored Ashland citizen, pioneer manufacturer, and vice president of the Ashland Centennial Association of 1915, passed away this morning at 8:45 o'clock at his residence, 303 Maple street, in his 87th year. He had been ill for a long time owing to infirmities of his advanced years.

Mr. Shearer was born November 30, 1834 in Fayette county, Pennsylvania and was the last of a family 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. William Shearer. Mr. Shearer was four years of age when the family removed to Ashland county and settled on the Shearer farm in Montgomery township, south of Ashland. On this farm David Shearer's earlier years were spent. Removing to Ashland Mr. Shearer was at first engaged in the carpenter and contracting business and about a half century ago went into the saw mill business, being first associated with N. B. Dressier and subsequently with Philip Shearer, Martin V. Kagey and John Kagey. Mr. Shearer was still interested in the Shearer & Kagey company at the time of his death.

On March 17, 1859, Mr. Shearer was united in marriage with Miss. Mary Furnish who passed away April 25, 1894. Six children were born to them. One died in infancy; a daughter, Harriet, passed away in 1892, and another daughter, Mrs. Ralph Smith of this city died in July, 1913. One son, William Shearer, and two daughters, Miss Sude Shearer and Mrs. Margaret Edwards, all of Ashland, survive. There are 7 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mr. Shearer was a quiet, uncontentious man, noble-hearted and interested in the welfare of the community. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him and his memory will be cherished.

Funeral services at the Shearer home on Maple street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, his pastor, the Rev. Dr. L. R. Akers of the Methodist church officiating. Burial will be in the Ashland cemetery."

LOVING TRIBUTES TO MEMORY OF NOBLE CITIZEN

The funeral services of the late David Shearer were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his home at 303 Maple street, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. R. Akers of the M. E. church who took for his text the latter part of the 2nd verse of the 127th Psalm: "For so he giveth his beloved sleep."
Mrs. Don Richards sang two beautiful solos—"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Some Day, Some Time We'll Understand." She was accompanied by Miss Ethel Stauffer. The numerous beautiful floral designs gave evidence of the high regard in which he was held. He was widely known, having been in the lumber business here for about 50 years. He was the first president of the then Board of Trade, now called the Chamber of Commerce. He served in the city council for a number of years, was on the school board and served as one of the trustees of the water works. He was also a member of the official board of the M. E. church and a member of the W. D. Stem Bible class.

The official board of the Friday Afternoon Bible Club, of which his daughter, Mrs. Edwards, is a member, attended in a body. A number of letters of condolence from the different lumber companies with whom he did business, have been received by the family.

Relatives and friends from out of town who attended the funeral were James Furnish, Spencerville, Ind., Mrs. Isaac Grosh, Grabill, Ind., Mrs. John Grosh, Kendallville, Ind., Mrs. E. L. Hilkey, Auburn, Ind., Mrs. Theron Pilgrim, Orvilla, Ind., Mrs. Frank Klopfeinstein, Leo, Ind., Mrs. C. H. Cuppet and Miss Pearl Barker, Fayette City, Pa., Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards and Mrs. Chas. Workman, Mansfield, O., Mr. Hudson of the Carter & Reed Co., Mansfield, O., Frank White, Plymouth, Mrs. J. N. Fulmer, and Mrs. Frank Walker and son Kenneth Nova, Mrs. Theodore White and Mrs. Harrison Fols, Savannah, Mrs. Fremont Masters, Rowsburg, and Ora Shearer, Lodi."

"Following a stroke of apoplexy sustained the previous Sunday evening, Mrs. Ida Smith, wife of Ralph A. Smith, passed away last Wednesday evening at her home, 208 East Walnut street. Up until the time she was stricken, Mrs. Smith had apparently been in her usual good health, and her sudden and untimely death came as a great blow to relatives and friends. Mrs. Smith is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mary, Martha and Ruth; one son, Thad; her father, David Shearer; two sisters, Miss Sude Shearer and Mrs. Milton Edwards; and one brother, William Shearer. Mrs. Smith was a devoted wife and mother, a loyal member of the Methodist Church and faithful in all the relations of life. Funeral services conducted by the Rev. John I. Wean, of the M. E. Church were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Smith residence. The Methodist quartette sang. There were many floral tributes testifying to the love and esteem in which Mrs. Smith was held. Interment was made in the Ashland Cemetery."

Relatives and friends here from out of town for the funeral were: MRS. Augusta Smith, Washington, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Simmons and son, Harry, and daughter, Myrtle, of Perrysville; Freeman Smith, Toledo; Mrs. Benjamin Underhill, Miss Mary Rice, Cleveland; Mrs. Frank Walker, Mrs. J. Brown, Mrs. White, Mrs. Frank Burge, Mrs. H. Brown, all of Savannah; Solomon Shearer, Mrs. Myrtle VanAuken, Auburn, Ind.; Mrs. J. N. Pulker, and Mrs. Rev. McCauley of Nova."

"Ralph A. Smith, aged 72, died at his home 524 Taylor Street at 6:17 A. M. today after a brief illness. Mr. Smith was formerly employed in a local lumber mill. He was born in Peoria, Illinois, April 7, 1858 and had resided in Ashland practically all of his life. Surviving are three daughters and one son, Miss Mary Smith at home, Mrs. Martha Barman, Placenta, California, Mrs. Ruth Williams, Alhambra, California; one sister, Mrs. A. W. Simmons of Perrysville, and one brother, F. O. Smith of Toledo, and four grandchildren. His wife preceded him in death several years ago. He was a member of the local Methodist church. The body will be removed from the Heyl Funeral Home to the home on Taylor Street where funeral services will be held Monday at 2:30 P. M. with the Rev. H. R. Whiting in charge. Burial will be made in Ashland Cemetery."

Ralph worked at the Shearer & Kagey Mill, first he drove a team of horses and delivered lumber for the mill. They were the parents of four children: David Thadeus, Mary Lucina, Martha Louise and Ruth Pauline Smith.

W. T. Shearer of East Liberty Street is a patient at Samaritan Hospital as the result of a painful accident to his left hand Tuesday morning when he caught it in the planer at the Shearer and Chesshir Mill. The plane peeled off the skin from the wrist knuckles and made a deep cut across the palm of the hand.

No one was present in the planing room at the time of the accident but Shearer notified fellow workmen of his injury and was removed immediately to the hospital, where Dr. J. Fridline dressed the injury. Several stitches were taken both across the palm and the back of the hand.

Shearer is reported as resting as comfortably at the hospital as could be expected, while close watch is being made of the injury to avoid complications.

There were no other injuries except the injury to Shearer's hand and the nervous shock resulting from the painful infliction.

From the same paper Wednesday evening, December 1, 1926, page 1, top far left.

William T. Shearer, one of Ashland's lifelong residents and partner in the Shearer and Chesshir Planing Mill, died yesterday at 3 p.m. at Samaritan Hospital as the result of lockjaw which set in Sunday after a severe injury to his hand at the Planing Mill Tuesday of last week. Shearer was 65 years old at the time of his death.

All his life, Shearer has spent in the City of Ashland having been born here in 1861, the son of David Shearer, who was the founder of the planing mill of which the son later became a partner member. He joined with his father in conducting the mill at an early age and after the death of the elder Shearer he took over his father's ownership and had been associated there ever since.

Elected first president of the first organized adult Bible class in the world, the Stem Bible Class of the Methodist Church. Shearer always took a great interest in this class and was active as a member of the Methodist Church for many years.

As a woodworker he was known for his artistic and capable talent, one of his most attractive works being the canopy now in the Odd Fellows Hall. This canopy he designed and made himself.

He was an active member of the Odd Fellows Lodge here. He was also a former member of the Rotary Club, but resigned from the organization because of his work at the mill which kept him from attending the meetings.

Beside his wife, the deceased is survived by a daughter, Mary Louise, and one son, David Milton, two grandchildren and two sisters, Sude Shearer and Mrs. Margaret Edwards, all of this city.

The funeral services will be held at the home, 232 East Liberty Street on Friday at 2 p.m. with the Reverend H. R. Whiting officiating. Burial will be made at the Ashland Cemetery.

Odd Fellows are requested by the Noble Grand to meet in the I. O. O. F. Hall at 1 p.m. on Friday to attend the funeral of their brother.
Orline Shearer was also a member of the Methodist Church in Ashland. She died at her home, 303 Maple Street, Ashland at 11 p.m. on Sunday. Her funeral services were conducted from the Heyl Funeral Home on Broad Street on Wednesday at 2 p.m. with the Reverend H. S. Powell officiating. Burial was in Ashland Cemetery.

William and Orline Shearer were the parents of three children: David Milton, Mary Louise and Margaret Mae Shearer.

Milt Shearer worked as a pattern maker, retail lumber, and then in 1930 as inspector in a machine shop in Youngstown and Akron, Ohio. Sometimes after 1944 he left the Ohio area and moved to California. He was married twice to Pearle Watson, both times ending in divorce. His death was due to a coronary. He suffered his first one on 16 October, then suffered his second one while eating in a restaurant on his way home from visiting his wife, who was a patient in the hospital at the time, on 26 November, 1973.

He was the last of the Shearer line of the four Shearer brothers (Fred, John, Philip and David) that settled in Ohio during the 1840's. John was a farmer, living near Ashland, Ohio, as was Fred. Phillip and David were carpenters. Milt was the only grandson of the founder of the Shearer-Kagey Lumber Co. of Ashland, David Shearer. Even though they were divorced Pearle remained a close friend of the Shearer family and cared for Susannah Shearer (Sude) during her illness prior to her death. Pearle suffered a heart attack the day after her sister's funeral and died a few days later.

Milt and Pearle were the parents of two daughters: Margaret June and Barbara Adair Shearer.

Louise and Raymond attended the same high school, but really never met until they both were employed at Faultless Rubber Co., in Ashland, Ohio. Louise worked there as a secretary. Raymond lost his job at Faultless during the depression. He then got a job with the Goodrich Company, but worked during the war at the Lone Star Defense Corp., which was managed for the government by Goodrich in Texarkana, Texas. From there they went to Miami, Oklahoma, with Goodrich, then to Tuscaloosa, Alabama, as personnel manager until his retirement.

Louise is a wonderful cook, and does beautiful needlework. She enjoys reading, crossword puzzles. Both Raymond and Louise are great University of Alabama basketball fans, and hold season tickets. They travel with the team to many out-of-town games. Raymond is an officer of the "Tip Off Club" made up of team supporters. Besides this and an interest in football, he enjoys reading and working in the yard. Raymond had open heart surgery in 1972, and has had a remarkable recovery. Louise was in the hospital a couple of months for a hip ball and socket replacement in 1974.

Hattie Shearer was a talented musician. She played the piano. She could go to a concert and come home and play all the music by ear. She was stricken at age fifteen with Epilepsy. The Memorial Folder given out at her funeral read as follows:

"It seemed fitting that a life of eleven long years of intense suffering should be set free on Easter Sabbath, and her glad spirit go to join the angelic choir and sing anew Christ is risen indeed.

Hattie Shearer was a child of rare promise and sweetest Christian grace; she was gifted with unusual intellectual ability that never waned during all her sickness. Fifteen beautiful, happy years she went in and out among us, scattering sunshine and joy by her birthful and sunny disposition, winning the affections of her schoolmates and esteem of her teachers by faithful application to her school work. Then suddenly, without a moment of warning, she was stricken down by disease, which, for eleven long years, she bore with a loving, gentle patience, touching to see, always looking on the bright side, hoping for the best; she cheered and comforted those who so lovingly ministered to her necessities. Everything that love and medical skill could do to relieve her was done, but all to no avail. A few days before her birthday she remarked to her sister: "I wish I could spend my next birthday in heaven." Her wish was granted. A class friend remarked: "It has been a mystery why one so young and beautiful, loving and beloved as Hattie should be compelled to suffer so; it is a mystery we earthly beings can not solve, and will have to wait until that day when the rainbow of God's clear and beautiful..."
explanation shall be hung across all the departed showers of earthly grief." And so the sorrowing, bereaved hearts, who miss her so much here, bow in sweet submission and wait the Father's time to explain all. Surrounded by beautiful flowers, the loving tributes of her many friends, she was laid away to rest in the full hope of a glad immortality beyond.

"There is no death; the leaves may fall,
The flowers may fade and pass away,
They only wait through wintry hours
The coming of the May."

"Oh friends! no proof beyond this yearning,
This outreach of our souls we need—
God will not mock the hope he giveth,
No love He prompts shall vainly plead."

A Friend.

"The church choir, of which she was once a member, sang her favorite hymn, "Ashamed of Jesus" "Peacefully Rest" and "Good Night."
The Reverend Mr. Mather read the XXXIX Psalm, also the fifteenth chapter of I Corinthians, commencing with the forty-first verse, and founded his remarks on the same."

Maggie Shearer was born in Ashland and lived most of her life in Ashland, with the exception of two or three years spent in California. She was a member of the Methodist church and Women's Foreign Missionary Society and Mrs. I. H. Good's Sunday School Class of that Church. She was also a member of the Bethany Rebekah Lodge.
She married Milton Edwards on Christmas Day 1903. They were only married five years when he died.
The following is copied from a newspaper clipping: Times-Gazette, Ashland, Ohio:

"For over two years past Mr. and Mrs. Edwards lived in the west.
While employed as traveling salesman for Dr. Hess & Clark Mr. Edwards contracted a severe cold during a business trip in the interest of the firm in the state of Pennsylvania. His fatal illness dated from that time. Shortly after having undergone an operation at Sharick's Hospital here, which temporarily improved his condition, it was decided that he go west for a change of climate and he and his wife located at Los Angeles, Cal. For over a year his health seemed to improve.
and during that period he was employed as city salesman for the Standard Woodenware Co. of Los Angeles. His health again failed and he and Mrs. Edwards left Los Angeles for Denver, afterwards going to Albuquerque, New Mexico. His condition suddenly grew worse and he expressed a desire to return to Ashland, which was fulfilled. They arrived in this city just two weeks prior to Christmas day last. He, however, continued to become weaker and fainter hopes were entertained for his recovery. Once a strong, robust, healthy young man, his form became sadly emaciated and near and dear ones realized that the end was surely not far distant when he must cease his brave and patient struggles to live.

On Wednesday he appeared to feel somewhat better and it was while he was sitting in a comfortable chair on the side porch of his home on Maple street, eating an orange, that he was attacked by a coughing spell, which was followed by a hemorrhage. His wife hurried to his assistance, as did also his sister-in-law, Miss Sude Shearer. He knew that death was upon him, and as he threw his head back, he gently murmured “good-bye” and soon all was over. Dr. George Riebel, in the meantime, had been quickly summoned, but when the doctor arrived, he had breathed his last—his spirit had taken its eternal flight.

Mr. Edwards was well known in Ashland and highly respected by all. He always possessed a cheery disposition, had kindly smiles and pleasant words of greeting for all with whom he came in contact and he made warm friends wherever he went.

Mr. Edwards was a Christian gentleman, being a member of the Trinity Lutheran church. He was also a Spanish War Veteran, having enlisted for service while in Chicago at the breaking out of the war with Spain. He served as quartermaster.

Funeral was Friday afternoon at 2:30 o’clock, standard, services were conducted at the David Shearer home on Maple street, by Dr. Arthur H. Smith of Trinity Lutheran church, assisted by the Reverend B. F. Rhoads, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment was in Ashland Cemetery, Ashland, Ohio.

No children were born to this union.

Maggie Edwards died at her home, 303 Maple Street, at 12:30 a. m. after several weeks of illness.

Her funeral services were held Friday at 2:30 p. m. at her late home. Dr. A. A. Hunter, pastor of the Methodist Church officiated. Interment was in Ashland Cemetery. Gilbert Funeral directors were in charge of the funeral.

Son of: John & Elizabeth (Harkless) Brown of Franklin & Westmoreland Co., Pa.

She died from the effects of burns received the evening before when her clothing caught fire while she was making a fire in a stove in the cellar at her home one mile south of Savannah. She was alone at the farmhouse at the time. Her son Warren, who lived with her, and the hired man had driven a wagon to Ashland early in the P.M. to deliver some logs. They arrived back home about 5 o'clock and found her.

She had gone to the cellar about 4 o'clock to get some things for supper, and while down there decided to build a fire in the wood stove to keep the fruit and vegetables from freezing. In some way her dress caught fire, she was unable to put it out, so ran upstairs, and finally ran out doors where she rolled in the snow under an apple tree 15-20 yards from the house. By the time the flames were put out the clothing had all been burned off of her body, save a few charred shreds.

She managed to get to the house by crawling, but did not have enough strength left to open the door. The temperature was near zero, as she lay near the door, still conscious, with her clothing all burned off except a piece of waistband. A small piece of her dress at her neck and shoulders, and her stockings and shoes. This is how her son found her. Dr. G. W. Jacoby came when summoned and did all he could for her, but she steadily grew worse, and at one o'clock on Friday morning she passed away.

The path through the snow from the tree to the back door was marked by pieces of charred cloth and evidences of her awful struggle to get back into the house.

Her funeral was conducted by the Reverend M. E. Todd, pastor of the Savannah Presbyterian Church, as was her late husband just a few months before. Her services were held on Monday morning at ten o'clock at her home.

Nancy had visited her sister, Margaret Hollabaugh in Nebraska, and had stopped on her way home in Auburn, Indiana, and visited brothers and sisters, and other relatives just two months prior to her death. She was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

Her husband, William Harkless Brown, had died in September. He was of Holland parentage. His parents moved to Ashland Co., Ohio from Pennsylvania. He was one of the substantial citizens of Clear Creek Twp. He was elected District Supervisor of Clear Creek Twp., District 6, and served in that capacity from 1888 to 1891. He was considered a rather frugal person. They lived on the farm, where both of them died, for upwards of forty years. Their farm was about one mile and a half south of Savannah.

Mr. Brown's funeral was conducted on Thursday afternoon at the farm residence, September 3rd. A quartet sang and the Reverend Todd preached the funeral message.

Nancy and Mark left seven children and eight grandchildren to mourn them. They were the parents of nine children: Frances M., James E., Oliver Jackson, Minnie Elizabeth, John R., Sarah Margaret, David Warren, William Tully and Alma Fae Brown.
TERRIBLE Accident Overtook Aged Woman

Alone in Farmhouse - Body Enveloped in Flames

Mrs. Nancy Brown, Residing South of Savannah Dies from Effects of Injuries

Body Mass of Burns.

From the effects of burns received the evening before when her clothing caught fire while she was making a fire in a stove in the cellar at her home one mile south of Savannah. Mrs. Nancy Brown, widow of the late William Harkless Brown, died about one o'clock last Friday morning, aged 74 years, 6 months and 18 days.

Mrs. Brown was alone at the farmhouse at the time of the terrible accident. She had started to get supper about 4 o'clock and had gone to the cellar to get some material for the evening meal. While there she decided to start a fire in a wood stove in order to avoid any danger of the fruit and vegetables freezing. In some way her dress caught fire and being unable to extinguish the flames she fled up the stairs to the kitchen where she renewed her attempts to put out the blaze. But still being unable to do so, she ran out of the house and rolled in the snow under an apple tree 15 or 20 yards from the house. By the time the flames were put out the clothing had all been burned off of her, save for a few charred shreds.

CRAWLING BACK TOWARD HOUSE.

Completely exhausted and suffering intensely, her entire body, except for her feet, a mass of burns, she attempted to get back to the house, crawling on her hands and knees through the snow only to be unable to get the door open. Her path through and knees through the snow from the tree to the door was marked by pieces of charred goods and evidences of the awful struggle she had to proceed. With the temperature about zero and steadily growing colder the unfortunate woman lay near the door, conscious but unable to exert enough strength to get into the house.

About five o'clock in the evening, when her son, Warren, and the hired man returned from Ashland they found her and every effort was made to save her life but all to no avail. Every attention was given her, Dr. G. W. Jacoby of this city was summoned and upon his arrival dressed her injuries and did all that was possible to do but she steadily grew worse and at one o'clock on Friday morning passed away.

In the kitchen a hole about 3 feet by 4 feet was burned through the linoleum where she had stood and the floor below was charred. All that remained of her garments was a piece of waistband and a small piece of goods at the neck and shoulders and her stockings.

The news of the terrible affair cast a gloom over the entire community. Mrs. Brown was held in highest esteem by all who knew her. She was born in Clear Creek township where her entire life was spent. Her maiden name was Nancy Furnish and she was a daughter of the late David Furnish, one of the pioneer residents of Clear Creek township. She was united in marriage with William Harkless Brown who died last September. Four sons and three daughters survive her, as follows: John near Savannah; Jack, residing north of Ashland; James, of Mansfield; Mrs. Margaret Walker, of near Nova; Mrs. Minnie White, living west of Savannah; Mrs. Frank Parke, of Savannah; and Warren, residing on the home farm.

Funeral services, conducted by the Reverend H. B. Todd of the Presbyterian church were held Monday morning at ten o'clock at the home south of Savannah.

b. 20 Apr. 1861 Savannah, Ohio
m. Oliver Sidney Burge

d. 5 Sept. 1884
cause: Diabetes complications burial: Savannah Cemetery church: Presbyterian occupation: Homemaker

Frances M. Brown was born in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio. In early girlhood she united with the Presbyterian Church in Savannah, and was always a faithful and consistent Christian. She loved God's house and was faithful in her attendance at both the Sunday School and Church services. Even the Sunday preceding her death, she attended both the A.M. services, and it was fitting that her spirit took its flight on Sunday morning just as the church bells were calling the congregation to worship.

In 1884 she was united in marriage to Oliver S. Burge, the third son of Benjamin and Katharine Burge. He was a successful teacher in the public schools. He was born in Jackson Twp., Ashland, Ohio, and later with his parents moved to Huron Co. where he grew to manhood. After their marriage they moved to Diamondale, Michigan, where he taught school for thirteen years.

Oliver was a marksman with a gun, much to his wife's dismay he occasionally showed his skill by shooting and hitting the target by firing his pistol while in his pocket. That meant a repair job for Frances! After his death Frances gave this little hand gun to her grandson, Duane Smith, and he cherishes it.

In 1897, on account of his failing health, he returned with his family to Ohio, where he died on 21 January 1900, near Savannah, with quick consumption, at age 46.

Frances remained a widow for fifteen years. She was an active worker in the Missionary Society of her church, packing many missionary barrels etc. She was active in the W. C. T. U. of Savannah, in the Union and the church of her choice. She was in failing health for more than ten years prior to her death, but remained patient in her suffering and considerate of others. She played the organ and enjoyed singing for her own pleasure. She was a good whistler, and went about her work often whistling. She also liked to make Scrap books.

Her funeral services were held at the Presbyterian Church in Savannah, Tuesday, afternoon, on December 7th, and were conducted by her pastor, the Reverend S. W. Young. Her four brothers: Jack, Jim, John and Warren Brown acted as Pall bearers.

To this union four children were born, all dying in infancy, except the youngest Ruth Alma Burge.

Ruth Alma Burge was born in Diamonddale, Michigan. She married John Harrison Fels on 5 Sept. 1911 in Savannah, Ohio. Ruth and John had four children, who all died in infancy except the youngest, John Jacob. John was the son of John Jacob and Anna Buchanan Fels.
Ruth Fels was born in Diamondale, Michigan, coming to Ohio with her parents in 1897, at age fifteen. In 1911 she married John Harrison Fels. They were married in the Savannah Presbyterian Church between 2 and 3 A.M. as they wanted to take their honeymoon in Michigan, and they had to catch the 4 A.M. train.

Ruth was active in the work of the Presbyterian church in Savannah, as well as other local and civic projects. After the 4-H was organized in Clear Creek Twp. under the direction of the County Agent, she was its first leader. During World War II she served as a "black-out" watcher. She was also active in Extension work, the Farm Bureau and the W. C. T. U. Below is a copy of the award given to her as a neighborhood leader 1942.

"For Patriotic Service in time of war, this certificate is awarded to Mrs. J. H. Fels. Your cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service of the Ohio State University through your county Extension Agent in helping your neighbors to participate in war emergency work is a vital contribution to winning the war. You are part of a nation-wide group of neighborhood leaders mobilized to meet the greatest demands in history. By working together farm people will do their full share to maintain freedom for humanity." Signed: H. C. Hamsower, Director Agricultural Extension Service.

Later in their marriage, Ruth and John, became owners of a 100 acre farm on the edge of the town of Savannah.

John Fels, besides farming, was elected Constable in Clear Creek Twp., for four terms, serving from 1929 to 1941. He served as President of the County Election Board for two years, then served on the board for many years. He also served as Central Township Committeeman for many years. He was Chief of the Volunteer Fire Dept. in Savannah and served as a trustee of the United Presbyterian Church and as Superintendent of the Sunday School. At the time of his death he was a Trustee of Clear Creek Township. He for many years drove school bus, and his wife was a substitute driver. They were both active Republicans.

In Ruth's earlier years she had attended the Savannah Male and Female Academy for one year, and then one year at Mansfield Business school. She worked for her board and room at a doctor's home and took care of their small daughter, named Mariana. She gave this name to her older daughter as it contained both of her grandmother's names: Mariana Frances.

To this union two daughters were born: Mariana Frances, and Sarah Jean Fels.

Mariana attended grade and high school in Savannah. After graduation she took a one year Home Economics course at Ohio State University. She worked in Savannah for about three years as a telephone operator for the Star Telephone Company. It was while working in that capacity that she was asked to call a number of Farm Bureau members concerning the meeting. When she called the Oliver Smith residence Mrs. Smith told her they were "sick with the flu, but we will send Howard." This was the first time Mariana and Howard ever met. They were married that same November in the Church of Christ at Stow. They started their married life together at the Smith farm home in Jackson Twp., where they have continued to live. Their farm home has been owned by the family for three generations. Part of the house is 100 years old. They own 94 acres where they live.

Three generations graduated from Folk in the Smith family, Howard, his father, Oliver, and his son Duane.

Mariana says she feels like she has always been in Extension work. Her mother took an active part in it from the beginning. When she was unable to attend, she would send Mariana as her substitute. The lessons have been varied and informative. Examples: sewing machine cleaning, bread baking, fitting of pants, making dress forms, simple electrical appliance repairs, meal planning, making of fabric lamp shades, tailoring, upholstering, kitchen planning, child care, making of games and toys, and furniture refinishing. A pin was received for acting as secretary to the county Home Council, and various offices were held by Mariana in the local club.

In December of 1936 Farm Bureau Councils were being formed in her county to discuss things concerning agriculture. She helped to organize a three-township council in which she was chairman and was the first hostess the following January. This is the meeting where she first met her husband. They were active with this group until their children were of school age. Eight years ago, 1966, they rejoined a council and she has held the position of secretary for two years & a member of the women's committee at the county level for two years. This women's group promoted the sale of beef, pork and milk products at the area food markets. Howard was legislative agent for one term.

The March issue of the Ohio Farm Bureau News of 1937 contained her essay entitled "Cooperative Recreation in the Farm Bureau Program." It was entered in the Verna Elsinger Memorial Essay Contest. It won first in the Northeast district of Ohio and placed fourth in the State Finals. This awarded her a scholarship to the National Cooperative Recreational College at Des Moines, Iowa that summer.

In 1961 Ohio's Highway Safety Director presented silver trays at a luncheon to four families who were district winners in the Ohio Safety Farm Family competition. The award was made during Health and Safety Day at the State Fair. They were the winners in the N. E. district for doing the most to promote safety in the home, farm and community.

Mariana joined a 4-H Club when she was only ten years of age, with canned as her first project. Cold packing was a new process then, as most foods were canned the open kettle method. Her club was selected to put an exhibit at the State Fair, and then went on to a national exhibition where their cans of fruit, vegetables and meat were sent. (Chicago) After high school she became a 4-H advisor for five years, and coached two single and three team demonstrators that won in the county and went on to the state level. For several years she was recreational director at their county week-long 4-H camps. She aided in organizing a senior group of 4-H ers for social activities and taught play-parties games.

Five years ago, (1971) both Mariana and Howard received their 25 year certificates and pins for continuous membership in the Jackson Subordinate Grange. They are members of Ashland County Pomona and of the State Grange. Mariana has held the offices of Grace, Lady Assistant Steward, member of the Committee on Women's Activities of the Grange and Lecturer of Pomona. Howard has served as assistant steward and has been on the Executive Committee. For a number of years Mariana labeled the Grange exhibits at the county fair and has worked in their lunch stand. Several contests have been entered, sponsored by the Grange. She managed to win a blue ribbon at the county level for baking bread.

They are active members of the Polk Church of Christ. This church celebrated its 70th anniversary in January 1976. Howard's father, Oliver, was able to be present. He is 89 and remembers the building and dedication of the church. In fact, he had helped in the digging of the basement with horses and a dump scraper. Mariana has held many positions in the church as: Superintendent, and teacher in the Jr. Dept.; Asst. S. S. Supt.; Treasurer of the Building Fund; and Deaconess. She also worked in the Daily Vacation Bible School for many years; teaching classes as well as leading in the recreation. Their home has always been open to Sunday School parties and church guests.

Mariana's hobbies are sewing, knitting, quilting, hooking rugs, braiding rugs, embroidery, weaving on small loom, applique, dabbling in ceramics, and other crafts. She enjoys cooking, baking, and preserving food. They have registered Jersey cattle and have kept a large herd for many years. They plan to semi-retire by the end of 1976 by reducing their herd by two-thirds.

Mariana has kept a diary for 46 years. She has made endless posters, and has been in school, church and Farmers' Institute plays (not because of talent she says, but because she is willing). She enjoys compiling family history with pictures.

To this union two children were born: Duane Leon and Roma Jean Smith.

Duane Smith graduated from Polk High School in 1957 and went to work at Krogers as a meat cutter immediately. In school he belonged to 4-H and had many projects: pigs and registered Jersey calves; he was on the judging team for dairy cattle at Ohio State Fair; an advisor; in Jr. Leadership he was awarded a trip to W. Virginia. He also took milk samples for testing and made out reports for dairymen.

Duane and Nancy Geiger were married in the West Homerville Church of the Brethren 8 December 1961.

He enlisted in the U. S. Army, January 1962, and served for three years as mechanical repairman. Most of his military service was spent in Texas although he was sent to Georgia during the Cuban crisis and helped to drive a fleet of trucks to California for maneuvers called "Operation Desert Strike."

He is employed by Gilbert Furniture Store in Ashland, Ohio, (a 100 year old establishment) as a carpet layer. He is a breeder of Beagle dogs and a member of Northern Ohio Beagle Club. His other interests are hunting, fishing, archery, barbeque cooking, swimming, photography and he raises rabbits. He has served on the Town Council, and is now on Board of Public Affairs of West Salem. Now (1976) he is a student of Business Administration of Wooster Business School Branch at Medina.

In high school he made 4 cedar chests and a gun cabinet. Since marriage he has added a breezeway and garage to their home, doing the work himself. He re-did their second bathroom also.

Mar 1978 Duane finished his 4 year training for EMTC (Engineering Manufacturing Technical College) at Wooster, Ohio. In fall of 78 he will be employed as a foreman.
Nancy was a 4-H member for 5 years. Her projects included clothing, gardening, freezing goods etc. She graduated from Homerville in the last class before consolidating into Black River school district. Her class took a trip to Washington D. C. upon graduation. Before her marriage she was an IBM operator for Ohio Farmers Ins. Co. In church she helps with V. D. S, teaches Jr. Church, Assistant teacher for small children, Secy. of WMC and is Statistician of the church. She also runs a babysitting service. Her hobbies are sewing, gardening, and she makes molded candy mints and molded chocolate candies for special occasions.

Nancy and Duane are the parents of three children: Debra Jane, Tracie Lyn, and Wendy Lee Smith.

At age 6 Roma Smith became a member of the Jackson Juvenile grange and entered many contests. She made an ABC scrapbook of animals that won first locally; a Safety scrapbook that won in the State contest; An Ohio history scrapbook (5 in. thick) won in State and was sent to California for National Grange Convention. She joined the subordinate grange at age 16 and Pomona grange. She held the office of Pomona Grace (1968–69; Lecturer–Juvenile (1959–61); represented Ashland Co. in Princess contest at 1965 State Grange convention; and through a sponsored tour (grange) she went through the New England states and Eastern Canada via Niagara Falls (1974). She entered the Dairy Princess contest in 1966 and won honorable mention. Through Jr. Leadership Training she earned a trip to Club Congress held at Columbus and a Washington D. C. trip in 1964 and 1966 respectively.

Let's Sew was her first project at age 10. Each year thereafter one to three projects were taken (total 17). The last was tailoring a spring coat and making a matching hat.

After graduation from Mapleton High School (Polk High School ceased when the schools of the area consolidated) Roma worked six weeks at Cresco Sportswear Inc., and then started as a part-time clerk at Penneys during the holidays. She became Supervisor of catalog (a new department put in the store) and now is employed as head cashier at the Ashland store.

Roma has a lovely singing voice and does solo work. She was very active in her home church often directing the congregational singing. She attended VBS both at Polk and Savannah for a number of years as a student, and years later was a music director and teacher at Polk.

She and Larry Bantz were married in the Polk Church of Christ on 9 August 1975. She designed and made her own wedding dress. It was of white linen with lace and trimmed with seed pearls.

Jean graduated from Savannah High School, and works as a designer for McKee Advertising at New London, Ohio. While Leonard was in the service she was a receptionist and secretary for a physician/surgeon. She has worked for the Norman A. McKee Co. for 21 years. She also writes radio commercials. Leonard is a veteran of the South Pacific, serving in the Netherlands East Indies, New Guinea, the Philippine Islands. He also served in Korea, 1943-1946.

Leonard is supervisor of Traffic at the Good Year Tire & Rubber Company in the Ashland Adhesive plant. He and Jean are both collectors of antiques. Leonard has a collection of antique wood tools and has 300 wood planes, as well as a gun collection. He has won 11 golfing trophies, and is a member of the local Lions Club.

They hope someday to have their own "Auction Barn" and have weekly auctions. In fact Leonard graduated from auctioneer school the 4th of December 1974.

They first lived in Mansfield, then New London, and now Savannah. They live in a lovely farm home on the edge of Savannah, formerly owned by her parents. The farm has quite a history to it since it has been in the family for three generations. It goes something like this:

Jean and Mariana's grandfather, John Jacob Fels, was born in Oldenburg, Germany and was one of 13 children, 12 boys and 1 girl. He came to the new world at the age of ten with his parents and family. On the way across the father died, and was buried at sea. They landed in New York city, and somehow John became lost from his mother and family, and they never found him. Somehow he made it on his own. He had three wives, and all died except their grandmother who outlived him. At the time of their marriage, he lived at Pikes Peak, Michigan, and her address was Savannah. They sold his place and moved to Savannah, on the farm Jean and Leonard now live. Their grandfather died of pneumonia when their father John Harrison Fels was nine years old, and was buried in the Newburgh cemetery near Wayne, Michigan. Later on their grandmother was buried there along side of the other two wives and husband.
In the same cemetery are the graves of her two small brothers whom she saw drown in the river, when she was a child. Harrison and his mother somehow managed to make it on their own by farming. Grandmother was a tailor for men's clothing. At the time of Harrison's marriage he took over the management of the farm. At the time of his mother's death, 18 years later, Harrison settled his father's estate, and bought the farm. He had had three half-sisters, two of which were deceased. Harrison secured a clear title to the farm. After the death of Ruth and Harrison Fels, Jean and Leonard bought the farm, and have been busy since remodeling the house. Jean is very artistic, and so they are doing a lovely job of it, blending their many antiques with the new.

They are the parents of three daughters: Alma Charlene, Carol Jean, and Cynthia Lynn Frederick.

"Married Wednesday evening, December 27, 1892 at the residence of the bride were Theodore White and Minnie Brown. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate friends of the parties were present. The happy couple received many useful and beautiful gifts. After the ceremony by the Reverend A. P. Upp, a bountiful supper was served and the guests, from all accounts, did ample justice to it. The gossips have been predicting this wedding for several months but it came at a time when no one had predicted." (Copied from a newspaper clipping.)

Minnie was an artist, and did paintings. She lived in Ashland County all her life. Theodore was a resident of Ashland Co. for 32 years. He died at his home 2 1/2 miles west of Savannah. He had been in failing health for several months, but was confined to his bed only five days. They were the parents of four children: Howard McKinley, Harold, Irvin Grant and Helen Elizabeth White. Funeral services for Mr. White were conducted at the home of his son, Harold, by the Rev. T. K. MacDonald.

4) Howard McKinley White
b: 10 Sept. 1893
d: 4 May 1907
cause: Accidental gunshot wound
burial: Savannah, Ohio church: Methodist Episcopal

Howard and his brother Harold were out hunting. Harold went back to the house for something, and when he returned, he found his brother lying on the ground. He was still alive and his last words were "take the cartridges out of the gun!" His obituary said he was a real boy, with boy's interests, with a boy's plans and hopes. He loved to play, and his playmates loved to play with him. But he showed an interest in work as well as play; while he was a boy, he gave promise of the man, and to his parents his companionship and trustworthiness were a great comfort. The manner of his death was unusual. Not often does the child fall as by the lightning's stroke, and in the moment of his death there were words spoken, most remarkable words that told of an unselfish spirit. His funeral was on May 6th. The Reverend H. F. Kerr officiated. (Copied from newspaper clipping.)

While Delores was trying to earn an A in a graduate economics course, she devised a game which not only earned an A but brought her a third place award in the International Paper Co. Foundation's 14th annual awards program for the teaching of economics.

Mrs. Burns, seventh and eighth grade science and math teacher at Crestview Jr. Hi was working on her master's degree. As a final assignment in a course, she was to submit a paper or a game. She devised a game of poverty, which was designed as a learning game to help 7th, 8th, and 9th graders understand poverty problems.

Mrs. Burns sent her game to the Joint Council on Economic Education and received a check and a plaque from the council, the foundation and the committee of judges in New York.

Her materials have been submitted for consideration to the editor of Economic Education Experiences of Enterprising Teachers and to the National Depository of Economic Education Awards Materials at the Ohio University Center for Economic Education. Teachers throughout the nation will be able to borrow these materials through the interlibrary system.

Besides teaching and caring for the home Delores enjoys ceramics and crocheting. Kenneth is a printer at the Ashland Times. To this union two children were born: Mark Alan and Patricia Ann Burns.

Mark Burns was born at Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, Texas. He had lived in Ashland County most of his life. He was a member of the Savannah United Methodist Church. He had graduated from Crestview High School in 1970 and Wittenberg University with a bachelor of arts in biology in 1974.

During his summer vacations he was employed at F. E. Myers & Bro. Co. and Samaritan Hospital.

In September 1974 he attended Outward Bound Survival School in Lake City, Colo. A member of Phi Mu Delta Fraternity, he had made application to Union Graduate School for Antioch College working toward a humanities program.

Mark died shortly after 3 a.m. Wednesday at Sarasota Memorial Hospital as the result of injuries he suffered in a motorcycle accident. A passenger on the motorcycle, Janet Saligoe, 23, of Sarasota, was also killed in the accident. According to the Sarasota Police Department, Burns was traveling at a high rate of speed and failed to negotiate a right turn at an intersection. He lost control of the motorcycle, which slammed into a tree.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Denbow-Primm Funeral Home with the Reverend Robert Snyder officiating. Burial was in Savannah Cemetery.

"The community was shocked Saturday by the terrible accident when Tully Brown, age 15, accidentally shot himself. He was doing something with an old revolver, it is not known exactly what. The family heard a shot, but thought nothing of it.

Two hours later they wondered why he hadn't come in, so one of the family went out to see if he could find him, and was horrified to find Tully lying on his face in a pool of blood. He was shot in the head, and the doctor said it was instant death. They supposed he was cleaning the weapon or trying to discharge it as a knife was found lying near-by on the ground. He was universally loved and respected. The funeral was conducted on Wednesday, by the Reverend Hutchinson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of Savannah." (Copied from a newspaper clipping.)

John Furnish was born in Stark Co., Ohio, then in 1844 he moved with his family to Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio where his parents purchased twenty-five acres of land near Savannah. In 1860 they sold this property and moved to Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., Indiana.

On 11 July 1861 he enlisted in the Civil War. He served with the 11th Regt. of the Indiana Foot Volunteers. He was discharged, 24 February for disability. He enrolled at Columbus, Ohio, 22 February 1865 in Co. A (?), 196th Regt. of the Ohio infantry, and served to 11 September 1865. He was captured and imprisoned in a Confederate prison. His Military Record description says he was 6 ft 1 in. in height, fair complexion, hazel eyes, and had brown hair.

After leaving the Service he resided in Ohio 4 years, Iowa 3 years, Indiana 2 years, then moved westward, living 15 years in Nebraska, and 26 years in Oregon. He was 30 years of age when he and Dora Dorsey were married. They were married in Maysville, Indiana, by William J. James. Their oldest child, James was born. Shortly after they moved to Nebraska City, Nebraska, where their second son T. Edgar and their only daughter, Nellie Evangeline, were born. Then in March of 1893 they moved to a farm near Ord, Valley Co., Nebraska. In March of 1899, they moved to Oregon, near Florence, where John lived until his death in 1917. Dora continued to live here until 1926 when she moved to Eugene, Oregon where she lived with her daughter Nellie until her death in 1932.

Dora was a School Teacher before she was married and insisted that all of their children should have good educations. Her receipt for 'Clam Chowder' has been passed down through the family and we're told it 'is Yummy'. She was active in the Community Church and in the Rebecca Lodge.

They moved West in a Covered Wagon, and Nellie remembered in their move from Nebraska to Oregon, that her mother made pies from the berries the children picked and that she used bear grease for the shortening in the crust. She continued to do this after they got to Oregon with the berries the children picked that were growing wild on the homestead. They lived 'pretty much off the land.'

John was active in local affairs. At one time he was Chairman of the School Board and helped to organize the I.O.O.F. Cemetery at Glenada, near Florence in Lane Co. It is an early pioneer cemetery. J. K. Lowe, Undertaker, had charge of John's Funeral.

John and Dora were the parents of three children: James Leroy, T. Edgar and Nellie Evangeline Furnish.

m. 16 Mar. 1908 Eugene, Oregon

Forest Ranger/1.R.S.

James was a versatile person, he homesteaded, taught school, managed a sporting goods store and was an expert exhibition marksman, holding many medals. He was a Forest Ranger in the Willamette Forest. He farmed and was an Internal Revenue collector. He served in Company A of the Oregon Militia, which was a forerunner of The National Guard. He was 6 ft. tall, had brown curly hair and grey eyes. He died just two months before his 95th birthday. His mind was still very clear. He had a terrific memory.

He married Yuba Huston, daughter of a pioneering family who came to Oregon in 1852 by ox team. Yuba was born 12 miles west of Eugene, Oregon on the Huston Land Donation Claim.

James and Yuba were the parents of two children: Margaret Evogene and James Ellwood Furnish.

4) Margaret Evogene Furnish
b. 29 Sept. 1899 Ada, Oregon occupation: Lab. Tech.

Evogene Furnish was a Laboratory Technician for the State of Oregon, testing all dairy products sold in Portland, Oregon, until she retired. She has one of the oldest licenses, which is now called a "Cheese Makers License." Her License is dated 1918 and is still valid. She had worked at this trade before she was married.

She married Belden Harrison in Marshfield, Oregon in 1923 and this year (1976) on the second of July they will celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary. The past yearBeldon has been very ill with a heart condition and a very low blood count. He spent three months in the Veteran’s hospital in Portland, and then after coming home was treated as an Out-Patient with therapy every other day. He has improved a great deal.

When they were first married they lived in Coos Bay, then they moved to Ophir, where they built a General Store, Service Station and Post Office. This they owned and operated for thirteen years. After selling this they bought a motel and built a Service Station and Restaurant at Seal Rock which they operated for six years, selling out during World War II. They then moved to Portland where they owned and operated a Grocery Store for a short time.
When the 'building boom' started Belden went into the construction business and built many houses and apartment complexes. At the time of his retirement he was a partner in the "Buck Construction Co," building mostly large apartment houses.

In June of 1950 they sold their large home and spent a year seeing the U. S. A. They spent some time in Florida and thought they might stay there, but the 1950 hurricane changed their minds and they went back to Oregon. They found no place they liked better. They now have a small home on one quarter acre, where they have many flowers and beautiful shrubs and have a lovely 'organic' garden. Growing things has always been one of Evogene's many hobbies.

They both love Oregon and feel their ancestors knew what they were doing when they came there. Belden's grandfather Harrison and Evogene's grandfather Huston both pioneered and came to Oregon by ox team in 1849 and 1852 respectively. Her Furnish grandparents, John L. and Dora A. (Dorsey) Furnish came in 1889. Her mother's family "The Hustons," held their 50th consecutive family reunion on the last Sunday of June 1975.

Evogene feels she was doubly blessed on both sides of the family with lovely uncles and aunts as well as grandparents. She recalls her Grandpa John Furnish was one of the handsomest men she had ever seen, and Grandma Dora Furnish was very tiny and was very active in her church and the Rebecca Lodge.

Evogene's advice to those carrying on the family name and tradition is: "try to be as honest and upright as all of your immediate family have been and as well respected at their deaths."

Evogene and Belden are the parents of two children: Larry Belden and Marjory Jean Harrison.

James E. Furnish attended grade and high school at Ada, Oregon. He took a short course at Corvallis, Oregon.

He has had many and varied occupations. He farmed on his own for five years; he worked as a Salesman for DeLaval, Massy Harris, Delco, Artcraft and others; he worked on road and bridge construction. He can run all of the equipment, cats, shovels, graders etc., and most of twenty years worked as a Supt. or Gen. Supt. on the construction of schools, industry and on over 1000 houses in Oregon and Alaska. He also ran his own Cabinet Shop. He is licensed in both Oregon and California and ran all phases of his business, contracting, for four years before he retired. He also worked in the logging business. He fell timber in Oregon and "River Hosed" logs down streams in Oregon (1920-22) and in Washington and California (1933-34). At the sawmill he did Tallying and Grading. He worked as a Fire Warden at Clatsop Co., Oregon for two summers (1938-1939) and as Sr. Supt. of four Shipyards in Portland, Oregon and one in Richmond, California, and as a carpenter Supt. from 1946 to 1967.

He used to like to hunt and fish, but because of health reasons he only fishes now. He has traveled extensively having been to Hawaii, England, Scotland, Canada, Mexico, Panama, Ecuador, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Barbados and the Bahamas besides 22 of the United States.

He operated a trailer parks for three years after his retirement, 1 January, 1967.

He joined the Grange in 1916, Masonic Lodge 107, 1926, Royal Arch, 1939, Commandery and Shrine, 1944 and the Carpenters Union 1942. He served as President of Local 583 and served 12 years on the Carpenters District Council. He belonged to the Unitarian Church for many years, but does not attend any more.
He has belonged to the Republican Party since 1923 and served twice on the State Central Committee. He studied law for two years and was invited to run for the U. S. Senate. He also took up flying after middle age, but had his license later revoked, due to an accident.

Edna attended grade and high school at Brownsville, Oregon. She managed Grocery Store for several years.

Edna and Jim were divorced in 1945. To this union two children were born: James Gerald and Mary Anne Furnish.

4) James Ellwood Furnish

See information with first marriage.

Jin and Ann were married by a Federal Judge in Olympia, Washington. To this union one son was born, Jeffrey Jamie Furnish.

4) James Ellwood Furnish

This marriage ended in divorce in 1964.

Jin now lives in a trailer. He says his place is a show place and that he raises a garden, many roses and other flowers. He maintains a lawn equal to any putting green.

He says he never understood his father until after he was 40. And now he thinks he was the greatest man he ever knew. He remembers his father as being strong willed, but his word was better than most bonds. His integrity was above question, and he told it like it was.

went to college for two years, and then went to California and has been there ever since. Jim and Ione Wise were married by Rev. Horn, June 29, 1957 in Dorris.

He works on the Porterfield Ranch, better known as the J. F. Ranch. They lived on the ranch until 1972 when they bought a mobile home and moved into the town of Dorris. Ione's mother and dad lived on the ranch when they were first married in June of 1931. Her grandparents, George Pearl Wise and Ione (Kirk) Wise, were hoping to buy the ranch when her grandfather got ill and they moved to Novato, California about 30 miles from San Francisco. Ione's other grandparents were Elijah Garey and Grace Mae (Delamar) Garey. Elijah Garey was a distant cousin of Abraham Lincoln.

Ione has lived in Dorris since 1935. She went to grade school and high school there, graduating from Butte Valley High School in 1950. She has had one year of nurses training and two years of college plus one year of business school. She worked as an aide at the hospital in Klamath Falls, Oregon for seven years (1966-73). In 1976 she was elected City Treasurer on March 2nd.

Jim and Ione are the parents of two children, James Preston and Penny Lynn Furnish.
Ione is taking an Emergency Medical Technician course so she can work on the ambulance.

Edgar and Grace lived in Eugene, Oregon. He was employed at the University of Oregon as a Heating Engineer. Before that he had spent time in Alaska as a fisherman and before that time at sea as a sailor. He also ran the Ferry Boat in Florence, Oregon for many years. He was past Master of Masonic Lodge in Florence, Oregon.

Edgar was 5 ft. 9 in. tall and weighed about 170 lbs. He was serious at times but had a wonderful sense of humor. Grace was the same height but weighed 40 lbs. less than Edgar. She was a School Teacher. She earned her Teachers Degree from Monmouth, S. of Salem, at "Oregon School of Education." She taught at Glenwood Elem.

They had a beautiful 'cabin' at Seal Rock. It was all done in knotty pine with hard wood floors, and three bathrooms. It was two story and right on the ocean. The family remembers them sleeping up to 27 days on the beach many times. Their residence was at 513 E. 19th Street, Eugene, Oregon.

After they died they were both cremated. Edgar's ashes were thrown into the ocean at Seal Rock in front of the Family cabin in 1947 and Graces in 1974.

They were the parents of two sons: T. Edgar, Jr. and Ronald Archer Furnish. After Edgar's death Grace married a family friend, a widower, named John Hollingsworth.

He went into the Navy in August 1942 and left in 1946 and went back to Boeing. He was an Airplane Mechanic. In 1961 he went to work for Howard Hughes and stayed one year because he was injured in an automobile wreck. He then worked in Vaughn at the International Paper Co., 10 miles from Eugene. He worked in the Power House. In 1966 he went to work for the U. S. Postal Dept. as Special Delivery Carrier.

Edgar and Ann Brummel were married in 1944. Ann worked at Boeing during the war years and cooked after that. In 1963 this marriage ended in divorce and Ann went to work as a housekeeper for a priest in Quincy, Washington. She is still there.

In 1953 Edgar was sent to Moses Lake, Washington. He was crew chief on Flight Line for B-47, B-52 and test models of 707, 727, 747. He also worked on B-17 and B-29 Clipper Ships. When he worked for Howard Hughes he was a Missile Inspector.

He was retired on a 100% disability so moved onto it.

Penny graduated from Wenatchee High School in Wenatchee in 1968. Ron graduated from Eastmont High School in East Wenatchee in 1967. Wenatchee and East Wenatchee are two separate towns separated by the Columbia River and connected by a bridge.

Penny and Ron were married while she was still in high school. Her parents got a divorce when she was in the eighth grade and her mother was ill. They felt they were mature enough to get married, as Ron came from a divorced family too. Penny graduated with honors. They were married at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Wenatchee. They had a lovely Christmas wedding.

Ron is 6 ft. 4 in. tall. He works for the Forest Service and likes it very much. He has taken the course and qualified, he is now an Emergency Medical Technician. He is on the local volunteer ambulance crew. In the summer he is a Medical Officer for the Forest Service on large fires. He likes to hunt and fish, and they live in a perfect place for such.

Penny enjoys being a homemaker. She likes to knit, crochet and sew and recently is taking up ceramics. She says she is a "plant nut." Especially likes A. Violets.

She inherited the Seal Rock Cabin from her grandparents. But now has it up for sale as it takes them two days to get there, and they can't protect it or take care of it. They would like to sell it and their home in Entiat and buy a home closer to town. They are 18 miles from Wenatchee where they go to church, shopping and the doctor. She and Ron both would like to take some classes at the Junior College.

One of her prize keepsakes is her great-grandfather's gun he brought home from the Civil War.

Her great-aunt, Nellie Furnish, was a very special person to her. She spent a lot of time with her and seemed to always be there when she needed her. Aunt Nell and her mother were the closest people to her until she got married.

Penny and Ron are the parents of 2 sons, David Albin and Timothy Paul Evensen. They are expecting a third child in October 1976.

Ron attended University High School in Eugene, Oregon. He started to work for the Boeing Co. in 1958 in Seattle, Washington, in final assembly on the C-47 as an Inspector. He served two years in the U.S. Army. He was drafted in 1954 during the Korean conflict and took his basic training at Fort Ord, California, and Atlanta, Georgia. He was then transferred to Anchorage, Alaska, and was there until he was discharged in 1956. After his discharge he went to work again at Boeing in the Bonarc Missile project. In 1961 he took an assignment for 18 months in Santa Maria, California, where they started testing the Minuteman Missile at Vandenberg A. F. Base. He has been in Quality Control as an inspector on what turned out to be a long range project. He has worked for Boeing for 22 years.

Ron and Marilyn Whitsell were introduced by a friend, but did not date for several years. About three weeks after their first date they visited his brother, Edgar, and his wife in Seattle. They went for the week-end. They went out to dinner on Sunday, and intended on leaving in the afternoon, but while sitting in the restaurant Edgar brought up the idea of them getting married. "After several hours of teasing, laughing and thinking it funny we were convinced this must be the thing to do. So in the restaurant I had a proposal of marriage, but no clothes for the occasion, so through my new sister-in-law to be's closet we went. I was finally completely outfitted and off to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho we went, where we were married in a chapel by a Justice of the Peace." Things had moved mightily fast and her parents were expecting her home that Sunday evening. So when they reached eastern Washington they called her parents and told them. But they did not tell Ron's mother until they walked in on her with no warning, when they got back to Eugene. Neither of them had met each other's parents, so there was some interesting reactions. Marilyn's father worked as a brakeman on the logging train for Weyerhauser Co., until he retired, her mother did not work outside the home.

Marilyn attended Eugene High School, Eugene, Oregon. She is not employed out side the home at present, but for five years she owned and managed a drive-in restaurant. She had a very successful business but when costs started rising they decided to sell if they could get their price, which they did.

As a family they all like the out-of-doors, so they enjoy camping, fishing, and boating. They have a camper and a 20 ft. boat that they pull to Florence, Oregon each year to capitalize on the good salmon fishing in the ocean. Ron interted five acres of property there from his parents at the time of his mother's death in 1974. It is a part of the Furnish Homestead. They plan on developing the property as their retreat when they retire. Hopefully they want to travel also after retirement.

In 1968 they spent the summer in Florida. Ron was there on temporary duty from Jan.-Aug. Marilyn and the children went by car to be with him when school was out in June. They were able to travel throughout the state and had a marvelous time while there. They traveled back to California in two cars with stops in New Orleans, Mexico and the Carlsbad Caverns.

They have four children, Linda Marie, Gary, Gloria and Lisa Furnish.

When Nellie was about 20 years of age she left Oregon and enrolled in a large business school in Chicago. She lived in the Y. M. C. A. After finishing her course she went to work for Dr. Isaac Arthur Abpt. He was one of the first pediatricians. He was advanced for his time. She worked for him for many years.

Her next job was with a Chicago Law Firm. She especially enjoyed the Law Office as they had many interesting and important cases. She returned home when her father became ill and did not return, however she corresponded with her former boss, Mr. Lipton for many years. In Oregon she went to work for the head of the Economics Dept, Dean Gilbert, at the University of Oregon. (There is a building on campus named for him.) She worked for the university for 25 years and then was retired in accordance with a state law. She retired December of 1947.

When Nellie was a child they called "Scooter" because she could run as fast on a fallen log as she could on the ground.

She liked to tell the story about the time she and her friend Helen went fishing. Her father had told her they wouldn't catch anything! But they did, they caught a big Salmon in the Linslaw River. They could hardly get the fish into the boat and they really surprised everyone. They had salmon for supper and a few more meals.

She also loved to play in the sand dunes near their homestead. These dunes are now Dunes National Park.

The last few years she was confined to the Parkside Manor Rest Home on Monitor St. in Wenatchee, Washington. At 91 she still read a lot, and was a little unsteady on her feet and was a little hard of hearing. She was able to remember in great detail things of the past.

She had kept a lot of "Family Pictures" and after she died the family donated them to their local Oregon museum.

Her body was cremated and her ashes were placed next to her mother and father in a pioneer cemetery at Glenada near Florence. Her father helped to organize this cemetery. It overlooks the homestead where she grew up.

Abraham Myers Furnish was born in Ashland County, Savannah, Ohio, of English-born parents. He moved with his parents, David and Mary Caroline Furnish and his brothers and sisters (there were 10 children) to Indiana in 1860 which had become the 19th state in 1816. The family settled on a farm a little SW of Spencerville, a small town about 25 miles NE of Fort Wayne. He apparently lived with his parents until he married at age 31. A year after his marriage he purchased some property and some more the following year, both are recorded in the Auburn Courthouse as follows.

"A. M. Furnish from Letitia Henderson W. D. April 1 1876 $3000 N ½ of SE Sec. 36, Twp. 33, Range 13, 80 Acres. Recorded June 16, 1876.

His farm was located a little NE of his parents. He became a member of the Lutheran church in Spencerville, and politically, he declared himself a Republican. At one time he ran for Township Assessor and served.

Abraham was married 3 times. His first two wives were sisters, Rebecca and Eliza Beams, both of whom died rather young of "Consumption," now known as tuberculosis. To the union of Abraham and Rebecca one son was born, James Arthur, on 1 February 1877. Rebecca died at age 29 years 4 months and 8 days, after 4 years of marriage. She is buried in White City Cemetery, Spencerville. Inscribed on her tombstone is the verse:

"Remember friends as you pass by
As you are now, - so once was I
As I am now, soon you must be -
Prepare for death, and follow me
Meet me in heaven."

James Arthur Furnish was born in Spencerville, Indiana, and lived in that area all his life. His mother, Rebecca (Beams) Furnish, died when he was 3 years old. A year and a half later his father married Rebecca's sister Eliza. So now his "Aunt Eliza" became his second mother. Again his life was altered by heartache when at 13 years of age, again his mother died. When he was 15 his father married for the 3rd time, marrying the young woman who had been keeping house for he and his father and his 2 half-sisters, Bertha and Jennie. Her name was Sylvia Shutt.

In 1896 his father built a new brick farm house. It was Arthur who did much of the hauling of the bricks by horse and wagon from the brick factory about 2 miles south of the County Line on the John Amstutz farm located on the Amstutz Road. He was 19 by then. Until he was 30 he worked at various jobs, including helping to build the Wabash Railroad, (now taken over by the Norfolk & Western). It was about this time when he and his cousin, David Grosh, visited their Uncle Will Furnish in Michigan. They were both in their early 20's. Will's oldest son by his second marriage, Clyde Furnish, remembers them visiting and says he was 11 or 12 years of age.

Arthur and Metta Rhoads were married on Christmas Eve at the home of Metta's parents, Charles and Aroline (Burley) Rhoads, in 1904. Before their marriage Metta had taken some extra schooling in Akron, Ohio. She also worked as a Forelady in a dish factory. After her marriage she did custom hatching for other people.

In 1919 Arthur purchased 100 acres of land from his father-in-law recorded as:

"J. Arthur Furnish from Charles A. Rhoads etex W. D. October 17, 1919 $100 W $ EE, Sec. 31, Twp. 33, Range 14, 100 acres. Recorded October 17, 1919."

They did general farming and were married nearly 60 years when Metta died. She died in the same farmhouse she was born in, she was 82 years of age. Her funeral was held on Tuesday, 25 April, 1962 at 2 P.M. at the Baidinger & Walter Funeral Home.

Arthur died 2 years after his wife's death, in the Sauder Hospital, Auburn, Ind. He was 87. Both he and Metta had suffered from arteriosclerotic heart disease in their declining years. Services were held for him from the Baidinger & Walter Funeral Home in Spencerville on 1 May 1964. The Reverend Ivan O. Miller officiated.

They were the parents of 3 sons: Charles Arthur, Harold Abraham and Merl Dean Furnish.

Harold attended school in Spencerville, graduating in 1929. That fall he went west "via his thumb," arriving 2 weeks to the day from the time he left, to his destination. He stayed about a year, then came back and helped out on his parent's farm. The spring of 1935 he decided he wanted to try his skills at raising nothing but muskmelons, on a farm his mother had an interest in through her parent's estate, (later on his mother and his brother Charles bought the other heirs out) it had good sandy melon soil on it. He had a good crop of melons, and delicious too. That fall some of the Michigan relatives came for a visit and at the family get-together at Adella and Pete Lochners, Harold and his brother Charles and his father Arthur Furnish, drove in the yard with a trailer filled with muskmelons. A delicious treat for all attending, and something never forgotten. Today when the Michigan and Indiana folks get together that were at that reunion, someone is bound to mention "that trailer load of muskmelons." The following year Harold worked for his uncle, and then went into business for himself doing both carpentry and masonry work, which he has continued to work at, and hopefully will retire in 1976.

Mabel graduated from St. Joe High School and from Ball State College, Muncie, Indiana. She first taught in a one room school, all 8 grades, then taught in Leo, teaching the second grade, teaching 19 years in all. She is now retired.

To this union two daughters were born: Bertha Florence and Jennie May Furnish. Eliza attended Valparaiso Univ. & taught at Spencerville before her marriage.

3) Bertha Florence Furnish
   b. 13 Nov. 1884 Spencerville, Ind.
   m. 22 Apr. 1905 Spencerville
   d. 12 Jan. 1972 Fort Wayne, Ind.

Bertha was only 6 years and 4 months of age when her mother died, but she recalled vividly the rest of her life that the wagon carrying her mother's casket sank hub deep into the muddy ruts of the dirt road. This, however, seemed to be the only memory she had of her own mother. Other indelible memories that lasted a lifetime were when a year and a half after her mother's death, the young woman who had come to work as her father's housekeeper and care for orphaned children, Sylvia Shutt, remained to become his wife on 29 November 1892. Bertha was 24 years of age, Abraham was 47.

Another incident that made a deep and lasting impression on Bertha, that was filed away to be pulled out, examined, and repeated many times and ever used as a reminder to her children about assuming responsibility, took place during the summer of 1896, when her father was building a new brick house. Arthur, his oldest child was now 18, and helped to haul the brick by horse and wagon from the brick factory to the site, a distance of about 14 miles round trip. The factory was on the Amstutz farm. One day when none of their home, located on the John Amstutz farm. One day when none of the builders were expected, and before daylight, Abraham loaded up the buckboard of the builders to sell at the Barr Street Market in Fort Wayne. Sylvia wagon with garden produce to sell at the Barr Street Market in Fort Wayne. Sylvia wash, or brick, or bricklayers came to work on the house. They also expected to be served a hot meal. Since their stepmother preferred to do most of the cooking herself, the two young girls, 12 and 8, were quite inexperienced at getting big meals and especially all by themselves. They did manage to satisfy the men’s appetites and at the same time they grew up quite a bit that day. Of course in the 90’s farm girls were expected to assume major responsibilities at an early age and meet any emergency without shirking.

After Arthur was old enough to be out on his own, Bertha became her father’s “boy” and helped with the farmwork. In the summer she helped in the fields, cutting and shocking wheat and pitching hay, and in the winter with the milking of many cows. In the spring her father made maple syrup. She would hitch up the horses and drive for him while he emptied the buckets of maple sap and then helped to cook it down into syrup.

During one winter an unusual episode made an unforgettable impression on her memory. A cholera infection broke out among the horses and reached epidemic proportions causing most of them to die and making it necessary to destroy the rest. She had to help dig the holes and bury the dead animals.

Bertha’s school life was very checkered at first. She could never begin school in the fall with most of the other children at the Boots School nor finish with them in the spring. She was required to help on the farm or in the home during these busy periods. Often she had to do the wash for the family before going to school. Many times in the winter, she had to melt snow to accomplish this task. Sometimes she arrived at noon and on especially busy days, not at all. In spite of unsteady attendance she enjoyed school even when the mile and a half walk to and from school seemed twice as long during the cold winter weather. She told of having fun, though, walking on the curvy snowdrifts as high as the fence row. Like most of the children, she enjoyed the “spelling bees” and the “box socials” that were held frequently at the little country school. Since she could not attend school on a regular basis, she did not always pass on to the next “reader” (McGuffey) each year. She was about 16 when she finished the eighth grade at Boots School.

The very next year she became a hired girl. One of the last families she worked for was the Jacob and Leila Popp family, when their oldest child, Otto, was born and when young Arthur came alone one year later. Jake operated a dairy on his farm SW of Leo and much of the milk was made into butter. The cream was made into butter in a “dash” churn, the kind that is equipped with a wooden stick with a plunger on the bottom that had to be stomped up and down to turn the cream into butter. Her wages were $1.50 to $2.00 per week.

It was while she was working for the Pops’ that she met her husband to be. They took her with them to an ice cream social one evening, where a relative of theirs, Frank Klopfenstein, was also in attendance. Bertha had Frank’s friendship blossomed over a dish of ice cream even though it was almost too salty to eat, and ultimately ended in marriage on 22 April, 1905.

An amusing thing happened during their courtship involving her younger half-brother, Paul. One evening when Bertha and her date were about a mile down the road from her home in the horse and buggy, they heard a human noise—very, very close, like in the buggy. Investigation proved their suspicions correct. A boy, namely little brother Paul, was hiding in the trunk of the buggy trying to hear what his older sister talked about on a date. Paul was sent “packing” and had to walk back home by himself.

About a year later, on a Saturday evening, the night before Easter, Bertha Burnish and Franklin Klopfenstein were married in the parsonage of the Lutheran Church of Spencerville with the bride’s sister, Jennie, and the groom’s twin brother, William, as witnesses. For some reason these two had not met before, so this was their First meeting and a couple of years later wedding bells rang for them, too.

A couple of nights after Bertha and Frank's marriage they were chivareed as was the custom for newly-weds then.

For the first three years the young couple lived with his family on their farm, less than a mile west of Leo on the Hosier road. It was when they lived here that their first daughter, Gladys, was born. Two years later they moved a half mile from the farm to Leo, in a corner house across from the Leo Cemetery, where they lived for 18 years. They were living here when their second daughter, Mildred, was born.

These were years of inventions and rapid changes that made life much easier for people everywhere, no less so in the lives of the people in this small Leo Community, living in the shadow of the larger county seat of Fort Wayne. Many ventures were started by the Klopfenstein twins and their youngest brother. One venture seemingly tumbling over the other as the brothers worked long hours in their eagerness to get in on the ground floor of the new services that could be offered the people in the early 1900's. Frank was the first Postmaster in Leo; he joined his brother in building the first brick store in Leo. "The Brothers" carried General Merchandise, which included groceries, hardware, oils, paints, buggies, agriculture implements, pumps, pipe, windmills and since the country was beginning to use motorized vehicles together they added the agency for the new "Overland" car to their store. Frank was the first to own a truck in Leo and took many of the children for their first auto ride. When telephone service was brought to the community, the brothers, with the help of a couple of other men formed a telephone company. In September of 1924 Frank moved his family to Huntertown where he was in charge of the telephone company.

Bertha was an important key in all of these ventures; she was store clerk, telephone operator and bookkeeper. Then after many years she with her husband and family moved back to the hard work of the farm, near Fremont, Indiana, where electricity had not yet been installed. After two and a half years of this life, during the depression years, they moved to Fort Wayne where she and her husband remodeled a 17 room house into an apartment house of six units. For the next 24 years she managed the business, retiring, to a one-household management, at the age of 73. She remained active in this capacity until about 1966. In Fort Wayne she joined the First Missionary Church and was active in its women's group.

At this writing (June 1975) she is approaching 91 years in November, and is no longer able to work, she lives down most of the time, however she still comes to the table for meals, though, in a wheelchair, and she is still able to go for short rides in the car.

Late Note: Frank completed the 9th grade at Leo School. This building later was used to house the cheese factory.
Gladys May Klopfenstein was born on a farm a mile west of Leo on the Hosier Rd. When she was two years of age her parents moved into Leo, where she remembers living in a corner house across from the Leo Cemetery. She remembers making the trips to her grandparents farm near Spencerville, to see her grandparents, in a buggy pulled by their faithful horses, Bill and Ike. One feature of the two-story brick farm house that fascinated her was the efficient "dumb" waiter that carried the butter, milk, cream and other foods from the kitchen to the cool basement. Sometimes in the summer time she was allowed to stay a day or two with her grandparents. The memory that is very vivid of these visits is the nightly worship with Grandfather reading from the very large family Bible by the flickering lamplight. His reading from the big book made a deep impression on her.

During these visits, mealtime stood out as her Grandmother Sylvia was a very good cook and she always enjoyed her meals. More than the meals it was interesting to see how her Grandfather managed his long bushy mustache that extended over his upper lip, to drink his coffee from a large "mustache cup" designed for just that purpose.

It was during these visits that a painting on the wall repeatedly captured her attention. It was a quaint old Negro sitting nonchalantly strumming a banjo that rested comfortably across his knee. The details and the subject of the painting seemed outstanding to her, and when she found out that her grandfather had painted it, it was all the more impressive. Perhaps under different circumstances he could have pursued this talent more intensively. This interest in art, however, has blossomed into more than an interest in at least two of his great-grandchildren; Kathy and Karen Klopfenstein, grandchildren of his daughter Jennie. Kathy, Glenn's daughter, taught art in the public schools in New York state before her marriage and Karen, Richard's daughter, a high school Junior has already won honors.

Gladys graduated from Leo High School in 1924 as Salutatorian. In 1928 - A. B. from Indiana University, Vocational Home Economics Omicron Nu, Home Economics. Later Majors in English, Latin and Public School Music. In 1959 - M. S. from Indiana University, Education Pi Lambda Theta, Education. In 1972 she retired from North Side High School, Fort Wayne, where she taught English. She taught school for 44 years.

Gladys recalls that her granddaughter Furnish died just before her Thanksgiving finals, when she was a Freshman in Manchester College, and was not informed until her folks came after her. She recalls that his casket lay in state at his house and that it had to be brought in and taken out through the large front window because of difficulties in making the turn in the short hallway at the front door. There were no flowers. On the casket was just a sheaf of wheat. To his family in retrospect, it was a symbol of a farmer's life lived in harmony with the good earth and dedicated to God. He was a man of high ideals, optimism, and a dry sense of humor as she remembers him.

Her marriage terminated in divorce after seven years of marriage, they had no children. She and her sister Mildred have cared for their mother since their father died in 1951, at the West Lexington Ave., address in Fort Wayne, Indiana. She is pianist and organist for the North Highland Church of Christ.

Jennie May Furnish was born near Spencerville, Indiana, the second daughter of Abraham and Eliza (Beams) Furnish. Her mother died when she was only 3 years of age. When she was 41/2 her father married the young woman who had come to work as her father’s housekeeper and had cared for his 3 orphaned children. Her name was Sylvia Shutt. She was the only mother Jennie ever knew.

Jennie attended the Blount School in DeKalb County, and lived in that area all of her life.

She was asked to be a witness at her sister Bertha’s marriage to Franklin Klopfenstein, 22 April 1905, and met Franklin’s twin brother for the first time who also was asked to witness the ceremony. They were too married two years later. William and his twin brother, Franklin, built the first brick store in Leo, which included both hardware and groceries. It was really a general store, and besides the above mentioned pipe and then added the Agency for the new “Overland AutoMobile” and accessories. The store was called “The Brothers.”

Jennie was baptised on 12 November, 1936, and her husband, William, on 9 Aug. 1931 and became members of the Apostolic Christian Church.

ABRAHAM MYERS FURNISH

2) Abraham Myers Furnish

   b. 31 Mar. 1865 Allen Co., Ind.
   m. 27 Nov. 1892 Spencerville, Ind.
   d. 20 May 1943 South Whitney, Ind. cause: Bright's Disease
   burial: Spencerville, Ind. church: Methodist
   dau. of: S. S. & ____ Shutt

Abraham, having become a widower for the second time employed Sylvia Shutt as his housekeeper, and someone to care for his 3 orphaned children. Sylvia was a local girl. Her father was a Medical Doctor, they lived opposite the Watson cemetery and she and Adella Furnish, Abraham's niece, were neighbor girls together, and since Adella's mother died she and her brothers were being reared in the home of her grandparents, Charles and Rachel (Wyatt) Watson; they attended the Boots School together.

After a year and a half of being a widower, Abraham and Sylvia were married. Their marriage is recorded on the special page for that purpose in his large family Bible published in 1873 and it reads as follows:

"This certifies that A. M. Furnish and Sylvia E. Shutt were solemnly united by me in the Holy Bond of Matrimony at Spencerville, Ind. on the 27th day of November in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety Two, conformable to the Ordinance of God, and the Laws of the State.

In presence of
Mrs. J. W. Thomas
Rev. J. W. Thomas

J. M. Furnish & wife
Spencerville, Ind.

Abraham was 47 at the time of his third marriage his wife, Sylvia, was 24. They continued to live on the farm for 24 more years. This marriage was not without heartache. To this union three children were born, Paul Edwin, Mary Elnora and Esther Lucille. Only Paul lived to maturity, Mary Elnora was born and died the same day, 20 Oct. 1909, Esther Lucille was born 24 June, 1909 and died 23 days later, 17 July 1909, in her half-sister's (Bertha's) arms. The 3 children were all born in Spencerville, Indiana.

When Abraham was nearly 72 and Sylvia was almost 49 they sold the farm.

They bought a brown two-story frame house in the north end of Fort Wayne not too far from the Rose Gardens on Lake Avenue.

Early in 1917, on 18 February, Abraham and Sylvia transferred their church membership from the Lutheran church in Spencerville, to the Crescent Evangelical Church in Fort Wayne. (Later, after a church merger, it was known as the Crescent Evangelical United Brethren Church, and after still another merger is now the Crescent United Methodist Church.) Early in 1924, they moved to 1049 Northwood Blvd. Their son, Paul, and his family were already living at 1006 Northwood. They again transferred their church membership to a newly organized congregation known as Lake- side Methodist Episcopal Church becoming charter members. This was on 17 March, 1924. During this period the church was renamed the Forest Park Methodist Episcopal Church now known as the Forest Park United Methodist Church. The early wooden structure they attended has long since been replaced by the present brick church.

At the time of Abraham's death, 24 November 1924, he had lived less than a year at the Northwood address and had been a member of Forest Park Church for the same brief period.

He had been in poor health the last 9 years, he died in St Joseph Hospital, Fort Wayne. The funeral was held at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning at his home with the Reverend Herbert A. Clugston, pastor of the Forest Park church, officiating. There were no flowers, only a sheaf of wheat on the casket. To his family in retrospect, it was symbolic of a farmer's life lived in harmony with the good earth and dedicated to God. Burial was in the Spencerville cemetery where his first 2 wives, 2 deceased children and some brothers and sisters, as well as his parents are buried.

Sylvia remained a member of the Forest Park church and continued to live at the Northwood Blvd. address until she married Clarence Dirrim and moved to South Whitley. She transferred her membership to the South Whitley Methodist Church under the Reverend H. V. Cummins' ministry on 24 September 1933. (Since 1968, known as the United Methodist Church of South Whitley.) She resided in South Whitley, Indiana, until her death, 20 May, 1943. (Her second husband preceded her in death by one year.) She too was buried in the White City Cemetery in Spencerville, Indiana.

Paul and Olive were married shortly after his parents sold their farm near Spencerville. They first lived in Fort Wayne then moved to a farm, in Spencer Twp. Dekalb Co., just east of Spencerville. Some years later, they moved into the village of Spencerville where Paul did custodial work for the school and some carpentry work. He also worked at the Jack Factory in Spencerville at one time.

An interesting paragraph in a letter written by Adella (Furnish) Lochner, to her stepmother, Ada Furnish, in Michigan reads:

"Feb. 16, 1910
There was a great revival at Spencerville this winter, 103 conversions, David and Paul Furnish were among the number."

They were both active members of the Spencerville Methodist Episcopal Church. Olive died of a rare disease that caused dehydration, research has not found a cure.

Paul and Olive were the parents of six children: Rosemond Adelle, Doris Elaine, twins - Lavern Eileen and Lavon Eldeen, Marcella Marie and Velma Jean Furnish.

David & Margaret Hollabaugh & their daughter. Their home in Nebraska.
Margaret Jane Furnish was born in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio, near Savannah. Her family had moved here from Stark Co., in 1844, and purchased twenty-five acres of land. It was while living here that the last five of their eleven children were born. In 1860, when Margaret was a girl of thirteen years of age, her parents sold the property in Ohio and moved to Jackson Twp., Dekalb Co., Indiana near Spencerville. Margaret attended the common schools through high school, arithmetic being her favorite subject.

She married William David Hollabaugh on 10 April 1873. They were married at Spencerville by the Reverend J. H. G. Prim. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Nebraska, as cemetery records show that on 14 Sept. 1874 W. D. Hollabaugh bought cemetery lots in Wyuka Cemetery, Nebraska City. Their infant daughter, Caroline Elizabeth, had died in August of 1874 with Chlorea Infantum.

Nearly a decade after moving to Nebraska, in a letter to her sister and brother-in-law, Martha and Isaac Grosh, she gives us a glimpse of her life in the West.

"Dear Brother and Sister and family:

It seems an age almost since we heard from you so thought I would write and remind you that you have friends away out in the wilds of Nebraska who think of you lovingly, often tearfully, when the width of dreary miles loom up with painful distinctness. How I wish for wings or a fortune that would convey me to you home nest that I might see you face to face once more. Do you ever think of the good old times we enjoyed around the fireside at home. So free from all care and responsibility. I do and often wonder why we were so impatient of home rule and discipline.

Don't think I am growing morbid, for I have too much to do to get the blues, so now will branch off to that never failing topic of interest, our home, husbands and boys.

As this is Sabbath eve the two Will's have gone to church. There is a lady preacher tonight, a Mrs. Mine, president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. She is quite an able speaker. Willie, Bertie and I attend Sabbath School every Sunday. I have a class of eight little girls.

Bertie and Eugene are in bed sound asleep so you see I have the evening all to myself.

When are you all coming to pay our visit back, you certainly did not prize it very much or you would have come before this time."

*Nebraska City, Nebraska
December 10th 1882"
"Father wrote me what a nice time you all had at the Golden Wedding. And while you were there did you cast a thought for the absent ones? We have not had a line from any of you since.

The two older boys attend school, they have not missed a day this term so far and school commenced in September. Gene is as cute as he can be, better looking than either of the others.

Have you heard that they have a little girl out at brother John’s? She is about six weeks old. We have not been to see her yet. Will started last Saturday, and got as far as the depot but business arrangements detained him so he could not go.

And now dear friends I must bring this long letter to a close, hoping it may find you as it leaves us, well and also that God in his infinite mercy will allow us to behold each others face once more in this beautiful world of ours. If not in that which is to come. When you write home give our love to all the friends and reserve a large portion for yourselves.

From your Brother and Sister
W. D. and M. J. Hollabaugh"

Margaret had enjoyed good health for most of her 87 years. As a youth she suffered with Typhoid Fever and late in life underwent internal surgery. She taught school for eight years, and enjoyed reading and needlework. At 87 she suffered a fatal stroke of paralysis and died 17 July 1934 in Nebraska City. She was buried on the 19th - West of lot 343 Old Ground 2nd grave south side, Wyuka cemetery.

The obituary of William D. Hollabaugh from a newspaper clipping reads:

"DEATH COMES TO W. D. HOLLABAUGH - Pioneer Farmer Drops Dead in Post Office.

William David Hollabaugh, 88, who, as a youth, watched the Battle of Gettysburg from a point of vantage in a tree and a few months later heard President Abraham Lincoln speak his immortal words at Gettysburg, dropped dead in Nebraska City Saturday morning.

Mr. Hollabaugh died in the post office, a building which he helped to build. His heart failed him. Mr Hollabaugh had not been ill before his sudden death came.

Born in Gettysburg, Pa., July 24, 1847, he lived there as a boy until after the Civil War. He was married April 10, 1873 to Margaret Jane Furnish at Spencerville, Ind, then he came to Nebraska.

Mr. Hollabaugh worked as a skilled carpenter on the Nebraska City post office when it was erected in 1886-88. For years he was a farmer southwest of Nebraska City.

Mr. Hollabaugh is survived by six children: W. E. and J. A. of Nebraska City; H. E. Hollabaugh of Overbrook, Kas.; Mrs Mabel McWilliams, Mrs Lulu Dwyer and Mrs Ethel Niemann, of Nebraska City. Two sisters, Mary Hennigh, Carlisle, Pa., and Anna Pensyl, Sibley, Iowa, and two brothers, J. B. Hollabaugh, Biglerville, Pa., and Levi Hollabaugh, St. Joseph, Indiana, also survive. Mrs. Hollabaugh died July 17, 1934, in Nebraska City.

Mr. Hollabaugh was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o’clock Monday afternoon at the Kangerla-Patterson chapel with Dr. Harry Markley in charge. Burial will be at Wyuka cemetery."
Mr. Hollabaugh was buried 6 January 1936. (Age 88y 5m 10d) West ½ Lot 343
Old Ground South side, Wyuka cemetery, Nebraska City, Nebraska.

William and Margaret had spent many anniversaries together, their 59th being their last. They had had a good life together. Will too had been in good health most of his life. In his middle years he had had a bout with pneumonia, and in late years had had prostate surgery. He retired in 1909, and enjoyed hunting and fishing. Will was the son of George Hollabaugh (b. 11 July 1809; d. 20 Aug. 1877) and Elizabeth Bittinger (b. 17 Mar. 1815, Gettysburg, Pa; d. 6 Aug. 1896, Gettysburg, Pa.

Will's great-grandfather, Michael Bittinger (1730 - d. 29 May 1812, Gettysburg, Pa. He served in the Revolutionary War, in Capt. George Long's Co., 6th, York County Militia. Michael's brother, Jacob Bittinger, served in the same Co., York Militia.

Will was educated in the common schools, and learned the trade of the carpenter.

Will and Margaret were the parents of seven children: Caroline Elizabeth, William Edmond, John Albert, Horace Eugene, Mabel Maud, Lulu Grace and Ethel Elaine Hollabaugh.

Margaret was the last of her 10 sisters and brothers to die. She was 87y 5m 26d at time of her death.

Both were members of the First Presbyterian Church in Nebraska City, Nebraska.

d. 2 July 1919 Lincoln, Neb. cause: "brain trouble"
burial: Wyuka cemetery, Nebraska City class: Presbyterian occupation: School Teacher/Homemaker son of: Francis Edward & Anselina

Lulu rode a horse to and from the country school she attended in Nebraska as a child. She later graduated from Peru Normal College. She taught school several years and then became one of the Principals in the Nebraska City Schools, and served in that capacity for fifteen years. She was 5 ft. 8 in. tall and weighed 155 lbs.

Lulu and Chester E. Dwyer were married by the Reverend C. A. Mastin, a Methodist minister, 6 June 1906. They were married at her parents farm home, in the yard, under a large tree. At the reception that followed the wedding ceremony, they forgot to serve the fresh strawberries and cream they had prepared for the occasion. They took a wedding trip to Lynn, Mass. to visit Chester’s parents as they were not able to attend the wedding. They traveled by train, boat and carriage, and stayed for a month.

"CHESTER E. DWYER IS DEAD - Former Manager of Arbor Lodge Passed Away Yesterday at Lincoln.

Chester Edward Dwyer, who had been a patient at a Lincoln hospital for the past year, died yesterday at 6:30 o’clock. Brain trouble was the cause of death. For the past few weeks his condition had been serious and death was not unexpected.

He was born in Lynn, Mass., July 17, 1879, where he grew to young manhood. After graduating from the schools of his native city he attended the Massachusetts Agricultural College and graduated with the class of 1902. Shortly after graduating he came to this city as manager of the Arbor Lodge farm and continued in that position until failing health caused him to resign about two years ago. As his condition became worse he was taken to the hospital at Lincoln for treatment but failed to find relief from his malady. During the time of his management of Arbor Lodge his skill as an agriculturist became known throughout southeastern Nebraska and it was through his efficient direction of the estate that its products became popular throughout the west. He was a conscientious and painstaking manager and his efforts were highly appreciated by the owner of the estate, Jay Morton. He was well known and highly esteemed in this community and his death will be sad news to his many friends.

June 6, 1906, he was united in marriage to Miss Lulu Hollabaugh, well known young woman of this city, who with two sons, Raymond and Paul Dwyer, survive. He is also survived by his parents, three brothers and one sister residing in Massachusetts.

The body will arrive here this afternoon over the Burlington. The funeral announcement will be made later."

Chester was buried in Wyuka Cemetery, Nebraska City, Nebraska. He was also an accomplished Photographer, taking pictures for the Morton family and around the lodge in his spare time.
Arbor Lodge is now a State Historical Park. It is located on the west edge of Nebraska City on U. S. Highway 73 and 75. It consists of 65 acres, with a 52 room mansion, the former home of J. Sterling Morton, founder of Arbor Day. He was appointed Secretary of Agriculture by President Cleveland in 1893. In 1872, Morton presented a resolution to the State Board of Agriculture calling for an annual tree-planting day to be known as Arbor Day. On March 31, 1874, Governor Robert Furnas issued the first Arbor Day proclamation. In 1923 the heirs of J. Sterling Morton willed the property to the State of Nebraska for “park purposes and reservations to conserve forest, animal and bird life.”

Besides the Mansion there is also the stables with many horse-drawn vehicles, such as a stagecoach, surrey, sleigh and some coaches. Also it houses a hand-operated fire engine.

Over one hundred and sixty species and varieties are growing on this land near Nebraska City. At the Morton arboretum at Lisle, Illinois, there are over eighteen hundred species of woody plants, including about all the American trees and shrubs as well as most of the exotics.

On the Memorial monument at Arbor Lodge, which was dedicated by former president Grover Cleveland in 1905, is the inscription from the writings of Morton: “Other Holidays Repose upon the Past—Arbor Day Proposes for the future.”

Lulu (Hollabaugh) Dwyer was active in the Presbyterian Church, its activities and the women’s club in her younger years. She got her teaching degree (2 years) after her children were born and still small. Her mother cared for the children, who were both born at Arbor Lodge, while Lulu attended Normal School.

They were the parents of two sons, Raymond Chester and Paul Edward Dwyer.

Raymond Dwyer was born at Arbor Lodge, he attended school in Nebraska City and the University of Nebraska, graduating in 1932 with a degree in electrical engineering. He worked in Iowa for a while then moved to Hastings, Nebraska where he owned and operated the A & W (Root Beer & Fast-Food Franchise Drive-in) for twenty years. He retired in 1973. His hobbies are sewing, woodwork, building and repairing electrical things. When he was going to school he remodeled his mother’s home (it took him two years.) He put paneling (solid wood) on the walls, it is still beautiful today. He is a happy fun type of person to be around, even though he has been troubled with ulcers of the stomach. He became seriously ill last winter and was hospitalized from March 1 to March 20, 1976. He had surgery on the 4th. He was readmitted on the 22nd and underwent surgery on the 23rd on the prostate. So two major surgical operations in 19 days was quite an ordeal, but he is making good progress.

Robert grew up on the farm at Nebraska City helping his father with the farming. Both his father and mother were deaf. He attended school in Nebraska City and the University of Nebraska. Neighbours and friends helped in his growing up by taking him with them when they went fishing, etc. He taught Agriculture for 6 years, and in 1975 quit teaching and took a position as Farm Manager at Wayne, Nebraska. He is the manager of 75 farms, which keeps him busy, but he loves it. They live on the outskirts of town where they enjoy the country living with the convenience of living in town.

Beth is one of seven children. Her father is a Medical Doctor. He was a General Practitioner, then for 15 years at the University of Nebraska Health Center. He developed the Physical Fitness Lab. there. Now he is on the Emergency Room Staff at Bryan Memorial Hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska. He has written a book "The Lazy Man’s Guide to Physical Fitness," with another man.

Her parents usually took she and her sisters and brothers on camping or other outdoor type vacations. She worked as a counselor for many years at a Camp Fire Girl’s Camp, as she has a deep interest and love of nature. She graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1966, and taught grade school until they adopted their first child. She was nine days old when they adopted her.

Bob and Beth met at the Ice Cream Store at the University. They were both working there. Beth in the retail store and Bob in the back making the ice cream and cheese. At the end of the year they were engaged. Beth went off to Hastings, Nebraska to teach and Bob continued at school, after a year of Beth getting on the bus every Friday night and coming home to Lincoln and returning Sunday night on the train, they were married that summer. They moved into the same first floor apartment that her folks lived in when they were first married. (Her grandfather had owned the house and made it into apartments for her Mom and Dad. They bought the whole house and lived in it as a family home until the summer of 1967 when they built a house in the country near Lincoln) so after they moved they put it back into apartments and Beth and Bob rented the first floor.

Except for their honeymoon to the Tetons most of their trips have been camping vacations. They love to camp and both of their girls went camping at early ages (Angela at 6 months, Heather at 10 months). They enjoy most everything related to the out-of-doors. They have been over most of the Western part of the States and Canada camping.

They also enjoy the work of the church. In Sutton, Nebraska they were members of the United Church of Christ, where Beth taught Sunday School and served on the Board of Trustees. Bob was on the Outreach Board and did work for the State Church. In Wayne they have joined the Presbyterian Church.

They are the parents of two daughters: Angela Marie and Heather Elaine Dwyer.

The James Furnish Residence
Spencerville, Indiana

James & Ida Furnish & children:
Sudie, David & Ralph
James Madison Furnish was born near Savannah, in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., Ohio. When he was eleven years of age he moved with his family to Spencerville, Indiana, where his father purchased 80 acres of land on the County Line between Allen Co., and DeKalb Co., in Jackson Twp. described as:

"David Furnish from Marvin Frances W. D. July 1, 1860 80 acres $800.00 $ 8 of S E 4 Sec. 35 Twp. 39 Range 13 E Recorded."

October 1, 1863."

Here James grew to manhood, attending the Roots School and living the remainder of his life. At 31 years of age he married Ida Alice Steward. She was a native of DeKalb Co. and lived the remainder of her life here also.

He worked with his father and in his father's declining years took over the work of the farm completely, and carefully watched over his parents' remaining years. His father had had some sort of injury and during the last eight years of his life suffered of "bodily ills and pains", but with a great deal of patience.

A little over a year before his father's death James purchased the above described 80 acres from his father on 8 August 1887 for $ 3400.00. Recorded 11 August 1887. He did general farming. Politically he declared himself a Republican.

Jim died at age 75 without leaving a will. So the farm passed on to his three children, Sudia, Ralph and David. In June of 1934 David bought out his sister and brother and the farm was again in the name of "David Furnish." In April of 1951 he sold the farm to Francis and Verda Graber, assessed valuation $3510.00. The old Furnish Homestead had been in the Furnish family for 91 successive years.

In 1896 James and his two brothers, Thomas and Abraham, each built new brick homes. There is still a bronze plaque in the peak of the roof with this date on it. These homes were built eight years after their father's death.

A note of interest from a letter dated 13 May 1860. Ida writes of her canning. She also said they had 5 cows and that she churned the butter and took it to Auburn every Friday where she got 20 $ per pound the year round.

Ida died at age 57 at their farm home near Spencerville. Just before she died she said, "Jim, my heart has stopped beating." Her funeral was on Tuesday the 18th later of an enlarged prostate and uremia. They are both buried in the White City Cemetery near Spencerville, Indiana.

They were the parents of three children, Sudia Caroline, Ralph Eugene, and David Lewis Furnish.

Sudia Caroline Furnish was born on the farm near Spencerville, she attended Boots School and lived in the vicinity all her life. She was married to Melvin Howey on Thursday, November 25th, 1904 at high noon in her parents home four miles S. E. of Spencerville, Indiana. To this union one son was born, Lynn Leroy Howey, causing some unforgettable memories. In a letter that her mother wrote to her sister-in-law, Mrs. William (Ada) Furnish, dated Oct. 1, 1905 she wrote:

"I am forty-six, and grandma again which makes me feel old. Sudie has a little boy two weeks old tomorrow morning. She got along just fine until the baby was an hour old...Then she went into detail explaining that Sudie had hemorrhaged dreadfully, and that the doctor had gone home and that she and Mrs. Howey were there alone with her. "We called the doctor back and he came in a few minutes but she 'had nearly hemorrhaged to death' by the time he got there. She was so pale and weak she couldn't sit up for 10 days. The baby weighed five and a half pounds and was doing fine."

Melvin and Sudia owned a farm of 80 acres one mile east of the Boots School and a little north. Their house was the only house on road 47. The house was in Spencer Twp. and the barn was across the road in Jackson Twp., Dekalb Co. Melvin was a teacher, and taught for 19 years. He taught at the Hopewell, Bear Creek and Spencerville schools, all in DeKalb Co. He farmed as well. They were both active in the Methodist Episcopal church. Melvin taught Sunday School for 40 years, and Sudia for "at least 35 years" in the Spencerville church. In their later years after moving to Auburn they attended the Church of the Brethren in Auburn.

Sudia died in Hicksville, Ohio, where her son Lynn and his wife Erma live. She had lived in an apartment in Auburn for many years after Melvin's death. She was in a rest home in Hicksville for a short while. Both Sudia and Melvin are buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery in Auburn, Indiana.

They were the parents of one son Lynn Leroy Howey.

Jerry was killed in an automobile accident near Antwerp, Ohio. He was a passenger in a car driven by Ronald Wilcoxson, 24, of Route 2 Auburn. The driver was attempting to pass another car on a curve in the highway. The car rammed into a semi-trailer driven by Charles Crabtree, 46, of Toledo, Ohio and the big rig jack-knifed across the highway and struck the car the Wilcoxson vehicle was attempting to pass. Funeral services were conducted at the Gerig funeral home in Auburn at 2 p.m. on Wednesday with the Reverend Loren Shackleton, pastor of the Auburn Church of God in Auburn, Indiana officiating. Burial was in Roselawn cemetery near Auburn.

David Furnish was born in Spencerville, Indiana. He attended the Hopewell School there. At age twenty he had a moving religious experience as in a letter dated Feb. 16, 1910 that Adella Lochner wrote to Ade Furnish she said:

"There was a great revival at Spencerville this winter. 103 conversions. David and Paul Furnish were among the number."

Adella

He helped his father on the farm until he was twenty-one and then went to Detroit, Michigan where he got a job at the Ford Motor Car Co. There he worked on the first Assembly Line that Ford Motor Car put into operation. And for many years was a 'Star Man' which meant that he had clearance to go anywhere in the Plant. He was Assistant Service Manager of the "then" only Lincoln Service in Detroit for several years. When the second Lincoln Service was opened in Highland Park, Michigan, he was made Service Manager of it. David also served as Service Representative of the Company and traveled different territories of Michigan and Ohio, being the "between man" of the Company and Lincoln and Ford Dealers of his given territories.

In 1913 he and Vera Andress were married. They lived in Detroit and Ferndale, Michigan, all of their married life together. David died in the Out-patient Clinic of the Henry Ford Hospital where he had gone for a check-up.

At the time of Vera's death she had been making her home with her daughter, Isobel, in Connecticut. She fell because of a stroke. She was taken to the hospital where she was a patient for three days. She was then transferred to a nursing home where she was a patient for two months.

Both David and Vera were brought back to St. Joe after their deaths for burial.

In 1934 David purchased the farm that had belonged to his grandfather, David Furnish, and his father James. He bought out his sister Sudia Howey, and his bro-father, Ralph Furnish. At that time he had hoped to retire there. But in 1951, three years before his death, he sold it to Francis and Verda Graber. The David Furnish Farm had been owned by the Furnish family for 91 successive years.

David was a member of the Highland Park Masonic Lodge until his death. Vera belonged to the Park Corinthian Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, also in Highland Park. She was a member of Highland Park Methodist Church.

David and Vera were the parents of two daughters, Isabel Jane and Lorraine Adele Furnish. Lorraine, however, only lived three days. She was born 22 August 1930 in Highland Park, Michigan.

Isobel Furnish was born in Highland Park, Michigan. She attended Highland Park Elementary School, then her parents moved to Ferndale, where she attended Roosevelt Elementary School and then graduated from Lincoln High School in 1936. She attended Albion College graduating from there in 1939. She did graduate work at Wayne University in Detroit, before being married, and has taken extension courses through Willimantic State University and the University of Connecticut recently.

Harry also graduated from Lincoln High School, but in 1939. After graduation he entered the Service. He is a Technical Writer, Sings Barbershop and has his own Sail Boat. They live at Groton, Connecticut and he loves to sail in Long Island Sound.

Isobel and Harry are members of Christ United Methodist Church in Groton, where they both take an active part. This year Isobel is Co-Chairman of the Worship Committee, Harry is a Trustee.

Isobel is also a Registered Breeder of Persian Cats.

Isaac was born in Richland Co., Ohio January 17, 1843. While he was yet three years old his parents moved to Allen Co., Indiana where he grew to manhood and spent all of the remainder of his life with the exception of two years in Michigan.

November the 2nd 1871 he and Martha Furnish were united in Holy Wedlock; this union was honored with three children, two boys and a girl and the strictest kind of loving fidelity; their vows really meant "until death doth us part."

About the year 1880 he was converted to Christ and shortly after he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and has remained a member thereof until the Master called him to be with Him on January 4th 1920 at the ripe and honored old age of 75 years, 11 months and 17 days. Surely as a ripened shock of corn he was gathered in to be with his Fathers, a man loved and respected by a exceedingly large host of friends.

He leaves his aged and devoted wife, one son, David of Allen Co., four grandchildren, one brother of Noblesville, Indiana and numerous other relatives and friends to mourn this loss.

"Straight through my heart this fact to-day
By Truth's own hand is driven:
God never takes one thing away
But something else is given.

I did not know in earlier years
This law of love and kindness
I only mourned through bitter tears
My loss in sorrow's blindness.

But over following each retreat
O'er some departed treasure
My sad repining heart was met
With unexpected pleasure.
I thought it only happened so
But time this truth has taught me
No least thing from my life can go
But something else is brought me.

It is the Law, complete sublime
And now with faith unshaken
In patience I but bide my time
When my joy is taken.

No matter if the crushing blow
May for the moment down me
Still back of it waits love I know
With some new gift to crown me.

David was a resident of Allen Co., Indiana most of his life. He spent two years with his parents at Ramon Center, Hillsdale Co., Michigan (1882), and a year in DeKalb Co., Indiana following his marriage. He and Laura Sauder were married in 1899 by the Reverend E. W. Erick, pastor of the Lutheran Church in Spencerville. In 1907 they purchased a farm in Perry Twp. and were engaged in farming until he retired in 1948. At this time they sold the farm and moved to Grabill, where they purchased a home in town. David was in failing health the last fifteen years of his life. David never drove a car, he continued using a horse and buggy long after his contemporaries had changed over to cars. Laura took an active part in the life of the church. Each year they read their Bible through. Laura took an active part in the Women’s Missionary Society as well, and had a vital interest in the work of Missions. Her hobby was piecing and making quilts. She did beautiful work and quilted with very fine stitches. She taught many young women her skills including her daughter Ruth. Laura also liked to crochet and made rugs. She used many spools of thread in her quilt making and tossed the spools in a box. David kept salvaging them and to built her a “spool table”. The ends of the table underneath (the bracings) are all done with spools as well as the legs. They have used it in their home ever since it was finished. Many people have asked to buy it but "it is not for sale."

Both Laura and David died in their home in Grabill. David died on Sunday, 19
January 1958. His funeral was conducted at 2 P. M. on Wednesday at the Grabill Missionary Church. The Reverend Vernon Petersen and the Reverend Clifford Grabill officiated at the service.

Laura died 18 March 1969. Her funeral was held on Thursday at 2 P. M. in the Grabill Missionary Church also. The Reverend Donald Gerig and the Reverend Gordon Beck officiated. The Baldinger and Walter Funeral Home in Spencerville were in charge.

David and Laura were the parents of three children: Marion Eugene, Arthur Isaac and Agnes Ruth Grosh.

He also taught children in Child Evangelism classes. In later years in several small factories in Ohio and Indiana, and cared for his mother the rest of her life.

He has always taken an active part in the work of the church, is a student of the Bible, and in November of 1974 he was able to see a life long dream come to pass when he was able to attend the "Worldwide Convocation on Evangelism" in Jerusalem, sponsored by The World Methodist Council Committee on Evangelism. Besides Jerusalem, they visited other important sites in the life and ministry of Jesus, visiting Jericho, the Dead Sea, Qumran, Bethlehem, Samaria, Megiddo, Caesarea, Nazareth, the Sea of Galilee and Capernaum. And then he took the 7-day extension to visit Athens and Rome.

Marion is an excellent photographer, and took over 400 pictures, which he is now busy showing to many congregations, and shut-in's, reliving his trip each time he shows them. He is the last survivor of his immediate family.

A. Ruth Grosh was born in Cedar Creek Twp., Allen Co., Indiana. She had worked as a seamstress at the Fort Wayne Lutheran Hospital for 35 years, retiring 1 April 1972.

Shortly after retiring she became increasingly tired, and since she did so much sewing, she decided to have her eyes checked. Her eye doctor noticed some hemorrhaging her eyes and sent her to her medical doctor. He promptly hospitalized her for tests, where it was determined that she had cancer of the bone. She suffered greatly but never lost faith in the God she had served so long and so well.

Ruth, like her mother loved to sew and piece and quilt quilts, which she did for many of her friends. She had looked forward to her retirement, so she could work at her hobby. Many people had quilt tops ready and waiting for her to quilt.

She was active in the work of the church, and in it's Missionary Society, having a real love for the work of the Missionary.

Her funeral was held on Monday, 11 September 1972 at 2:00 P. M. from the Grabill Missionary Church. The Reverend Donald Gerig, and the Reverend Warren Hiebert officiated. Burial was in the family plot in Leo.

They lived in Kendallville at the time.

Verbena, besides caring for her family and home was active in the "Ladies Aid," which was the "Methodist Women's Society" of her day. After the death of her husband she went to work in a greenhouse.

They were the parents of three children: Martha Lavern, Gladys Ilene, and Dorothy Grosh. Verbena died at the home of her daughter Gladys Hinkley. Funeral arrangements were made by the L. E. Berhalter & Son Funeral Home.

Lavern remembers as a child they always went to her grandparents, Martha and Isaac Grosh, for Christmas; and how cold the long drive was from Kendallville and Huntertown; and that her grandfather's horse was so slow, that she and her father often got out of the buggy and ran a ways to get warm; - those were "the good ole days."
Besides caring for a rather large family and home, Lavern has always been active in the work of the church, and helped where she was needed most. In fact much of their family activity has centered around the church. They attend the New Haven United Methodist Church, which now has a beautiful new large structure. It is a very lively ambitious congregation. Some of the many things they do are to twice a year bring in some of the elderly people, that are able to come, from the Allen County Nursing Home to attend the 10:40 service, treat them to a potluck dinner and entertainment. In 1974 they brought ninety people to this service. The women also work hard on their annual bazaar in December, where they clear between $1500 and $2000 dollars. They have an active Methodist’s Men Club. Their 1974 fall projects included two trips to Michigan, once to purchase 1200 bushels of apples, and the other to purchase 900 Christmas trees. The men sold them to raise money for other worthwhile projects. There is always a project going on, for the church, or the community to bring help to the needy.

All of the Forsyth children have held offices in the church, some have taught in the Sunday School, and they were all married in the home church. They all attended the New Haven schools and graduated from high school there.

A. Earl was a traveling "car inspector" for the Pennsylvania Railroad. He worked between Chicago and Fort Wayne, repairing box cars and hot boxes, emergency work in places where there were no shops to work in. He is a member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge, and has held offices in it. He likes to do gardening, and go fishing. Both he and Lavern are avid readers. In the early 1970’s Lavern had cataracts removed from both eyes, her sight is good again, for which she is most grateful.

After Gladys finished a business course in high school she worked for the Fort Wayne & Northwestern Interurban Company for eight years. She was Secretary to the President and General Manager. After the death of her husband in 1958 she went to work for the Flint & Walling Kg. Company, worked ten years and then retired in 1968. Since then she has worked part time as Assistant Bookkeeper at the Fischer Colonial Pharmacy. She was also Secretary-Treasurer of the First Methodist Church of Kendallville for over 25 years. She is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and Past Presidents' Parley. Her hobbies are reading, knitting and crocheting.

Her husband John Hinkley served in the Army in World War I. He was in Company B, 37th Infantry, Polar Bear Division, Siberia, Russia. He was a Charter Member of the American Legion Post No. 86, and a member of the First Methodist Church of Kendallville. He was a foreman for McCrory Refrigerator Company, in Kendallville, Indiana, and had worked there more then fifty years. He was a cabinet maker and an avid reader of history. They lived in the same house for 50 years. On January 31, 1945, it burned just after he had finished remodeling. The entire upstairs was destroyed. After being rebuilt, John and Gladys did all the finishing on the inside.

To this union one son was born: William James Hinkley.

Ida, according to a newspaper clipping, joined the Methodist Episcopal church in her youth and lived a consistent Christian life until her death. At that time she was secretary of the Sunday School. She was a charter member of the newly organised "Ladies' Aid Society" of the church of her choice, showing her willingness to work in any department of the church.

"She had pledged herself to the love and duties of the home-life, but God saw fit to take her from her suitor, leaving him to bear his deep loss in sorrow. Now she is taken away on the wings of death and thus breaks another devoted friendship, leaving Fordise Kensinger among the mourning friends."

Her funeral was conducted by the Reverend M. Pittenger, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Leo, Indiana.

   Ida Caroline Furnish was born in Clear Creek Twp., Ashland Co., near Savannah, Ohio, where her parents settled in 1844, and purchased twenty-five acres of land. She moved with her family in 1860 to Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., near Spencerville, Ind. Ida and Edward D. Metcalf were married 20 Feb. 1877 in her parents home near Spencerville. The Reverend E. W. Erick officiating.

   They lived in DeKalb Co. all of their married life, in the Spencerville, Auburn areas. The Metcalf's were from Gerameville, Ashland Co., Ohio.

   "Following a severe illness of kidney trouble of less than 48 hours duration, Ida Metcalf died at her home on Walnut St. in Auburn. Although in poor health for several months, she was able to attend to her household work up until Sunday, when she took seriously ill, death resulting at 6:15 Tuesday A. M. at age 61 years."

   Her funeral was conducted Thursday afternoon by the Reverend F. A. Hall, pastor of the Auburn Methodist Church.

   They were the parents of three children: Mary Myrtle, David Frank, and Alma Floy Metcalf.

   Myrtle was born in Jackson Twp., DeKalb Co., Indiana. Her parents moved to Auburn, Indiana, when she was eight years old. There she lived the rest of her life with the exception of the last two years, which she lived in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

   When she was first married she became a member of the Auburn Lutheran church, but after moving to Fort Wayne she became a member of the Presbyterian church there.

   Her death came very unexpectedly when she suffered a fatal stroke in Fort Wayne on Monday evening. She possessed a genial, lovable disposition, and was a devoted mother to her family and home.

   Myrtle and Roy were the parents of three children, only one lived to maturity; Helen L. VanAuken. A son Jay lived eleven months, and another son was stillborn.

Helen died of heart trouble and finally a stroke just five months before her husband Earl was severely injured and died when the car he was driving went off State Road 20 - 4 1/2 miles west of Angola, at 9 P.M. Saturday and ran into a tree.

"He was not found until 4 A.M. Sunday and was very weak from loss of blood. He was removed to a hospital in Angola, but died a few minutes later of internal injuries. He was riding alone in his sedan on his way from Auburn to his father-in-law's cottage at Bass Lake, Steuben Co., to deliver some groceries. The driving rain and slippery pavement, combined to cause him to lose control of his car, officers believe.

He was employed by the Auburn Automobile Co., at Connersville, and returned to the city for week-ends. His wife, formerly Helen VanAuken of this city, died from heart trouble here 5 months ago. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn." 2

Hines. They had no children, and had few outside interests until the later years when they both became actively involved with the congregation of the Bible Baptist Church of Auburn. Floy died some days sitting in her home. Their residence was located at 1520 S. Spratt St., Auburn, Indiana.

The Reverend Wayne R. Smith, pastor of the Bible Baptist Church in Auburn, conducted Floy's funeral. Linos died ten days after suffering a stroke. Floy's funeral was conducted from the Dilgard & Cline Funeral Home Wed. 13 Sept. 1967 at 2:00 P.M.

IDA CAROLINE (FURNISH) METCALF

Footnotes

1. Copied from a newspaper clipping obituary, paper not known.
2. Ibid
The Furnish surname, like many, appears to have its origin in the place where ancestors lived in the late medieval times. There are two reported sources:

(1) From living near the headland in Lancashire (a name "Furness" exists on such a promontory in that English county today). (2) From the French, "Furneaux" meaning furnaces (Latin forn-us, or oven.)

Dictionaries of names and books of genealogical information give many alternate spellings of the Furnish name such as: Furness, Furnise, Furnace, Furnass, Furnes, Fourniss, Varnish, Furnace, Furnysh, Furnesux, Furness, Furnes and others. When doing research for this present work the Genealogist, Prudence Rodwell, discovered alternate spellings in the parish registers. One entry had no "h" in the name while another for obviously the same person had the "h" restored.

David Furnish, my great-grandfather, came from the Suffolk area of England, and according to parish records the family had resided along the northwest border of East Suffolk for several generations. There are, however, many place names in Lancashire and Herfordshire showing that there were branches of the family there also. A "Diocese of Furness" (with a Cathedral!) was on the west coast of Lancashire.

A family in Kent, listed in Burkes Armory as, "Furnese, Furnes, or Furness," had a Coat of Arms. Members of the family of Clyde O. Furnish were given a copy of a purported "Furnish Coat of Arms" by an American research firm. No such item appears in any standard books such as Burkes. A comparison of the Kent County Furnese listing with that submitted by the research firm shows them to be identical.

Court met pursuant to adjournment. General James Budge as on Friday.

Old motions: Edward Henry Keeler Horley, John Kalling, Peter Kripp, Martin Koons, George Frederick Kegler, Anthony Deering. NATIVES of Pennsylvania. Adalas Beck, John Severn, Natives of France. Simon Boly, John Estelman. NATIVES of Switzerland and David Furnish, a NATIVE of England. All 36 White Males over the age of twenty one years, this day appeared in open Court and proved to the satisfaction of the Court, that they had in all respects, complied with the law regulating Naturalization. It is ordered that they be admitted to all the rights and privileges of citizens of the United States. Thereupon the said Edward H. Horley, John Kalling, Peter Kripp, Martin Koons, Geo. F. Keeler, Anthony Deering, Adalas Beck, John Severn, Simon Boly, John Estelman and David Furnish each severally appeared in open Court and made oath that they would support the Constitution of the United States, and that they would forever renounce and abjure all allegiance to every foreign Prince, Potestate, State, King or Sovereignty, whatsoever, and particularly to the several Kingdoms and Republics of which they were formerly Subjects.
Will Furnish lived six miles from St. Johns and four miles from Fowler, near the border that divided the two postal lines. They really picked up their mail at Shepardsville, but had a St. Johns address.
Dear Brother

As we are not in enmity with you so we reply to yours which we received the 22 Inst. though the news are very painful to give I can scarcely write for tears the news are so sad.

Our Dear Beloved Mother has gone to her long home to live with God in Heaven. Where sickness sorrow pain and death are felt no more. But where all tears are wiped away. Her illness was of short duration of about 14 hours. Took with paralysis at 6 o’clock Friday morning last. Died at 8 o’clock on the evening of the same day. Was unconscious about 12 hours. Her funeral took place on Sunday at 2 o’clock in the afternoon. Sermon preached at the house by the Rev. Shafer.

Brother we sent E. & I Metcalf to Auburn to the Curries office to see if you took the paper so we could send you a dispatch but failed to find your whereabouts. Sister Mary and Nancy and Will Shearer came out but to late to see Mother alive. Will stay till Saturday.

I dismiss these sorrowful thoughts for the present.

Father’s health is about as usual only is older and more feeble than he was when you was here. The rest of the friends are all well. We saw Adella and Frank at the funeral, they were well. Adella is married to a Mr. Peter Loghner they have a daughter about one year old.

Adella has a very good husband.

Brother: will you please excuse us for this time and let us hear from you soon and we will answer. We remain your friends

I. and M. Grosh

P. S.

Dear Brother I wish that we would of got your letter a little sooner so we could of got you word about our Dear Mother as we wished that you could of been here. She often spoke of you and wondered why you didn’t write. But let us try and live right so we can meet our Dear Mother in heaven where parting is no more. When are you coming out? Well I guess that I will have to stop for this time but will try and write more the next time so good-bye write soon. We remain as ever your Brother & Sister, Ike and Mat Grosh. The children are all well and gotten quite big. Write soon.

You will find the text in the 7th chapter of Rev. from the 13-17 verses.

(Copied from the letter written to William H. Furnish, concerning his Mother’s death. From his sister and brother-in-law, Martha (Furnish) & Isaac (Ike) Grosh.) It was sent to Fowler, Michigan. Their address was St. Johns, but they picked up their mail at Shepardsville.)

Feb. 13, 1889

Dear Brother and family:

We received your long looked for letter last night learning that you had not learned of poor old Father's death. I will answer at once.

Father took sick on Sunday evening, before Christmas and died on Christmas day at three minutes before ten o'clock in the morning. He had Neuralgia of the heart on Monday. We sent you and all the rest of the family a dispatch concerning father and not hearing anything from you I did not know where to write to inform you of the sad news.

We kept Father until Friday, expecting some of his children, but none came. David Shearer and Will came, Ida did not get here until he had passed over the dark river. He was sensible until the very last. His suffering was great until a while before he passed away. Just before he died he whispered "sweet Jesus". Abe is appointed administrator. He sent you a sale bill. He sent it to Fowler so I will send you one. I close at present.

J. M. F.

Information on the David Furnish Farm in Ashland County, Ohio

July 4, 1845 David Furnish purchased from A. F. Shaw and his wife Mary Jane Shaw twenty-five (25) acres of land located in Section 15, Township 25, (Clear Creek Twp.), Range 17, being a part of the N. W. 1/4 of Section 15, in Ashland County, Ohio. The amount "to them in hand paid" was $275.00.

September 20, 1859, this above property was sold back to A. F. Shaw and Mary Jane Shaw, by David Furnish, and M. Caroline Furnish for the sum of $1000.00. It was recorded July 4, 1860.

A branch of the Clear Creek runs through the corner of the property once owned by David and Caroline Furnish, as well as there is a spring that still flows, near where the buildings once stood. (Observe Map of Clear Creek Twp., 1874 Atlas.)
INFORMATION FROM THE ABSTRACT OF THE DAVID FURNISH FARM ON COUNTY LINE ROAD
Jackson Township, DeKalb County, Indiana

24 November 1824 to Uriah Marvin

13 August 1836 Fanny Ann Marvin registered land at land office in Fort Wayne

1 July 1860 dated deed to DAVID FURNISH for $800.00 This was the East ½ of S. E. ¼ Sec. 35, Twp. 33, North Range 13, 90 acres.

8 Aug. 1887 to James M. Furnish and recorded 11 August 1887 for $3400.00
15 Sept. 1924 James died and left no Will.

9 June 1934 Sudie (Furnish) Howey sold her share to her brother David Furnish

4 April 1951 Francis and Verda Graber bought the farm from David Furnish, assessed valuation $3510.00.

This ended the old original Furnish farm from being in the Furnish family. It had been the "FURNISH FARM" for 91 years.

James Furnish built a new house in 1896, (8 years after his father's death), and in the peak of the roof on a bronze plate is the date 1896. James' brothers, Abraham and Thomas built red brick homes the same year.
